Ukraine used to bomb the Russian army's position with a grenade(Reuters)NATO is preparing to perform air exercises in the east wing bordering Russia in the alliance, while on the time of the front of the front and south of Ukraine, the Russian Wagner Group Commander Yofgen Niigerojin revealed that a large number of prisoners of war voluntarily arrived in Ukraine. Combat for pardon.

According to the German Plan, a large air exercise will be launched this week, including the fighters of the East Wing of the Alliance. According to the mobile plan, the Eastern Union partners require such signals with military security and unity.

Last Monday, NATO launched a series of largest air exercises under Germany's coordination, known as "Air Guard-20123", aiming to show its members' unity when facing potential threats, especially from Russia. The exercises include exercises over Germany, the Czech Republic, Estonia and Latvia.

The "Air Guard-20123" exercise will last until June 23. It will include about 250 military aircraft from 25 member states and NATO allies, including Japan and Sweden. They are candidates for the world's largest military alliance.

About 10,000 people will participate in these exercises to strengthen joint operations and defense drones and cruise missiles when they are attacked in cities, airports or ports in NATO territory.

According to the German Air Force Commander, General Ingo Gehaz, introduced the exercise during the exercise, the idea of the exercise was proposed in 2018 for Russia's annexation of Crimea in 2014, although it was not specifically targeted at "any party any party. "" .

prison prisoner of war

At the same time, the person in charge of the Wagner Group said on Sunday that about 32,000 people who were recruited from the Russian prison had returned to their country and confirmed that they had fulfilled the contract and were deployed in operations.

Women and human rights activists have expressed their concerns about many criminals, including murderers and other violent criminals, and re - integrated into Russian society prematurely. However, Porigjin believes that military service is an important social renovation plan.

In the audio message released by Porigjin on its Telegram application channel, it was 83 times less than 83 crimes that were released for a total of 83 crimes.

Pricigin is a close friend of Russian President Vladimir Putin. He personally recruited some prisoners in the prisoner of war camp. Putin has issued a pardon order to those who sign the contract, provided that they have completed at least 6 months of combat operations in Ukraine.

After several months of fighting, Bachurut (eastern Ukraine) was finally controlled. Porigjin said he lost 20,000 soldiers there, including 10,000 former prisoners. In some cases, he worked hard to ensure that the criminals received military honor when buried.

Battle and counterattacks are still continuing

On the battlefield, the Ukrainian Air Force announced that it destroyed two attack helicopters in different areas of southern Ukraine, the "Shaxide" drone made by Iranian, and a "willow -leaf knife" drone belonging to the Russian army. It claims that more than 20 air strikes have been implemented on the venue and equipment of the Russian army.

The General Staff of Ukraine also stated that on the 18th, the Russian army launched more than 40 air strikes and more than 60 missile attacks, causing casualties.

In Odeza (southern), the Ukrainian military authority spokesman SergeyPrachuk said that his troops aimed at an ammunition depot in the Rekovye area (southeast of Hermuson), and eventually completely destroyed the place at the place. Essence Ukraine Merlot Popor Mayor Ivan Fidorov said in a TV statement that the nature of the explosion shows that the target area is a ammunition store, and the Russian army uses it as the center of assembly equipment and storage fuel.

On the other hand, the emergency service department of pro -Russia reported that the Russian army destroyed an ammunition store in the Ukrainian army.

population evacuation

In the north, the Governor of Belgia, the governor of Russia, said that the Ukrainian army bombed more than 120 artillery shells on the state without causing any casualties. At the same time, Ukraine drones also thrown explosive devices to damage cars and civilian vehicles.

Russian Governor Roman Starotatt, Russia, said that due to the potential danger of Ukraine destructive groups on the border, the regional authorities have developed all villages and urban residents to evacuate from Ukraine.

In Donzk, the Russian authorities reported that Ukraine's bombing of the region caused 1 death and three injuries, including 1 child.

At the same time, the Russian Ministry of Defense spokesman Igor Konacopov said that the Russian army repelled the eight attacks on the Donetsk axis of Ukraine, causing 210 soldiers to die.

Konarkov said that the Russian army also repelled three Ukrainian tactical battalions on the Zaparo axis and pointed out that a ammunition store in southern Ukraine was destroyed.

On the other hand, the Ukrainian army in the Tavria region reported that in the southern part of Zapolozhie and Donetsk, the Russian army had 4 consecutive casualties.

Ukrainian comment

Mikhailo Podoliak, a consultant of the Presidential Palace of Ukraine, commented on the 17th of Russian President Putin and African Anti -Africa delegations on the 17th that in his opinion, "Putin's meeting with African delegations, and his and them with them Talk is a typical fraud in Russia. "

He added that Putin talked about his behavior in line with the United Nations Charter, and according to the Ukrainian consultant, he was "international wanted war criminals."

Podoliak asked in a speech in Putin: "The UN Charter" is offered to invading other countries, occupying part of them, implementing slaughtering and torture, and abduction of children? "

He continued ironically that according to his statement, "the Moscow National International Relations College may be taught another kind of international law."

Russia's response

In the opposing camp, the Kremlin spokesman Dimitri Peskov said that Russia's mission of losing Ukrainian armed forces has been basically completed, and the number of weapons used by the Ukrainian army is much less.

He added a statement issued to the media during the Russian President at the meeting with the African mediation delegation in St. Petersburg that Kiev is increasingly relying on the weapons provided by the West.

Peskov believes that Western countries, especially NATO countries, directly involved in the Ukraine conflict.

Peskov: Russia's mission to lift the Ukrainian armed forces has basically been completed(Anadoru News Agency)

war with the West

Regarding the provision of weapons to Kiev, Peskov said in an interview with the RT Channel of Russia that "Special military operations in Russia began to defend the Donbass region, and now it has become a war with the entire West."

Peskov pointed out that "In fact, the special military operations against the Kiev regime were initiated to ensure the safety of the people of the Donbas. The war between the West. "

Peskov also talked about the Russian President Vladimir Putin on the establishment of a "warning line" in Ukraine if he continues to bomb Russia. It will expand, "That is, how far we must drive the Ukraine from our land."

In the same background, the EU's internal market commissioner Tiery Bretton said in an interview with the French "Parisian" on the 18th (Sunday) that the European Union was speeding up to transport weapons to Ukraine to support the counterattack against the Russian army.

Bretton said, "We will increase the transportation of weapons and ammunition. This is a war that is continuously upgraded, and (these weapons) play a decisive role in it." He added, "We are for several months for several months. Prepare more for a long time. "

Chinese Foreign Minister Qin Gang held talks with U.S. Secretary of State Brosky. Qin Gang rarely interpreted Taiwan's issue with "the most prominent risk". According to analysis, although China has repeatedly reiterated that Taiwan is the core interest of China, for the United States, the United States has its own "China" policy and will not be abducted by US -China relations.

Brosky and Xi Jinping met in the Great Hall of the People * Brinkee meets Qin Gang analysis: Provide an opportunity for a tension between the United States and China Whether Brintken arrives in Beijing's Sino -US relations to improve global attention

According to the press release of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China, Qin Gang clarified the strict position on the core interests and major concerns of the Chinese issue in Taiwan, and put forward clear requirements.

"The issue of Taiwan is the core of China's core interests, the most significant issue in Sino -US relations, and the most prominent risk." Qin Gang said that China urges the United States to abide by the "one China" principle and the three joint communiqés of China and the United States. The promise of "Taiwan independence" is really implemented.

According to the Voice of the United States, a senior official of the US State Department emphasized that China's military upgrade in the Taiwan Strait is a "issue of global attention." The official said that the peace and stability of the Taiwan Strait are in line with the "long -term interests" of the United States.

Professor Lu Industry, a professor of National Politburo, told this station that after many dialogues in the United States and China, the press releases issued by each other can see that China especially emphasizes the importance of Taiwan issues, but the United States usually lighten to deal with Taiwan issues. The main difference is that China believes that Taiwan is its core interest, but from the perspective of the United States, the United States has its own "one -China" policy, and its subjectivity about the US -Taiwan relations. The United States believes that it should not be abducted by US -China relations.

"(Qin Gang)This time is different from before. In other words, he explicitly told the United States that this is the core interest, but at the same time, it is also the place where both sides are most likely to wipe the guns and get angry or have misjudgment of each other. "Lu Yingzhong said immediately," The first policy of the United States mentioned the so -called differences on the two sides of the strait(differences)It should be handled through peaceful ways between the two sides of the strait, and the United States has stable in this position. "

** Analysis: U.S. -China talks will help alleviate the current situation of the Taiwan Strait's current situation.

Regarding whether the talks can help the tension of the Taiwan Strait, He Chenghui, deputy secretary -general of the Taiwan Security Association, said in an interview with this station that "has eased the current situation, but the long -term trend remains unchanged."

He said that for China, it is not a good time to launch a war against Taiwan at this moment. Once the war fails or is difficult to carry out, it is enough to shake the Chinese Communist regime. Therefore, China will make the "drag titles" and make the outside world mistakenly think that the situation is slow, but it will only accumulate backwards.

Standing in the United States, He Chenghui believes that the current Russian and Ukraine War is in full swing. Western countries do not want to fight on both sides, tendency and slowing situation. As the U.S. Indian commander Aquirino said publicly that he was awarded two heavy tasks to prevent the CCP from invading Taiwan. "At least everyone gradually condenses consensus, expands this kind of amendments, and responds positively and rapidly. Let this aggression be eliminated invisible."

Taiwan problem in China China Soft and Hard Hand

Wang Yi, a member of the Political Bureau of the CPC Central Committee and the director of the Foreign Office of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China, met with Blink in Beijing on the morning of the 19th. When he mentioned the issue of Taiwan, Wang Yi also reiterated that the maintenance of the country's unity is always the core of China's core interests. The fate of Chinese children is the historical mission of the Communist Party of China, and "China has no room for compromise."

When the US Secretary of State Brills, Wang Yi and Wang Yi and Qin Gang met, China both mentioned Taiwan's issues.(Reuters pictures)China's issue in Taiwan shows the handling of "hard and hard, both hands and inside and outside". Wang Huning, the highest -level official of Taiwan affairs and chairman of the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference, emphasized that "the development of cross -strait relations in the people and the people are in the people. The results of cooperation benefit compatriots on both sides of the strait. "He also talked about" peace "and said that" the peaceful development of cross -strait relations is the right path to maintaining peace and stability of the Taiwan Strait, ... to the right path to the national rejuvenation. "

The former editor -in -chief of the Global Times, who has always faced the world of war wolf, said that in response to the talks between Brinken and Qin Gang, he posted on his personal Weibo. But in the core interests, he is resolutely not allowed. "He also reminded," No matter what the front appears, we don't need to be impatient, impulsive, and panic. "

"On the one hand, he knew very well that it was a catastrophe to China. But on the other hand, he couldn't give up the core bottom line." He Chenghui interpreted that Hu Xi's informal document was close to the conflict of China's mainstream interesters.

He Chenghui reminded that in order to avoid conflicts, Western countries were willing to take a step back in certain interests. However, in addition to the concession in China, others will not be concessions. "In the negotiations set in China, Western countries will always suffer, because you never understand it, China will not refund in substantive issues, then this negotiation is invalid from beginning to end."

Lu Industry analyzed that in the past, Hu Xijin played the role of "throwing throttle" in Chinese nationalism. Now he publicly puts soft tunes, helping the Chinese leadership to promote interaction and exchanges with the United States in the future. "Regardless of his intentions, there will be some situations that help ease the tight US -China confrontation."

Data recently released by Germany show that the prospect of this European economic power is dim. The German economy has declined this year, and the country's emotions have recently decreased as the fastest speed since the epidemic. OECD(OECD)It is now expected that Germany's economic growth rate will be the lowest in major economies this year. However, the trend after this year is even more worrying. The current geopolitical adversity -the upgrade of tensions from Russia's invasion of Ukraine to the United States and China -highlight the vulnerability of the international economic model pursued by Germany, and also highlights its challenges in the medium and long term.

German Chancellor Olaf Tumz(Olaf Scholz)It has always been ambitious to re-adjust its economic direction, including reducing Germany's dependence on Russia's energy and creating a new industrial supply chain. The Souls government has been acting quickly. Increased the target of renewable energy power generation to 80%, increasing the attractiveness of Germany as a green investment destination. Germany will invest tens of billions of dollars to promote the development of the semiconductor industry. The German economy also showed toughness, and it did not come true for the terrible predictions of its deep recession this year. But the future tasks are still arduous.

The obvious overloaded fishing boat was photographed many times before sinking.

A immigration ship sinks on Wednesday (June 14), and hundreds of sneaks are unknown. The BBC has evidence that the Greek Coast Guard has doubts about the description of the incident.

The reporter analyzed the navigation trajectory of other ships in the sea, and believed that the overloaded fishing vessels remained in place within seven hours before sinking. The maritime police insisted that during this period, the fishing boat sailed towards Italy and did not need to be rescued.

The Greek authorities have not responded to BBC's survey results so far.

The shipwreck killed at least 78 people, and the United Nations said that the whereabouts of up to 500 people were unknown. There is a voice questioning that Greece should have taken more actions to start comprehensive search and rescue.

In this regard, the United Nations calls for investigation to deal with the practice of this is the practice. Greek officials insisted that the staff on board showed no help, and until the moment before sinking, the fishing boat was not dangerous.

The BBC obtained a display Marinetraffic Computer animation that tracks data, this is a maritime data analysis platform.

Their data shows that a small seas that of immigration ships later sinking for a few hours of activities, and these data brought questions about the official statement of navigation of fishing boats without difficulty.

The fishing vessels are not equipped with tracking equipment, so they are not displayed on the map, as well as the maritime police and naval ships because they do not need to share their position.

The official incident of the sea police sequencing suspect

The EU Border Administration (Frontex) said that the bureau first discovered the immigration ship at 08:00 at 08:00 last Tuesday (13), and knew that the Greek authorities would be known as the Greek authorities.

Alarm Phone, a hotline for emergency help for immigrants at sea, said that they received calls at 12:17 GMT, saying that fishing boats were in critical condition.

We use the BBC facts to identify authentic videos and photos, as well as court documents and maritime records to analyze the next hours of ship dynamics.

Marinetraffic animation shows that a ship named "Lucky Sailor" suddenly turned north at 15: 00GMT. The "Lucky Sea" Ship East provided its Log Book to the BBC, and confirmed that the maritime police asked the ship to be close to the immigrant ship and provide food and water to the other party.

About half an hour later, at 15:35 GMT, the marine police helicopter found the immigrant ship. Greek officials still claimed that the fishing vessels were still sailing at the time.

Image source, Marinetraffic

Image adding text,

The yellow mark on the map is the place where the immigrant ship sinks. From the direction of the ship's movement there, a few hours before the shipwreck, the fishing boat has not moved.

But two and a half hours later, about 18:00 GMT, another ship "Faithful Warrior" sailed to the same sea area, and also supplied immigrant ships.

The "Loyal Fighter" shipowner reminded BBC to inquire with the investigation authorities.

A piece of video was reported from the video of the "Loyal Fighter", which claimed that the ship was recorded on the migrant ship with a rope on the sea, and no other ships were seen in the clip.

The BBC facts verified the video and confirmed that the appearance of the boat was in line with the immigrant ship seen in the photo -and it did not move in the clip -the weather conditions also met the report at the time. The shooting time of the video is unknown.

Between 19:40 GMT and 22:40 GMT, Greek officials originally declared that immigrant ships maintained "stable routes and speed".

The authorities' initial statements said that they kept cautiously and observed immigration ships, but they later released a close -up photo -and it was taken during this time -showing that the immigration ship did not go.

Image source, Greek Coast Guard

A Greek government spokesman later said that the sea police had tried to board the immigrant ship for risk assessment, but someone on the ship unlocked the cable and did not want to be aid.

Within seven hours, all ship activities focused on a clear point, indicating that the immigrant ship was almost at all.

The proportion of animation maps shows that the immigration ship sailed for a few nautical miles. It is expected to be within the expected ship where the immigration ship is in the most deep place in the Mediterranean.

The anxious person on the boat causes the ship to swing and will also promote such movement.

During this time, Greek officials insisted that the immigration ship was not dangerous and instead sailed to Italy safely. Therefore, the maritime police did not try to step forward to rescue.

By 23:00 GMT, the immigrant ships of hundreds of people sank, and the ship tracking animation showed that many ships rushed to the scene for rescue.

One of them was CeleBrity Beyond, a cruise ship. Someone on the boat took a photo after the maritime and sent the clip to the BBC.

The luxurious yacht "Queen Maya" was then ordered to rescue 104 survivors and send them to the shore.

The rescued people were sent to Kalamata, who returned to a safe place, but also left a series of questions for Greece's overall response.

In 2019, Hong Kong broke out for several months to oppose the government's demonstration in the amendment of the "Fugitive Regulations". With the emergence of the new crown epidemic in 2020 and the implementation of the National Security Law in Hong Kong, the street struggle was almost extinct. In the following years, the Hong Kong Government continued to "transform" all aspects of society. BBC interviewed three people with different political spectrums. They told the huge social changes in Hong Kong over the years through their own personal experience.

An objections, known as the "Agent Agent", were tried in Tongcheng County Court of Hubei because of their provocation. Sources revealed that the public prosecutor suggested to the court for four years. Chen Jianxiong's friend Yuan Xiaohua said that Chen Jianxiong was arrested again after a year of release, which was detained with his disagreement Wang Aizhong and Ou Biaofeng and published personal comments.

Yuan Xiaohua: "On the Twitter, he expressed his personal views and opinions on the trial of Ou Biaofeng and Wang Aizhong, and even revealed that in addition to his attention, he also wanted to participate in the listening. One of the reasons for the third arrest. "

The dismissal person Yuan Xiaohua (pictured) estimated that Chen Jianxiong was re -sentenced to meet with him and the rights protection lawyer Jiang Tianyong. (Yuan Xiaohua is exclusively provided, the shooting date is unknown) Chen Jianxiong met with Jiang Tianyong in the field

It is understood that Chen Jianxiong once left Chibi and met with Jiang Tianyong, a long -monitored lawyer who had been monitored after the release. Yuan Xiaohua said that Chen Jianxiong was originally the key target of the authorities' key stability. It may be the meeting that the authorities were determined to confess Chen Jianxiong.

Yuan Xiaohua: "He (Chen Jianxiong) had met with lawyer Jiang Tianyong once. According to me, they (Hubei Chibi authorities) should not allow him to leave the local area and see these sensitive people outside. Authorities) The surveillance of him is very strict. Like Chen Jianxiong may be in their eyes, there is no advice and no savings. "

In May 2013, five people such as Chen Jianxiong and Yuan Xiaohua launched the "Light China" campaign in Chibi, Hubei, and publicized democracy in the local people's square. Known as the "Chibi Five Gentlemen" by the outside world. Afterwards, Chen Jianxiong was sentenced to twice for "provoking trouble".

Zhai Yanmin, a Beijing disagreement from the "709 Capture" incident, is a friend of Chen Jianxiong. He believes that Chen Jianxiong is facing the sentence to his former subject. In addition, Chen Jianxiong has a certain influence in Chibi, and it does not rule out the possibility of the authorities' intention to kill chickens and monkeys.

An objectional person Zhai Yanmin (middle) believes that Chen Jianxiong (left) has influence in the local area and does not rule out the possibility of the authorities' intention to kill chickens and monkeys. (Zhai Yanmin is exclusively provided, the shooting date is unknown) Zhai Yanmin: "(Authorities) do ideological work for you, you must think about the problem according to their thoughts. Chen Jianxiong will never accept it, and will never match them. They saved a lot. If he was outside, they would send someone to take care of it every day. In fact, they just looked at him, arranged work for him, and took care of his life, so they felt very troublesome. He caught it and saves you. "

Zhai Yanmin revealed that the Beijing authorities have recently sent people to warn him face -to -face that he should not release the relevant information of the Chen Jianxiong case.

On June 19, German President Steinmel welcomed Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang to visit the Presidential Palace. Stein Mel emphasized the importance of US -China relations on "global security and cooperation"

(Voice of Germany) The topic of the Chinese State Council's visit to Germany has not attracted much attention in China so far. Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesman Wang Wenbin just announced the schedule on Thursday on Thursday. The official media did not focus much on the intergovernmental consultation between Germany and China, and not much voice pointed out that The attitude of the Social Democratic Party, the Green Party, and the Liberal Democratic Party in the Berlin to treat the Chinese government. Criticism.

The environment is not the past

In the opinion of the scholar of the European Research Center of the Shanghai International Institute of International Issues, China's party and state leadership now needs to respond to Germany's different policies to China in the past.

This foreign policy researcher believes that compared with Merkel's administration, many factors in Germany and China have changed, "including the international environment, regional security situation, and the German internal affairs environment."

is how to re -position relations with China

bilateral relationship becomes more complicated

Wu Qiang, a political scholar in Beijing, analyzed a deeper analysis of the relationship between the two countries. In his opinion, Germany and China relations have currently entered a "self -reflection" stage -and this coexistence at the same time with each other.

Wu Qiang is one of the few international political scholars who are in China and are still publicly expressing criticism. He taught at Tsinghua University, but was later fired for publicly publishing his criticism of the CCP.

"Mutual dislocation between China and Germany involves the issue of Taiwan and the Russian and Ukraine War." Wu Qiang said in an interview with Deguanglian reporters. How to continue the question. "

Facing problems in German companies

Although China is the largest trading partner in Germany, for German companies, China's political environment has brought them more and more difficulties Essence The Chinese authorities have put forward more requirements for international enterprises that have carried out business in China than in the past, hoping that they can completely avoid getting involved in the political field, especially not to ask for criticism of politics and human rights.

It is expected that the German government will also mention China's anti -spy law at this government consultation meeting. This law can make Chinese authorities more easily convicted of foreign companies and their staff, such as the assessment of Chinese national statistics.

Questions about German National Security Strategic Files

Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang is expected to have a strategic document to China that is about to introduce the German government, and The national security strategy just announced recently A lot of questions are raised -the German national security strategy released last week mentioned six times in the text.

The Chinese government has criticized this document, because in Beijing's view, this is evidence that democratic countries in the world feel that they have received the threat of Chinese nationalist policy.

Scholars Wu Qiang analyzed: "The most headache for Beijing is the so-called collective security order established by the United States and the West -this pattern has included the Western Pacific and Southeast Asian countries. Build this security pattern together. "

China's interests in the Asia -Pacific region

Beijing also noticed that more and more Germany showed concern about the security situation in the Asia -Pacific region, and China originally regarded this area as its own sphere of influence.

Therefore, when German Defense Minister BORISPISTOSRIUS announced in early June that it would send German naval ships to the Asia -Pacific waters for cruise next June, it also caused China to be vigilant. This topic is expected to be mentioned in Berlin's government consultation.

The Tibetan Administrative Central Division Bianba Renba Ren was at the University of Science and Technology of Sydney on June 18(UTS)Speech, advocating the "intermediate road" policy that advocates peace and violence, and calls for the construction of the mutually beneficial relationship between the Chinese people and Tibetans.

Chinese students returning to Australia to call for alert to be alert to Beijing to reach out overseas campuses * Tibetan leaders of exiles will testify in the United States: Why does the voice of Tibet disappear? The Tibetan Administrative Central Division visited Denmark to maintain its role in promoting overseas human rights

In this speech entitled "Solving the long -term conflict between China and Tibet is the top of world peace", Bian Ba Jiren pointed out that the Dalai Lama was proposed by the Dalai Lama "Policies, on the one hand, reject China's policies that are currently implemented in Tibet, and at the same time seek peaceful and non -dialogue methods to win Tibet to enjoy real autonomy in China.

After the lecture, Bianba Ren told this station that the "middle road" is a favorable policy for Tibetans, China, and regional security. He said: "Everyone who strives to peace should support the Tibetan's" middle road "policy; if all countries do this, the Chinese government will feel pressure and have to face up to reality and adjust their behavior."

Bian Bajiren pointed out to the station that in addition to fighting for mutual benefit with all parties, the "middle road" also insisted on defending the autonomy of Tibetans. He said:

"We are a nation, and we used to be an independent country; whether China looks at us, we are an autonomous nation."

The Chinese government promotes racial cleaning policies on Tibetans; in response, Bian Bajiren believes that the Australian government should implement the Magnitzki Act and sanction relevant Chinese officials. He said: "The Magnitzki Act must be treated equally in its execution. On the one hand, it should not be aimed at some countries that can cope with, and on the other hand, we should not execute Chinese officials."

The current Tibetan Administrative Central Divine Political Bian Bian Ren believes that the "middle road" is a favorable policy for Tibetans, China, and neighboring countries.(Reporter Qiu Dezhen) Bian Ba Jiren also mentioned in his speech that if the CCP forcibly specifies the reincarnation of the reincarnation of the 15th Dalai Lama in the future, it will be unwise. He said:

"If the Chinese government designated the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama, it will cause long -term problems; that is not a military police or any means to suppress the problem."

Bian Bajiren believes that the CCP used to violate Tibetans' wishes and forcibly designated the Candian Lama reincarnation candidate. As a result, Tibetans were even more dissatisfied with the CCP. He said:

"Tibetans are unwilling to sell photos of the current Banrene Lama in China, but they cannot sell photos of the Panchen Lama identified by the Dalai Lama and the Tibetans; so they sell photos of the tenth Panchen Lama to show their dissatisfaction and declare that they refuse to recognize China designated designated. Candidates. "

University of Science and Technology of Sydney(UTS)Associate Professor Feng Chongyi told this station that in accordance with the "intermediate road" policy, Tibet does not seek independence and only seek independent autonomy. China does not have to worry about territorial division issues; and Tibetans managed Tibet independently, the natural environment will be protected, and will not excessively develop. It is good for China. He said: "The Dalai Lama talked all day long. For decades, all the policies formulated by the Tibetan government are 'middle roads', do not independent.(Tibet)Be independent and split in trouble. "

Feng Chongyi also believes that the CCP should have been an atheist party, but trying to intervene in the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama is a contradictory approach.

Bianba Ji Ren booking the National Journalist Club in Canberra on June 20(National PressClub)Published a speech; and the agency was put pressure on the Chinese Embassy for a while, requesting cancellation of the lecture. In this regard, Bian Ba Jiren said that the incident has attracted more media attention to his visit to Australia; and he will also make speeches as scheduled.

(Discussion on Dragon, Eagle)

Eagle cough, just won the new crown, his throat was a little sounded. Hey, how did you live last weekend?

Dragon's calmness -this prosperous world is as my wishes!

Eagle, you are really happy! What is the number last Sunday?

Isn't the dragon on Saturday on Saturday?

Eagle is six- ——

Dragon is right, today is Monday, June 5th, yesterday, one day less than today

Eagle, are you talking about cross talk? In the middle and five, it is--

I remember the dragon, yesterday, May 35th!

Eagle, hey, really comes coming.

In short, the dragon is even more common!

The eagle is ordinary, how can there be a grass and trees, and the mobile phone is checked?

"(<https://www.rfa.org/mandarin/yataibaodao/meiti/hx1-05232023092839.html>)_ )

Dragon ... This ... Yesterday was our "National Inspection of Mobile Phone"!In order to celebrate this Ruixue Zhaofengnian ...

Eagle snow in June, that should indeed be!

Dragon (shame and anger) Hi!Isn't it the same thing about June 4th!Can't force me to say it? A little storm has long been qualitative. Looking forward, absolutely unevenness -this is the voice of the people!

Eagle people? Do lambs know June 4th?

Dragon, don't accept it. Lamb, you come out!I test your history!

Sheep (playing) Come!Although the leader exams, as long as you let it know, I must know!

Dragon, June 4th, on Tiananmen Square ...

Sheep (automatically covering your ears) Do you ask the question? Can't I hear a word?

Look at the dragon, is it the choice of the people? I don't need me to cover this ear. Young people have long forgotten this small storm!

After the White Paper Movement of the Eagle last year, the June 4th commemorative activities of the old and Chinese and young generations were definitely not the voice of the people?

"(<https://www.rfa.org/mandarin/yataibaodao/gangtai/sc-05222023133403.html>)_

Long Na must be an overseas forces!Look at the place of these commemorative places, Britain, the United States, and Canada. If it is the voice of the people, come to our Long family to commemorate

I know where the logic of this little pink came from

What do sheep commemorate? Is there a special day in June?

Dragon is not ... no!However, a group of Wuhe people want to discredit our Dragon's family. As a result, it will only be blocked on the street for more than 30 years.

Eagle? A group of Wuhe people can also raise funds to build a June 4th Memorial Hall. It seems that our American soil and water is still supported by people, eh?

What are the memorials of sheep?

No dragon ... nothing!Go to see your live broadcast!

Speaking of the live broadcast, I haven't understood because of Li Jiaqi's affairs last year, I will check it ...

Dragon ...

Eagle is not, not to say, this is the real "small storm" paradox!

Brinken said that the United States and China have reached a consensus on the necessity of stable relationships (Voice of Germany Chinese) In the face of the Chinese party and state leaders Xi Jinping, US Secretary of State AntonyBlinken held a bilateral meeting with Wang Yi, director of the CPC Central Committee Foreign Affairs Office on Monday (June 19). Wang Yi asked the United States to stop the hype of "Chinese threat theory", cancel illegal unilateral sanctions against China, abandon the development of Chinese science and technology development, and must not interfere with China's internal affairs, and emphasize that there is no room for compromise to concessions in Taiwan.

U.S. Secretary of State Broskere, Wang Yi, director of the Foreign Affairs Office of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China on Monday, talks in Beijing. Wang Yi said that there is no room for compromise in Taiwan.

According to the films shot by media such as Reuters and China CCTV, Blintz entered the Beijing Diaoyutai State Hotel under the guidance of the staff and shook hands with Wang Yi. After a few simple greetings, the two entered the conference room. However, Brinken and Wang Yi greeted each other and sat down in the meeting room. In the whole process, they did not comment on the media present.

After the meeting, the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs issued a statement saying that Wang Yi focused on analyzing the essence of Taiwan's issue and emphasizing that maintaining the country's unity is always the core of China's core interests. "On this issue, China has no room for compromise." The United States must truly adhere to the "one China principle" determined by the three joint communiqués of China and the United States, respect China's sovereignty and territorial integrity, and clearly oppose Taiwan independence.

Wang Yi also said that Brinken's trip to Beijing is at a key node at the Sino-US relations. The root cause of the relationship between the two countries falls into a low point is that the United States holds the wrong understanding of China, leading to a wrong policy for China. It is necessary for the United States to reflect deeply, with the Chinese side, to jointly control differences and avoid strategic accidents.

The statement also said that Brinken expressed the US opinion to China, saying that the United States is committed to returning to the agenda determined by the head of the two countries, looking forward to strengthening communication with China, responsible control and control. Essence The two sides also exchanged opinions on the international and regional issues that were concerned about.

At the talks of Brinken and Wang Yi, neither party did not make any public conversations to the media present.

Bolling Ken will see Xi Jinping, once unclear

According to the itinerary released by the US State Department, after meeting with Wang Yi on Monday morning on Monday morning, Brinchen arranged for exchange activities with the American business community and diplomats in China in the afternoon, and held a press conference before the end of the evening of Beijing time (Taipei time), announced that a press conference was held to announce the announcement of the event and announced that it was announced to announce the announcement. The results of the visit, and then he will fly to London, England.

In the established itinerary planning of Blint, there was no arrangement with Xi Jinping, but many foreign media pointed out before that Brinken had the opportunity to see Xi Jinping this time. The New York Times reported that when the Secretary of State Mike Pompeo visited China during the 2018 Trump period, he met with Xi Jinping.

Brinken has seen Xi Jinping on many occasions in the past, and has also talked many times. In 2011, when he accompanied Bynden, who was the US Vice President of the United States, he met Xi Jinping, then the vice chairman of China, who was then the Vice President of China. Brinken served as a national security consultant at the time.

According to the news on Monday, Blintin will meet with Xi Jinping at 4:30 pm on Monday, Beijing time. The Chinese official media Xinhua News Agency also reported the news.

Chinese President Xi Jinping met with U.S. Secretary of State Brosky in the Great Hall of the People on the afternoon of June 19

Xi Jinping Meet Brinken: I hope you can visit China this time to help stabilize Sino -US relations

According to Chinese official media reports, Xi Jinping told the US Secretary of State that China had a long talk with Brinken before, "Generally, the two parties talk frankly and deeply." China has stated its position. "The two sides agreed to implement me together. The consensus reached with President Biden at the meeting in Bali, the two sides have made progress on some specific issues and reached a consensus. This is good. "

In addition, Xi Jinping also said: "The exchange of national and the country must always respect each other and treat each other with sincerity. I also hope that Mr. Secretary of State will play a more active role in stabilizing China -US relations this time."

Brings: "We all agree to stabilize our relationship"

The U.S. State Department stated that when the Secretary of State Broskere met with Chinese President Xi Jinping on Monday, President Bayeng believes that Washington and Beijing have the obligation to manage the relationship between the two countries. And the United States is committed to doing so.

Blingken also said on Monday that he agreed to the Chinese leader's statement and the need for a stable relationship between China and the United States, but he also "kept sober" about the huge differences between the two parties. The US Secretary of State told reporters, "In each talks, I emphasize that direct contact and continuous communication of high -level direct contact and continuous communication are the best way to manage differences in responsible management and ensure that competition does not turn conflict. If you do. We all agree that we need to stabilize our relationship."

Bringsken: I held an important talks with President Xi Jinping

Brinken said that an important thing for this trip is to make China no longer think that we are seeking to curb them economically. He said that the United States has not done this. Essence

According to Agence France -Presse, Brinken also pointed out that China promises not to transport deadly weapons to Russia. Brinken said that the United States continues to pay attention to whether Chinese companies will provide Russia with technologies that help them invade. "We have asked the Chinese government to maintain high vigilance in this regard."

The US Secretary of State also emphasized that communication between the United States and China is absolutely necessary. "At this moment, China has not agreed to make progress in this regard. I think this is a question we must continue to work hard." According to Reuters, an official of the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs responded that unilateral sanctions in the United States blocked military communications.

Blindken also said that more senior US officials will visit China in the next few weeks, and also welcomes Chinese officials to visit the United States.

According to Reuters, a Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs officials said that Chinese Foreign Minister Qin Gang has promised Broscin's invitation to visit the United States.

What details are eye -catching?

Blingken arrived in Beijing on the morning of June 18, arrived at the Diaoyutai State Guest House in the afternoon to talk with Chinese State Councilor and Foreign Minister Qin Gang. However, "News Network" broadcast by CCTV on the 18th did not report the matter. Regarding Brillin and Qin Gang's 6 or 7 hours of talks, the Chinese official media Xinhua News Agency and others only reported the Chinese position that Qin Gang expressed with his teachings, but did not say anything. Xinhua News Agency said that Qin Gang said, "At present, Sino -US relations are at the lowest valley since the establishment of diplomatic relations", and emphasized that "the issue of Taiwan is the core of China's core interests", "it is also the most prominent risk."

Analysis: Pay the way for Xi Jinping to attend the San Francisco APEC Summit in November

After talking with Qin Gang, Brinken wrote in Twitter that the two sides discussed how to manage the relationship between the two countries in charge through open communication channels. The U.S. State Department issued a statement stating that Brinken emphasized the importance of maintaining smooth communication channels on both sides and proposed to cooperate with China on some issues, but at the same time, the United States will continue to protect the interests of Americans and safeguard the rules -based international order. The Wall Street Journal had previously analyzed that one of the driving force for the recent recovery of dialogue in the United States and China was the Asia -Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) summit scheduled to be held in San Francisco in November. Beijing hopes that Chinese President Xi Jinping will attend the meeting and pave the way with US President Biden.

mask meaning

As can be seen from the photos, the US delegations led by Brinken were led by the Chinese Foreign Minister Qin Gang and a member of the Central Political Bureau and the director of the Central Foreign Affairs Working Committee. The personnel were wearing a mask, and the US personnel also put on the mask "with the customs" in addition to Blink. In March of this year, the picture reached by Beijing AIDS reached an agreement showed that in the three -party talks, all officials did not wear a mask, which was in sharp contrast to the picture of Beijing officials now meeting with Bollingken.

suspense revealed

Until the last moment, whether Xi Jinping, the Chinese President and the Supreme CCP leader, would have been a suspense. On the eve of Brinken's arrival in Beijing, Chinese Chairman Xi Jinping met with former Microsoft President Gates, saying that he was an old friend, and said that he always hoped to be in the American people. Analysts believe that if Xi Jinping does not see Blink, then Sino -US relations will be even more worrying. If you see, the relationship between the two parties is expected to be further ease. Xi Jinping may also have a formal visit to the United States when he goes to San Francisco in November to participate in the APEC summit.

What details are eye -catching?

Blinger to complete the main goal of this trip

According to usual, the US Secretary of State visits China, and Chinese leaders will meet with it. However, there are exceptions, such as when Plingken's former Pompeo visited China in October 2018, Xi Jinping did not see him. At that time, the Sino -US trade war had debuted, and US Vice President Pence had just delivered a tough speech on China. The relationship between the two sides was very tense. Today, Xi Jinping's visit to China after the Chinese balloon invaded the US led in the Great Hall of the People, which means that China and the United States will maintain high - level communication, and Brinken also reaches the "frankness, direct and direct, and directly, and directly announced by China to visit China. The main goal of constructive "discussion. During the talks, Xi Jinping was sitting in the middle, and the long tables on the left and right hands were sitting on Sino - US officials. Neither Xi Jinping and Brinken were wearing masks, and Qin Gang and Wang Yi, who had not wearing a mask during the meeting with Brinken, wore masks like other officials.

Chinese attitude becomes focus

According to the Taiwan Central News Agency, when Brintken arrived at the Beijing Capital International Airport, it was Yang Tao, the director of the North American Oceania of the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs. There was no red carpet at the scene and no welcome team.

Joshrogin, a Washington Post columnist, said on Twitter that Chinese officials sent relatively low -level officials to welcome Blink at the airport. "Maybe Beijing intends to humiliate him, hope not."

However, French entrepreneurs living in China, ARNAUDBERTRAND, said in response to Luo Jin's tweet that this is just a Chinese standard diplomatic etiquette and no dwarf; Washington Think Tank Strategy and International Research Center (CSIS) Scholar Paultriolo said "there is no signs of humiliation at this stage."

According to photos posted by Betron, Hillary Clinton, the Secretary of State of the US President Obama,)When Johnkerry visited China in 2012 and 2013, Xie Feng, then the director of the North American Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China, was also the same as Yang Tao at the same level. However, it can be seen from the photo that when Hillary visited China in 2012, the Chinese official was prepared to welcome the red carpet at the time.

As for the talks with Qin Gang on Sunday (18th), Bonnieglaser, the Director of Indo -Pacific Research Director of the Marshall Foundation (GMF) in Germany (GMF). The expected positive, China has shown that it is committed to building a stable, expected, and constructive Sino -US relations, "this is important." The United States mentioned that Brinton and Qin Gang held a "frank, substantial and constructive" talks. Although the word "Coopic" was not mentioned, it was still positive.

Ge Laiyi pointed out that the outside world's previous expectations for this visit were very low, but as of now, it seems that it has been quite smooth, and both sides seek stable bilateral relations; Brinken may meet with Xi Jinping. She said that if Brinton really can see Xi Jinping, this will be the most important meeting.

Chinese official media: Hope to respect each otherThe editorial said that the United States showed a positive attitude towards Bronken's visit to China, which can also be said to "as a last resort." Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu (Reuters) The Israeli government approved a legal amendment to shorten the stage of approving the settlement of the settlement on the west bank of the Jordan River, which prompted Palestinian power agencies to resist economic conferences originally scheduled to be held on Monday, June 19.

A reporter from Peninsula said that the Israeli government has decided to grant the Treasury Minister and the leader of the Extreme Jewish Repeated Political Party, Bicatric Smomrik, to approve the decision on the settlement of settlements in accordance with the current procedure, without the approval of the Minister of Defense.

Israeli official radio said this move is a major success in the expansion measures of settlements, regardless of the consideration of political leaders.

It said that the amendment to the law aims to promote, speed up and strengthen the construction of the West Bank settlement.

The radio pointed out that this step was conducted in the alliance agreement reached with Smomrich half a year ago by Prime Minister Benneamine Neitamahu.

On the other hand, the "PEACENOW" of Israel's anti -settings "immediately" said that shortening the approval procedure of settlement of settlements means that it really begins to implement the annexation plan in some areas of the West Bank. Investment in settlement.

"We don't accept it, we either win or die"

Risk upgrade

In the same background, the Palestinian Ministry of Foreign Affairs condemned the decision and said it was the danger upgrade of the West Coast.

The Ministry calls on the international and the United States to take real actions and put pressure on the Israeli government to prevent them from implementing this decision and forcing it to stop its illegal unilateral measures. Resolution of legitimacy and opportunities for signing agreements.

On the other hand, a Palestinian official announced on Sunday that Palestinian power agencies decided to resist bilateral meetings set up on Monday and Israel to protest the expansion of the settlement.

The Secretary -General of the Palestinian Executive Committee and the Minister of Palestinian Civil Affairs Hussein Shech said in a statement, "We decided to resist the meeting of the two -party senior economic committee will be held tomorrow."

Shech pointed out that this was a response to "the Israeli government's decision to accelerate the establishment of the West Coast's settlement and authorize the minister of the Minister of the West Coast to approve this decision."

He emphasized that Palestinian leaders "will consider other measures and decisions related to Israeli relations."

At the same time, Hamas also said that it "condemned Israel's Jewish movement, and the most recently announced bidding for more than 4,500 settlement units on the West Bank."

US Secretary of State Anthony Blinken met with Xi Jinping, President of China on June 19 on June 19.

Chinese President Xi Jinping said to Antonyblinden, the first US Secretary of State, who visited China in the past five years, that China "will not challenge and replace the United States", but "the United States must respect China and not harm China's legitimate rights and interests." Xi Jinping said that he would like to "stabilize and get better."

Xi Jinping said at the Great Hall of the People on Monday (June 19) in the Great Hall of the People in Beijing. Some specific issues have made progress and reached consensus "," this is good ".

Brinken responded that US President Joe Biden believes that the United States and China "have obligations and responsibilities management relationships" and do this conform to the interests of the two countries. He later told media reporters that both China and the United States agreed to stabilize the relationship between the two sides, and direct contact is the best way, but the United States will continue to take targeted action to protect the national interests of the United States.

The BBC reporter in Beijing, Stephen McDonnell, analyzed that Xi Jinping did not meet Blink in advance this time. It is a symbolic icing on the cake, and sent information between Beijing and Washington to stop Sino-US relations.

Xi Jinping's arrangement of Brilin was announced within a few hours before it was held.

Mai Diwen said that although Wang Yi blamed the current deadlock of Sino-US relations on Washington and asked the United States to stop the hype "Chinese threat theory", at least to some extent, high-level communication was restored to a higher level of contact. Communication information to the Chinese people "in contact with Washington".

Former U.S. State Council's Asia-Pacific Affairs Assistant Secretary of State, Yale University Cai Zhongzhao, a senior researcher at China Center, Susan NTHONTON, pointed out in an interview with the BBC connection that from the practice of diplomatic rituals, it is indeed very true that the head of state to meet foreign countries, but Xi Jinping has met many in office. The Secretary of State of the United States and the United States have also arranged for the presidential meeting of the Chinese diplomacy. Therefore, whether Xi Jinping met with Brinken to get widespread attention.

In a press conference after the meeting, Brinken said that he mentioned in a meeting with China that the United States had no intention of blocking China in the economy and was not interested in decimating the US economy with China.

Blint also said that it talked to China about Russia's invasion of Ukraine, as well as issues such as North Korea, Taiwan, East China Sea and South China Sea. The United States called on China to help achieve "legitimate peace" in Ukraine, and also proposed that China should have the influence of Pyongyang to stop the "dangerous actions" such as North Korean test ballistic missiles.

Brinken, also known as reiterating from Washington's "one China" policy, does not support Taiwan's independence, does not want to change the status quo on both sides of the Taiwan Strait, and expresses concern to China's "provocative" behavior in the Taiwan Strait. In addition, he also mentioned "deep attention" to the Chinese side of Xinjiang, Tibet and Hong Kong human rights issues, and also discussed the situation of "improperly deducted" American citizens in China.

Brinken mentioned that Washington welcomes more Chinese officials to visit. The Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs announced tens of minutes after the end of the US press conference that foreign minister Qin Gang will be invited to visit the United States.

According to the official Xinhua News Agency, Xi Jinping told Brinken during the meeting that the world needs overall stable Sino -US relations. Whether China and the United States can get along with the fate of the future. At present, the international community is generally worried about the status quo of Sino -US relations. I do not want to see conflicts between the two countries. They are unwilling to choose a side team between China and the United States. I hope that China and the United States will coexist and cooperate with friendly cooperation. Based on the attitude towards history, the responsibility of the people, and the world, the two countries should deal with Sino -US relations, contribute to global peace and development, and inject stability, certainty, and constructiveness to the world of chaos.

Xi Jinping said that either party can shape each other according to his own wishes, let alone deprive the other party's right to develop. It is hoped that the United States will adopt a rational and pragmatic attitude, and work with China, work together, and adhere to the consensus reached by Xi Jinping and Biden Bali in November 2022, implement the active statement on the action, let Sino -US relations stabilize and get better. EssenceIn November 2022, Xi Jinping and Biden met at the time of attending the G20 summit. What information did China disclose after the three -hour closed door?

Professor Wang Yong, a professor at the School of International Relations of Peking University, said that the current Sino -US relations are "in a very dangerous state". Beijing hopes to realize the in -depth exchanges between China and the United States through Bollingak to visit China and truly improve mutual trust between the two countries.

Professor Wang Yong said: "There are actually a lot of common interests between China and the United States ... But it is very regrettable that China and the United States, especially the United States, cannot correctly understand the motivation of China's foreign policy, and the impact on China's development on the world. There is no very correct impact on the United States, which is in line with actual understanding. This is one of the most important reasons that lead to difficulties in Sino -US relations. "

"China is willing to sit down with the United States. If you want to come up with a way to solve the problem, I think this is a realistic attitude, and it is in line with the interests of both parties and the interests of the world."

China and the United States have recently accused each other due to the "Cuban Spy Station" dispute.

The Chief of Creas, a think tank headquarters in Belgium's think tank Russia, Europe, and Asia Research Center (CREAS), said to BBC that China is willing to talk to the United States to a greater extent from the recovery of its own economy from the new crown epidemic. Essence She believes that China 's statement of the United States, such as accusing the United States, trying to block China -mainly to explain to domestic audiences.

Fang Xianya said: "The sanctions on computer chips are deeply damaged to the Chinese economy. There are currently many problems within China: the Chinese economy has not been able to enjoy the" retribution consumption 'after the new crown epidemic, as many analysts expect, people are still closely tight Hold the wallet. "

"Such narratives have become an excuse for convenience: If these Western sanctions tried to cover China, everything would be fine."

Anthonyzurcher, a BBC reporter in Beijing who interviewed Beijing in Beijing, said that although the United States regarded the recovery of high -level contact with China as a success in the United States, and seemed to be cheerful, they acknowledged that there was a larger scale between the two countries. More tricky differences. Among them, Taiwan is undoubtedly the most controversial one, which is enough to upgrade from the dispute between tongue to a full gun battle.

Zekel said that at the time of the United States and China expressed the willingness to normalize the relationship between the two countries, the two countries also had their own interests that were destined to have conflicts. How the relationship between the two countries develops is how to control differences.

US Secretary of State AnthonyBlinken held a press conference before the end of its trip to Beijing on June 19, emphasizing that maintaining direct communication with high -levels to ensure that the competition between the two countries will not evolve into conflict. Experts believe that this time Brinton's visit to China has found a 'stop loss point' for the decline in bilateral relations, but it is still difficult in the future.

The Blinger Reporter will reiterate the stability of the United States and China relations. Chinese parties will not express their "worshiping party" * Xi Jinping's last time to meet Brinken's significance for Sino -US relations Meizhong announced the consent of both parties to maintain communication with Qin Gang's talks

On the evening of the 19th, US Secretary of State Brillings held a press conference in the US Embassy in China to summarize the two -day trip to China. He said: "At each meeting, I emphasized that the direct contact and continuous communication of high -level high -levels are the best way to manage our differences responsibly and ensure that competition will not evolve into conflict. The same is the same. We all agree that it is necessary to stabilize our relationship. "

Brinten emphasizes the importance of maintaining direct communication between high -level direct communication

Blingken said that during Beijing, he held an important conversation with Chinese President Xi Jinping, and had a "frank, substantial and constructive discussion" with Wang Yi, member of the Political Bureau of the CPC Central Committee, director of the Foreign Affairs Office, and Qin Gang, a member of the State Councilor and Foreign Minister.

For the three goals set before this visit, that is, establishing open communication channels, directly asking questions about attention, and seeking cooperation in the aspects of common interests. Brinken believes that he has done it in this interview. The progress is difficult, it takes time, and this is not a result of a visit, a trip, and a conversation. "He pointed out that both parties believe that" responsible management of this relationship. "

Worried about China's provocative operation, Brincken reiterated the US policy to Taiwan

In response to the South China Sea and Taiwan Straits issues that are concerned about from all walks of life, Brinken said: "I have proposed the concerns of the United States and more and more countries' provocative operations in the Taiwan Strait and the South China Sea and the East China Sea. The long -term 'one China' policy. This policy has not changed. "

On the issue of Taiwan, Brinken reiterated that the United States has not changed its policy based on the three joint communiqués of Taiwan relations, the United States and China, and one of the six guarantees on Taiwan. He also said that the United States does not support Taiwan independence and also opposes any attempt to change the status quo of the Taiwan Strait unilaterally. He also pointed out: "Our obligations stipulated in the Taiwan Relations Law, including ensuring that Taiwan has enough weapons for self - defense."

Blindken also mentioned the recent close contact with the United States and China, and once again emphasized the importance of restoring military communication channels between the United States and China. However, he revealed that China did not agree with its suggestions, "At present, China has not agreed to promote this process. I think this is a problem that we must continue to solve. It is very important to recover these communication channels."

When it comes to the Russian and Ukraine War, Brinken also reiterated that China and other countries are welcome to play a constructive role in solving the Russian -Ukraine conflict based on the principles of fairness and peace in the United Nations Charter.

Blinden emphasizes the supply chain "de -risk and diversified" ****

On the afternoon of the 19th, Brinken held a round table meeting with the American business leader in China to understand the problems faced by these companies, including the recent "punitive operation" of China for American companies.Regarding the "decoupling" of the US -China economy, Brinken emphasized at a press conference that what the United States has done is "de -risk and diversified" instead of seeking to curb China economically: "As I said, we are not decumming to be decoupled . We are reducing risks and diversification. "

However, scholar Wang Weizheng believes that no matter how much the United States guarantees to Beijing anymore, I am afraid that it will not be effective, because "China may have identified it, and the future competition between China and the United States is basically a competition in science and technology and economic strength."

Brinken also said that the trip also specifically mentioned to China the US citizen citizen and people who faced outbound banned by the Chinese side, and said they would continue to work hard to ensure that they were released and returned to the United States safely.

Wang Weizhi believes that if Beijing wants to release some goodwill to the United States, these people can be released, but the Bayeng government will never use this.

There are more high -level interviewers in the United States and China: bilateral relations are still difficult

According to a statement issued by the US State Department spokesman Matthewmiller on the 19th, the two parties emphasized that the United States and China should work together to deal with the common transnational challenges such as climate change, global macroeconomic stability, and anti - drug. The two sides also agreed to restore personnel exchanges and will increase direct flights between the two countries. In addition, Qin Gang agreed to accept the invitation of Brincken to return to Washington at the right time of each other and continue to discuss. Blingken also said at a press conference that it is expected that in the next few weeks, senior US officials will visit China more. The United States also welcomes Chinese officials to visit the United States further.

Wang Weizheng pointed out that China originally hoped that the US Treasury Minister Yellen and the Minister of Commerce Raymond to visit China first, but Biden also hoped that Brins would go first in order to meet with Xi Jinping at the Asia -Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) summit in November. Essence He said: "In the next 3-4 months, the visit of senior US-China officials may recover, but the situation of competing with each other will not change."

Experts believe that this time Xi Jinping and Brinken held a 35 -minute short - term meeting, showing that China is willing to cooperate with the United States and strive to stabilize the relationship. However, Bonnieglaser, director of the Asian project in the German Marshall Foundation in the United States, also pointed out that it should not exaggerate the results of this trip, because the future relationship is still facing many difficulties.

She specifically pointed out that in Wang Yi's statement, China clearly pushed all the responsibilities of the deterioration of US -China relations to the United States: "This is not the basis for us to stabilize each other's relationship. The United States cannot accept such an interpretation. The signal still exists. In the future, these will still be a challenge. "

Taliban chief spokesman Zabihra Mojahd denied that since the armed organization re-controlled in Afghanistan in August 2021, the country's security situation has deteriorated.(French media)Taliban rejected a report from the US regulatory agency. The report said that since the movement took over Afghanistan in August 2021, the country's foreign armed groups and domestic security threats have risen.

The Taliban Movement Chief spokesman Zabihra Mojad said in a statement released later on the 18th that "we strongly oppose SIGAR's propaganda", and he refers to the U.S. Afghan reconstruction supervisor.

Mujid pointed out in the name of the Taliban government that "Afghan Islamic Emperor completely controlled the situation and did not allow any group or entity to destroy the stability of Afghanistan, or use Afghanistan land to deal with any other country."

According to Mujahd, the U.S. African Reconstruction Inspector emphasized in his latest report that the Taliban government faces serious security issues. Foreign armed organizations and domestic threats have continued to rise in Afghanistan, leading to increased risks in some countries.

The spokesman said that Afghanistan has experienced the security and stability that has never been used in 40 years.

He added that "no foreign armed organizations are active in Afghanistan", and the ISIS armed organization has been severely weakened and endangered.

The statement concluded that "Afghanistan does not pose a threat to anyone. On the contrary, the Islamic chief hopes to establish a good and constructive relationship with the international community including the United States."

Afghanistan in Afghanistan: The problem of the shortage of medical staff in the hospital(news agency)The Taliban Movement stated that it complied with the commitment made with the Duoha agreement reached with the United States in 2020, that is, no armed groups were allowed to move on Afghanistan.

This agreement led to the withdrawal from the United States, led by the United States, withdrawn from the country after experiencing a 20 -year war and occupation. However, in August 2021, the withdrawal of the U.S. forces caused the Afghan government and the army, which was supported by the West, and the Taliban subsequently re -controlled the Taliban.

Taliban has accused the United States of continuing diplomatic isolation in Afghanistan without fulfilling its commitment.

The "ISIS Camaron Branch" has always pose the greatest threat to Taliban's authority and claims to be responsible for multiple attacks.

In the "ISIS Horon Branch", it was designed to destroy the Taliban government's attacks. Hundreds of people, including foreigners and Haza ethnic minorities, died or injured.

The armed organization also aims at officials of the Taliban government, including claiming to be responsible for the incident of the Governor of Balk Province in March this year, and Responsible.

The Taliban government has suppressed the members of the organization and raid its hiding place in many provinces in Afghanistan.

British Foreign Minister James Cleverly reports to visit China next month, but British -Chinese relations are full of undercurrent. The British Security Secretary of State Tomtugndhat reported that it broke the convention and met Tang Feng, the Minister of Development of the Digital Development Department of the Britain, causing China to be dissatisfied. On the other hand, a group of British lawmakers believed in Prime Minister Rishisunak, asking him to intervene in his visit to Britain, the Minister of Foreign Liaison Department Liu Jianchao.

British Foreign Minister James Cleverly delivered an important speech in April, saying that after establishing a "steady and constructive" relationship with China, the media including "Reuters" recently quoted news, saying Visit China next month. However, there are still many variables whether Clever can eventually do.

Eagle organization welcomes Yingtai officials to make an exceptional meeting

"Reuters" recently quoted sources, saying that the British Security Secretary of State Tomtugndhat (14th) and the Minister of Development, Tang Feng, who visited the United Kingdom, met and discussed the common security interests. Although Britain currently has an office in Taipei, it only has formal diplomatic relations with Beijing. Therefore, according to past practice, British senior ministers generally do not meet with Taiwanese officials.

"Inter-Parliaments" (IPAC) Executive Director Luke Depulford said that according to his understanding, this is the first meeting of British-oriented officials and believes that it has been an important way to get an important thing. One step: "We welcomes this meeting very much, and this meeting has sent the right information. We should congratulate the Security Minister to overcome the pressure of other departments and create a precedent. In the future, all British ministers can imitate it."

However, neither Britain or Taiwan officials have not officially confirmed the meeting. However, Tang Feng uploaded a photo about Togen Dart's works on Twitter last Thursday (15th), expressing his hope to obtain the scriptures from Togen Dart to reveal it vaguely in this way. A certain form of contact was performed.

The Chinese Embassy in Britain issued a statement on Sunday (18th) to describe Taiwanese officials' visit to Britain with "visiting", criticizing English - Taiwan officials to meet, violating the "one China principle", and sending an error signal to the "Taiwan independence" forces. Strong dissatisfaction and resolute opposition: "The Chinese side urges the British to effectively abide by a Chinese principles and the basic criteria of international relations, stop any official exchanges with the Taiwan authorities, and stop promoting the" Taiwan independence 'split forces. The behavior will be strongly countered by the Chinese side!"

Li Yantan, a professor at the Politburo of Taiwan, said in an interview with this Taiwan that the CCP has been suppressing any sovereignty in Taiwan in the world. Interaction is also natural.

Li Yantan said: "Minister Togente met with the Digital Development Minister of Taiwan, Tang Feng, which was unprecedented, but also drove the British ministers to try it. In the future, it may be closely interacting with Taiwan. Of course , I have done a very close exchange with Taiwan. "

He believes that if China responds fiercely, it has even canceled the British Foreign Minister's visit to China, which shows that the overbearing of the Chinese Communist regime is not reasonable. He also hopes that Yingtai can strengthen technical exchanges against the "cognitive war" and "information war" to prevent the attack on the inferior information on the global spread and the attack on the free democratic system.

Israel bombarded the scene after the Israeli "Apache" helicopter bombed Joning (Anadoru News Agency) According to Palestinian medical sources, the Israeli occupation forces raid the Jiening refugee camp on the west bank of the Jordan River on Monday, June 19, and killed 5 Palestinians including a child with bullets, and 691 were injured, of which Including 7 Israeli soldiers.

The Israeli media said that Israeli soldiers were injured by ambush by Palestinian militants in Joning, and some of them were seriously injured. The Israeli Radio reported that the wounded was border guards, and the injuries were between mild and moderate.

Israeli media reported that since the second uprising 20 years ago, this is the first time that the plane bombed the West Bank of Jordan.

A Peninsula TV reporter also said that an Israeli military helicopter bombarded a goal near Jabriate in Joning Camp.

The occupation forces said that Joning's military operation aims to arrest the wanted Palestinians.

A reporter from Peninsula confirmed that with the intermittent conflict between the Palestinian militants and the occupation forces, Israel's "Apache" helicopter and drone were still flying over Joning.

At the same time, the Israeli army stated that it would continue to carry out "military activities" in the camp and pointed out that its military operations were guaranteed, and it took several hours to withdraw his military vehicles from there.

It also stated that it is investigating the explosive devices and quality placed in front of Jenning's vehicles.

The Israeli media reported that, as part of the Israeli army there, the F-16 fighter jet is flying over the city.

爆爆explosion

On the other hand, the official Broadcasting Corporation of Israel said that a armored car that carried them exploded when a place of evacuation from Joning City, and Israeli soldiers suffered light injuries and moderate injuries.

A reporter from the Peninsula TV reported that Palestine's resistance soldiers detonated explosives on the suburbs and Israeli military vehicles were damaged.

The Israeli army confirmed that a bomb exploded and destroyed the car in the car during the withdrawal of Joning.

Israeli media pointed out that Jenning's explosive device weighs 40 kg, which is enough to retire a advanced military vehicle.

Witnesses reported that some people saw military helicopters transport the injured soldiers to hospitals in Israel.

The media quoted the military news that a shells launched by the soldiers fired penetrated a armored vehicle and exploded in the car, causing all soldiers to be injured, and the process of transferring injured soldiers and 5 trapped vehicles from the explosion site continued Hour.

The occupation army convened a reinforcement to support them.

Islamic Resistance Movement (Hamas) The Izz Ad-Din Al-Qassam brigades in the military branch of Jenning said that it ambushed a Jewish state of the occupation forces in the Jenning camp and faced it to It launched a series of explosive devices, and then a violent bullet rain.

Joning Branch of the Armed Sacred City Brigade of the Islamic Battle (Jechhad) pointed out that his members clashed with the special forces discovered in the Jabriate area of Jenning Camp.

It said that it first detonated the high -explosive device directly to the occupation forces, and the two soldiers sacrificed when they confronted the occupation forces.

At the same time, Jehad also warned the occupation forces that, as they said, resorting to air strikes will promote the use of their so -called ways.

On the other hand, the Palestinian Red Crescent Society said that the occupied troops obstructed the ambulance to the Joning rescue and pointed out that an Israeli military vehicle deliberately hit a Palestinian ambulance to prevent him from coming to rescue the wounded.

A reporter from the Peninsula also said that the occupation forces attacked them while reporters to attack Jenning and their camps, and a reporter was shot and killed by the Israeli army while targeting media staff in military operations.

response

Hamas said in a commented that the Israeli occupation forces were far from winning Joning's battle.

On the other hand, the Palestinian Ministry of Foreign Affairs believes that the "occupation aggression" of Jenning is "the danger upgrade in the field of conflict". According to it, it requires the United States to rise to the Palestinian people in the Palestinian people. The level of suffering.

In a statement, the ministry stated that the Israeli army using an armed helicopter on the west bank of the Jordan River is a "danger upgrade and ignoring the US demand to stop all unilateral measures."

At the same time, Palestinian Prime Minister Mohammed Ashtier also condemned the operation of the Israeli army. In his speech, he said, "The continuous attack of the occupation forces has led to a bloody morning in Jining. It is the silence and dual standards of the international community that has promoted the extremist government to carry out more killing, destruction and intimidation."

Palestinian power agencies decided to hold an emergency meeting on Monday, 19 to respond to Israel's military operations in Joning.

According to a statement from the Egyptian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Egypt also condemned Israel's "attack" against Joning and air strikes and shootings against civilians.

The statement added that "such attacks will only cause the situation to intensify, there is a risk of out of control, and it will damage the relief to relieve the efforts of the tension of the territorial territory."

According to the statement of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Jordan, Jordan also expressed the same position, condemning Israel's "aggression" for Joning, calling on the international community to take "immediately effective" actions to stop it.

On the other hand, the Turkish Ministry of Foreign Affairs also "strongly" condemned the Israeli army to kill four Palestinians during the attacking Jining period, including a child.

It added in a statement, "We once again call on the Israeli government to immediately stop these unacceptable behaviors against Palestinian civilians, which may lead to a vicious circle of violence."

Reuters quoted the UN senior commissioner of Human Rights, Walker Turk, saying that "deep attention to the situation of Palestine's occupied territory, including the unilateral execution of the Israeli army."

Large -scale action

On the other hand, Israeli Treasury Secretary Simotrich said that it is time to carry out large -scale operations and dispatched the Air Force and armored forces on the northern part of the west coast, and he will ask for an emergency meeting of the Safety and Political Security Council.

As the Israeli National Defense Minister Joyv Garrant said, "Terrorism does not have a shelter, nor can it find it anywhere, whether it is in Jenning, Nublus or Gaza." He also pointed out that Israel "will touch every terrorist, and ruthless battles will take offensive and initiative."

The Israeli media quoted the Israeli Army Central Command as saying that "the rules of the game have changed" after the operation of Jining.

arrest campaign

The occupation army arrested 5 Palestinian in the arrest and assault operations including several areas on the west bank of the Jordan River, and Israel launched this operation a few hours later.

The occupation army said in a statement that his troops arrested three citizens in Hu Sang Town, Berryheng District, and arrested a citizen in Hava Town, southern Harvara, south of Nubulus, and 1 in the town of Alaba, south of Jenning. Famous boy.

It added that during the arrest operation, his troops were shot and thrown into explosive devices, and they were also hit. The occupation army also pointed out that his troops had no casualties and said it would transfer the Palestinian detainees to the detention center for interrogation.

The Barana authorities said that the man came to Londrina, a primary and secondary school he had studied, and said he wanted to apply for a transcript, but he pulled a gun to fire after entering the school.

Brazilian media reports pointed out that the gunman is only 21 years old.

The authorities issued a statement saying that a 16 -year -old girl was killed, a boy of the same age was seriously injured and sent to the hospital, and the gunman had been arrested.

President Luiz Inacio Lula DaSilva said "sadness and anger", and he wrote in Twitter, "Another young life is taken away by hatred and violence, and our school or society can no longer tolerate such things."

Description: (Agence France -Presse, Boston, 19th.) The United States and Canada Coast Defense runs today with time, anxious to search and rescue a diving in the wreckage of the well -known concession of the North Atlantic deep -sea adventure.

The 6.5 -meter -long "TITAN" type deep submarine vehicle was operated by the "OceangateExpeditions" company. It lost contact with the water surface after about 1 hour 45 minutes on the 18th.

As of the evening of the 19th, the dense sea and air search and rescue continued to be carried out in areas of about 1,450 kilometers outside the CAPE COD and about 3960 meters of water depth.

The United States Coast Defense said that they had launched a comprehensive search at 1450 kilometers east of cod; the Canadian Coast Defense Force also said that aircraft and ships would send aircraft and ships to the search area to participate in rescue.

Major General Johnmauger, who supervised the search and rescue operation in Boston, told the media: "Searching in that remote area is a challenge, but we deploy all availability resources to ensure that you can find out of contact submersible and rescue it. People."

"We use our best to start search and rescue, and our staff are very important to this task."

For 5 people on the submersible, the key to rescue is time, because the oxygen supply of Titan submersible is about 96 hours. Mogg said on the afternoon of the 19th that he believed that there was still more than 70 hours of oxygen stock on the boat.

On this submersible, there are well-known British billionaires and pilots Hamish Harding. On the 18th, he posted on Instagram "I can finally proudly say that I joined the marine door adventure."

The 58-year-old Harding also said at the time: "Newfoundland is the most harsh winter in the climate environment. This trip may be the first and only manned task to explore the Titani in 2023."

Mogg was unwilling to confirm the identity of 5 people. Harding mentioned in the post that there were several legendary explorers on the submersible personnel. Some people have participated in the Titani adventure task for more than 30 times since the 1980s.

At that time, the Titani, who claimed to be a giant wheel, sank from Southampton to New York in April 1912, hitting the iceberg in the North Atlantic, and more than 1,500 passengers and crew members were killed on the ship. Titanic wreckage is currently located in a sea bed with a sea bed of about 592 kilometers and a water depth of about 3810 meters outside of Newfoundland.

Alistair Greig, a professor of marine engineering at the University of London (UCL), said that from the current news disclosure of the news, the loss submersible may face two endings.

He said that if the submersible is just an electronic or communication problem, he should be able to float to the sea and float, waiting for the rescue personnel to find it.

"Another situation is that the pressure shell of the submersible is damaged. If so, it is extremely bad."

Agence France -Presse reports that even if the growth slows down, the economy continues to weaken, and Beijing's action is still insufficient, and the optimistic emotions that drive the global stock market rebound last week seem to be fading.

The People's Bank of China today reduced the loan market quotation interest rate (LPR) used to pricing loan interest rates. The 1-year and 5-year LPR ended 9 months of pressing for soldiers.

The Hong Kong Stock Hang Seng Index closed down more than 1%, and the stock price of technology companies that were vulnerable to rising loan costs were the stock price, and the stock price of real estate companies also fell. The Shanghai stock market also closed.

Robert Carnell, director of the Asia -Pacific Research Department of the Dutch Group (ING), pointed out that because the interest rate cut is too small, "it will not have much role in boosting the economy facing difficulties."

"Even if the interest rate cuts further, we expect that there will be more the same interest rate cuts in the next few months, and maybe we will cut interest rates several times, but we are still unlikely to see that real estate demand has changed strongly, the construction industry may still be weak, local governments will continue to continue feel the pressure of reduced land sales and fiscal tension. "

Seoul, Singapore, Taipei, Bangkok, Manila and Jakarta all fell, but Tokyo, Sydney and Wellington's stock market rose. (Translator: Lin Yifeng/Calculating Draft: Liu Shuqin)

One Chinese researcher was arrested in Japan.

(Voice of German in Chinese) "Nikkei Asia" reported that the Japanese police recently arrested Quan Hengdao, a Chinese researcher at the Japanese Institute of Industry and Technology in Japan.

In this regard, Mao Ning, a spokesman for the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs, responded on the 19th that China has expressed serious concern to the Japanese side by diplomatic channels, requiring the Japanese side to effectively respect the principles of legal system, market economy and fair competition, and safeguard the legitimate rights and interests of Chinese citizens. Exchange creates a good environment.

The Institute of Industry and Technology of Japan said: "Unfortunately, our staff are arrested very much, we will fully cooperate with the investigation and strictly handle the matter." The study of more than 2,300 researchers is Japan's largest public funding research institution.

Comprehensive media reports that 59 -year -old Quan Hengdao was suspected of participating in the "Thousand Talents Projects" led by the Chinese government, and leaked to Beijing's chemical products companies on April 13, 2018 to e -mail. Fluoride can be used in electrical equipment as the insulator of the transformer.

One week after this email was sent, the Chinese company applied for a patent for the inventor and applied for a patent, and was subsequently approved. The Japanese police therefore accused him of alleged violations of the "Prevention Law of Incident" and was sent for inspection on the 16th, but he currently denied the allegations.

Sources told "Nikkei Asia" that Quan Hengdao also taught at Beijing University of Science and Technology and was believed to be in contact with the Chinese military.

This is not the first business secret leak in China and Japan.

In 2020, former employees of a large chemical company in Japan were sued for leakage of LCD secret technology to Chinese companies.

In March of this year, China also detained a Japanese employee of Japan's Anstela Pharmaceutical Company on the grounds of "suspected espionage activities" Essence Earlier, there were at least 16 Japanese citizens who were detained by the Chinese government for the same reason Essence

The Ukrainian war has regained the Cross -Grand Alliance. But the relationship between the United States and its European allies is increasingly unbalanced.

The US economy is far richer and more energetic than the European Union or the United Kingdom -and the gap is still expanding. The influence will be far beyond the category of relative living standards. Europe's dependence on the United States in terms of technology, energy, capital, and national defense is gradually weakening the EU's aspirations that the EU may have "strategic autonomy".

France-SAMP/T system made by Italy(Social networking site) Britain said that the Russian army is conducting a "tactical" operation at the front line of the southern Ukraine, which is controlled by it, and France announced that it will provide Kiev's advanced air defense system equivalent to the "Patriot" system.

According to the intelligence evaluation of the UK's Ministry of Defense's development of Ukraine's situation, in the past 10 days, Russia may have begun to mobilize some of the people of the Dieber's various troops on the east bank of the Dnieper River to reinforce the Zapolozhye and Bachmut region.

The evaluation released by the ministry on its Twitter account added that this may include thousands of members of the 49th Army, including the 34th Independent Brigade, as well as the airborne troops and the Marine Corps forces.

The assessment pointed out that the re-deployment of the Diebero troops is likely to reflect Russia's thoughts, that is, after the collapse of the Kakhovka dam and the flood caused by it, Ukraine is unlikely to cross the Dieber River to launch a large-scale offensive across the Dieber River now. Blint's concerns about "fatal weapons"

On the other hand, US Secretary of State Anthony Blingken confirmed in Beijing on Monday on Monday that China once again promised not to provide Russia's use of fatal weapons in Ukraine. At the same time, he expressed concern about the actions of Chinese private enterprises.

Brinken told reporters, "We and other countries have been guaranteed from China, it will not and will not provide fatal assistance to Russia for use in Ukraine."

The US Minister added that as he said, "We have not seen any evidence that violates this guarantee. What we have always worried about is that Chinese companies may provide Russia to provide technology that can be used to further invade Ukraine."

According to Brinken, Washington has asked the Chinese government to be "highly vigilant" for this. He confirmed that China had guaranteed this issue on this issue, not just during his visit to Beijing.

SAMP/T system

In terms of arms, French President Emmanuel Macron announced on Monday that Ukraine has received and is using the medium-range air defense system SAMP/T made by France-Italian, which is a promise of granting Kiev System 4 in Paris. It happened later.

Paris announced in early February that the system equivalent to the American "Patriot" was transported to Kiev.

In Paris's speech on European air defense and missile defense, Macron said, "I am glad to inform you with my Italian colleague Giorgio Melonony. To protect key facilities and save life. "

SAMP/T system(Peninsula TV Station)SAMP/T (MAMBA) is expected to help Ukraine respond to attacks from Russian drones, missiles and aircraft.

For a few months, Kiev has called for strengthening its air defense capabilities, especially after the drone made by Iranian manufacturing in Russia in the fall of 2022 has launched an important infrastructure.

Lama Tshada evaluate the work of the African delegation

At the diplomatic level, the conflict was resolved. On Monday, 19th, South African President Cyril Ramaphosa returned from Kiev and St. Petersburg after holding talks with the leaders of the conflict. "Historical".

The African high -level delegation met with Ukrainian President Zelensky on Friday and then went to Russia to talk to Russian President Putin.

Lamaga said at a weekly press conference that "this initiative is historic, because this is the first time that the African leader has implemented a peaceful mission on a peaceful mission outside Africa."

The delegation conveyed the sound of the mainland affected by the conflict of Ukraine, especially the high food price, because a large part of it was imported from the two warring countries, Russia and Ukraine.

10 Suggestion

The delegation put forward 10 suggestions, including easing the situation, recognizing the sovereignty of the two countries, the grain exports that did not hinder the crossings of the Black Sea, and the prisoners of war and children returned to the original country.

On Monday, Lamaguza pointed out that the "positive reception" obtained from the two parties from both sides is itself a "one of the most important achievements." He also said, "We found that it was encouraged and given an optimistic reason, that is, the proposal will be considered." According to Rama PC, Zelei and Putin agreed to continue contact.

On the other hand, the Kremlin believes that the implementation of these principles is "very difficult", while Zelekiski excludes the possibility of negotiating with Moscow as long as the Russian army occupy part of Ukraine.

In this context, the Kremlin said on Monday that it will continue to keep in touch with the African mediation group, especially during the Russian -Africa summit scheduled to be held next month. It also added that some suggestions can be implemented.

The Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov told reporters that talks with the delegation will continue. Some of their suggestions are theoretically feasible, but he did not mention specific suggestions. He also said, "In short, the conversation with Africans will continue."

Multi -front fierce battle

On the battlefield, the Russian Ministry of Defense announced that its troops have completely controlled the city of New Donetsk in the Donetsk area.

The ministry said that the troops repelled Ukraine's offense and destroyed about 50 Ukrainian vehicles and tanks in the battle. It released two video clips, which are said to show its army's control over the city and the loss of Ukraine. Essence

On the other hand, Anna Mariar, deputy minister of the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine, said that although Russia has reinforced in the region, the Ukrainian army has continued to advance to Bachmut in the past week. She added that the Ukrainian army frustrated Russia's attempts to Promise to Liman Kippayosk, Afdiffka and Marinka.

Mariar pointed out that within two weeks of offensive operations in Buer Jiangsk and Melitopol, the Ukrainian army recaptured 8 towns and promoted about 7 kilometers to the Tavrian operation area within two weeks.

The Ukrainian military announced that after two weeks of battles, it re - controlled the town of Pyatakhatka, southwest of Zapolo, and released a video clip, which is said to show that its soldiers stand in front of a official building in the town.

The counterattack of Ukraine has lasted for about two weeks, and the pace of fighting is accelerating, especially in the southern and eastern front.

The front line of the war fire A reporter from the Peninsula reported that after monitoring the launch of the S-300 missile, Zapolo in the southeast of Ukraine heard a series of explosions.

On the other hand, the Odeza Army government announced that the area was attacked by missiles from the Black Sea, and the air defense system responded to this.

The Ukrainian Air Force said it had detected the missiles and marched to Zaparo, Diebero and Donetsk in southern and east of Ukraine.

In the north, Russia's Belgo Rhodes Governor Viacuslav Grankov said that Ukrainian artillery shells of Waluki village, causing 7 people to be injured. At the same time, nine residential buildings were destroyed in areas bordering Ukraine.

In Donzk, the pro-Russian authorities reported that Ukraine's shelling against the city caused 8 civilians to be injured and destroyed 7 residential buildings and 3 infrastructure.

"Full -time Children": Under the severe employment situation in China, the reorganization of young people is it "self -anesthesia"?

At 2:03 am on June 20, 2023

Image adding text,

Chen Du has been a full -time daughter in the past few months.

29 -year -old Julie has made game planning in a company in Beijing, and her frequent overtime has gradually made her unbearable. In April of this year, after discussing with her retired parents, she decided to resign and go home to accompany the second elder, and also planned a good plan for the next life.

Except for more time to accompany her parents, her family does not need her to help too much. However, she said that as the only child, herself who never did housework before starting to clean up the room.

Julie said that the daily life expenses were mainly borne by her parents. Mom also proposed to give her a living expenses of 2,000 yuan per month, but she did not collect it.

Her parents did not seem to be high in her requirements. I just hope that she can "maintain a normal state of living, don't sleep too late, don't indulge herself too late."

The "full -time children" lifestyle like Julie became popular among Chinese young people, causing heated discussions online and academic attention.

Most of them were frustrated or in the bottleneck in the early stage of the workplace. They decided to return home to live with their parents and get recognition by accompanying their parents or undertaking some household chores.

Some people even signed a simple labor contract with their parents, which listed above to pay and pay -how much does it cost to accompany the parents for an hour.

Behind the "full-time children" is China's high unemployment rate. According to the latest official data of China, in May this year, the unemployment rate of young people aged 16 to 24 rose to 20.8%, which has set a record high since two consecutive months in 2018. Among them, the situation of college graduates is even worse. According to Zhuo Xian, a researcher at the Development Research Center of the State Council of China, the unemployment rate of college students is 1.4 times that of the overall unemployment rate of young people, and it is the main group of young people's unemployment population.

Lu Xi, an assistant professor at the School of Public Policy of the National University of Singapore, said: "Full-time children are an unavoidable phenomenon in the tide of social unemployment, and behind it is the status quo of serious decline and atrophy of the entire socioeconomic economy."

workplace anxiety

Julie said that in the past five or six years, overtime is a commonplace. A few months before resigning, the company was more compulsory to ask for overtime. She often leaves home at 9 o'clock in the morning, and returns at 1 o'clock in the evening. "Live like a walking dead."

"Don't take sleeping pills at night, dreaming is in the company, and the content of the dream is related to work. Then wake up in the morning and go to work again. I feel that I work in 24 hours."

In China, the 996 working system (facing 9 to 9, every Saturday day) is quite common, especially in the technology industry. In the fierce market competition, many start-ups are required to work overtime because they have no core competitiveness that they can only pursue speed and intensity, so they are required to work overtime, and they usually do not pay the corresponding remuneration.

Julie said that if there are colleagues in the company, the human resources department will receive hundreds of resumes soon, and recruiting newcomers will never be a problem, which also encourages the company's overtime atmosphere. "After three months of overtime, I found that I didn't know the colleagues of the team."

Her parents accepted her home as a "full-time daughter" because they felt that their daughter could not find the object at such a big age. The big reason was related to overtime. So she expressed her understanding of her resignation, hoping that she could find a relatively free job.

Chen Du, who engaged in real estate-related work in Chongqing, resigned early this year and returned to a small county in his hometown of Yunnan, and became a "full-time daughter".

During the new crown epidemic, her industry was particularly sluggish. The company calculates wages by the basic salary plus commission, and its income has decreased sharply in the past one or two years. The deduction of daily expenses includes 2,000 yuan per month, and there are basically few.

"The assessment is getting stricter, and when the performance is the best, the goal cannot be achieved," Chen Du, 27, said. Coupled with the depression caused by long-term control in many places during the epidemic, she felt that "suddenly I can't see hope."

"During the time last year, I felt that why workers were so sad, got up early every day, worked in unparalleled, and did a lot of salary every day. I thought it was too sad. Why would people live like this? "

Gap year? Old?

Some people compare the "full-time children" with the "Gapyear" popular among foreign university graduates. Many graduates use this transition time to practice themselves in the society, or plan to change or enhance the competitiveness of the workplace for the next step.

However, some scholars have pointed out that "full -time children" are suspected of being old, and the impact on family and society cannot be underestimated.

Scholar Lu Xi said that young people who choose "interval to a year" generally have very clear plans. The most common is to go out to study for a master's degree in the workplace, or participate in other vocational training, even if a few people choose to go out to travel to travel It is also a choice that has very strong expectations and confidence in the future career.

Most of the "full -time children" in China are forced to stay at home. There is no clear career planning. Social practice cannot be accumulated at home. With the increasing competition in the employment market, there are more and more people in the exams and postgraduate entrance examinations; even if they are examined, they will face greater squeezing in the future unemployed market, and may not be able to find a suitable job.Lu Xi said that in this case, many people doing full -time children are actually "self -worth without self -anesthesia when they have no way to get social affirmation and acceptance."

At the same time, from the perspective of the government, quoting new terms such as "full -time children", or encouraging the phenomenon of "full -time children" on the Internet, mainly to avoid using the words such as "high unemployment rate" to reduce society to reduce society Contradiction, he said.

But in the final analysis, "the essence of full -time children is unemployment," Lu Xi said straightforwardly.

"Considering the labor participation rate and the proportion of postgraduate entrance examinations and examinations, the unemployment rate of young people in Chinese young people will be far more than 20%. Therefore, there will be more and more full -time children in China in the future, especially in the group of fresh graduates."

Image source, getty images

Image adding text,

Some scholars believe that the essence of full -time children in the final analysis is unemployment.

Lu Xi said that the full -time children will reduce the disposable income of the parents, especially when the parents pay a certain pay to their children, which will eventually lead to the downgrade of the consumption of the entire family.

For parents, these money can originally flow to the market to buy goods or services. For their children, taking money from their parents means that their future revenue expects decline. At the same time, due to the decrease in new wealth created, their own consumption will decline.

"The more full -time children, the faster the consumption of society," Lu Xi said.

From an individual perspective, he suggested that young people can choose to start their own business, or transfer their eyes to foreign markets, such as looking for opportunities in Southeast Asian countries with a more economical economy. He also warned that this needs to be done by personal opportunities and personality, not suitable for everyone.

Zhou Yun, a sociological assistant professor at the University of Michigan, compares "full -time children" with "full -time mothers" as an analogy. She said that more than two decades ago, a "full -time" trend in American society - the white -collar mother who had been educated "independently withdrew" the workplace and returned to the family as a full -time mother. At that time, the women had to make the choice of "ideal employees" and "ideal mother" at that time. "These mothers are not so much' independent exit ', it's better to be 'squeezed out'. "

Similarly, in today's China, the "not optimistic employment situation, the workplace's requirements for 996 "" ideal employees", how will people imagine the future after the epidemic, imagine a series of social factors with society and the country. " Don't be a full -time child, she said.

Hard employment

Julie said that her parents have retired, and each person has a pension of thousands of yuan per month. For her, being a "full -time child" can only be an appropriate measure.

In the past half a month, she has invested more than 40 resumes to the intermediary company and recruitment unit, but most of them have sinking the sea, and only two have received interview notices.

"I felt that my work was not easy to find before resigning, but after I really resigned, I found that the work was even difficult to find," Julie said.

She studied abroad and returned to work in Beijing after graduating in 2017. At that time, China's GDP growth rate reached nearly 7% throughout the year, achieving the first rise in seven years. She quickly found a decent job.

However, in recent years, the Chinese government has focused on rectifying the Internet, games, teaching and training, and many companies have revealed the news of large -scale layoffs under the impact. Coupled with strict control during the epidemic, commercial activities have stagnated, and China's economy has slowed sharply. In this case, the competition in the employment market has intensified, the depreciation of academic qualifications, low work salary, and prevalence of overtime make many young people difficulty in employment.

Julie said that she was surprised to find that more and more new colleagues around him either graduated from key universities in China or studying abroad in overseas famous universities. She said that the game planning itself does not require too high education, and the reason why these high students come in compete to compete to a large extent that they cannot find a job in a better job. Employment space for graduates of prestigious schools.

The two interviews she just received recently was eventually defeated to students who graduated from prestigious schools. She regrets her decision to be anxious to return home to employment, "I regret not going abroad to continue a graduate student."

Reinventing?

Some people say that although the lives of full -time children are very comfortable, "lying down" is only appearance, anxiety is their norm.

"No (anxiety) is impossible," said Chen Du, Yunnan. There are two voices in her heart in the opposition: "One is very willful, I feel that there is such time, and I have not figured out the future plan, so I must enjoy the present; the other I am reminding you to give you three or four, four or four For a month, you have to start thinking about what to do next, and you can't go like that. "

Although their parents did not say anything, they also had anxiety in their hearts. My parents occasionally ask her, how to plan next.

"In fact, they can actually hear it. They are a little worried," Chen Du said, "I don't know the future plan, but I can't tell them that I don't know, I will say that I will rest for a while. "

Looking back at the experience of doing a full -time daughter in the past few months, Chen Du said with emotion: "Parents are very hard -working and diligent people. Now when I think about it, I really feel embarrassed. They got up at seven or eight and went to work. They worked so hard at the age of 50, but I lay flat at home. "

"I think if I go on for a long time, I will really be old," she said.

Her mentality has changed. From the "want to lie down" after the workplace was frustrated, she transitioned to "the volume must be rolled." She already has new goals. Forced yourself, simply set the schedule, and ended the comfort of the comfortable full -time daughter. She has left the real estate industry and returned to a big city to start a business.

Image adding text,

Chen Du, a family in Yunnan, said, "If you go on for a long time, I will really be old."

Beijing's Julie said that she would try to control the anxiety. "After all, the resignation was to maintain mental health. If she couldn't find a job to continue anxiety, it was equivalent to white resignation."

In order to avoid "old -fashioned", Julie set herself a boundary. "Consumption other than consumption other than traveling, can not use parents' money."

She sold her old book and the star -making products that she had saved when she was young, and saved some pocket money. She also made the savings of previous work into wealth management products. "If the market is good, she can earn 50 to 100 yuan a day." After finding up to work for almost a month, there were still few interviews, and Julie decided to switch to career. With the help of a full -time child, she gave her a convenient life -no need to pay for rent, and the time was relatively loose -she started to write a web article for a living, and set the goal of 5,000 words a day for herself.

Taiwanese experts will be invited to participate in the Japanese think tank for the first time. The picture shows that the US House of Representatives recently showed the intention of the military conflict made by the US -China military conflict.

(Voice of Germany Chinese Network) The Taiwan Institute of Defense Security of Taiwan Think Tank revealed through Facebook on Saturday (June 17) that Taiwanese experts will be invited to Tokyo, Japan in mid -July this year. Combined the combination of combination of cross -strait conflicts.

Hong Kong's "South China Morning Post" reported that Su Ziyun, director of the Institute of Strategic and Resources of Taiwan National Defense Safety Research Institute (referred to as the National Defense Council), said on Monday (19th) that the semi -official Japanese think tank "Japan Strategy Research Forum" (JFSS) in Tokyo (JFSS) in Tokyo (JFSS) said that For the first time, Taiwan's military and security experts, including experts from the National Defense Court, participated in the simulation.

The soldier will analyze the US and the Japanese army, how to help Taiwan to prevent various false situations from the Chinese PLA attack.

Su Ziyun said, "This is the first time that Taiwan experts cooperate with the United States and Japanese experts for troops." However, he refused to disclose more details about the push of the soldiers. It is a general discussion on the rules, and then the three rounds of prediction of the final result.

"Soldiers may not necessarily mean that the war will come soon, but risk management. The soldiers also conveyed a message to Beijing, that is, the war is catastrophic, and all parties must deal with it rationally." Su Ziyun said.

Taiwan -Japan Defense Cooperation Heating up

Taiwan's "Liberty Times" reported that this soldier will focus on the CCP's context of blocking Taiwan and large -scale military committing Taiwan, thereby strengthening the cognition of "there is something in Taiwan, Japan has something to do", "Japan has something to do with the world", and when the simulation is necessary Cooperative combat methods and battlefield management.

Su Ziyun also said that in the face of China's military threats, the United States and Japan are very representative for the first time. In addition, the United States and Japan are held in joint soldiers, allowing Taiwan and the Democratic Allies to have common security images.

On Saturday (17th), the Taiwan National Defense Council pointed out on Facebook's official account that JFSS Secretary -General Nagano Ritako led the former Self -Defense Force to visit Taiwan on June 6 and visited the Taiwan National Defense Council.

The article revealed that in addition to Nagano Ritako, the members of the delegation include the former Japanese Land Self -Defense Forces Chief Iwa Kiyoshi, the former Marine Self -Defense Forces, Takeda Hiko, the former Aviation Self -Defense Force Supply Headquarters, and Secretary -General Nang Junyi.

Taiwan 's side was hosted by Huo Shouye, chairman of the National Defense Court, Li Ximing, strategic consultant of the National Defense Court, Li Tingsheng, Acting CEO of the National Defense Court, and Jing Yuanzhou, Su Ziyun, and assistant researcher at the National Defense Hospital of Defense Council.

The article also mentioned that Iwada Qingwen and Huo Shouye were also born in the Armored Department of Armor. The Japanese side also introduced in the visit that it will be held in the Taiwan Strait Crisis in Tokyo, Japan in mid-July 2023. The military push is also the third time that JFSS was held after the first time in August 2021.

"Nikkei Asia" reported on February 24 this year that Japanese think tank's simulated soldiers push display at the beginning of this year If the conflict between Japan and the United States involved in China and Taiwan will prevent Beijing from taking over Taiwan, but their military personnel and equipment will pay a heavy price.

The military chess deduction conducted by the Kawagawa Heping Foundation in Japan showed that Japan lost as many as 144 fighters and the Self -Defense Force casualties were as high as 2,500. The United States may lose up to 400 jet aircraft and more than 10,000 soldiers. But China cannot seize control over Taiwan.

At that time, the soldiers pushed an across the Taiwan Strait crisis, that is, China tried to invade Taiwan among 2026. The simulation lasted for 4 days and continued until January 21, and about 30 participated, including the previous Japanese Self -Defense Force officers and scholars and researchers from Japan and the United States.

Prior to this, the US think tank Strategy and International Research Center (CSIS) also conducted a series of series last year Simulating soldiers with cross -strait conflicts in 2026 Essence

According to the results released by CSIS in January this year, China failed to successfully invade Taiwan in most of the 24 kinds of soldiers pushing the scene. But Japan paid a huge price for this Because Japan lost more than 100 fighter aircraft and 26 warships in soldiers.

However, the push of the Sagawa Heping Foundation and the CSIS are based on the existing force of all parties, which means that if China significantly enhances its military strength, if the actual results of the war broke out in 2026, it may be different from the soldiers pushing. Essence

Senior Safety Researcher Odama Odama, said: "We must be able to prepare for major losses when we can do what we can."

Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang visited Germany and France when the Asia -Pacific situation was turbulent to strive to increase investment in China. Chinese official media reports that China is willing to cooperate with Germany to contribute to "global stability and prosperity". Li Qiang used Germany as the first country who visited after taking office, which attracted the attention of all parties.

Young unemployed and new high Chinese society is a stress cooker?
What "extreme situation" should Xi Jinping deal with? * China Data is exposed to economic recovery, can we still go old roads?

Just as the geopolitical tension in the Asia -Pacific region and the difficulty of the Chinese economy were in difficulties, Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang, who took office in March this year, arrived in Germany a few days ago and launched a formal visit. Xinhua News Agency reported that on the afternoon of June 18, Prime Minister Li Qiang took a charter of the State Council and left Beijing. At the invitation of German Prime Minister, Tonalz and the French government, he went to Germany to hold a seventh round of the Sino - German government for consultation and officially interviewed Germany. Visit and attend the new global financing contract summit. Wu Zhenglong, a member of the State Councilor and Secretary -General of the State Council, left Beijing with the same machine.

Feng Chongyi, a professor at the University of Science and Technology of Sydney, Australia, said in an interview with this station on Tuesday (20) that Li Qiang's choice of European interviews was to get rid of the situation of internal and external difficulties. He said: "He is now internal and external, especially the decline in the economy can't stop, and he cannot solve it. Especially to apply the power of the Communist Party of China to a comprehensive control of society and the economy. Destroy the economy and eliminate wealth. "

Li Qiang's visit to Germany and France is just the West's support for China to support Russia, trade protection methods, and deterioration of human rights.

Scholars: Europe believes that China does not directly threatened it

Feng Chongyi said that Li Qiang's trip also shouldered that Europe moved closer to Beijing in the field of diplomacy to compete in the United States: "He has a united front strategic plan to combat the major enemies in the United States and all places outside the United States as the object of the United Front. Europe is a region where they have been working hard and achieved quite successful. Because Europe has an inherent needs, he needs to establish a multi -level world, and China has not threatened directly to Europe in geopolitics. "

Germany President Frank Walter Stein Melben emphasized the importance of Sino-US relations on "global security and cooperation" on Monday. After writing on Twitter. "He calls for strengthening the communication channels between the two countries."

Cai Shenkun, a financial commentator who pays attention to the situation in China and even the international situation, said that Li Qiang's visit to Europe has many considerations, mainly to save the domestic economy. He said to this station: "The economy in the first half of the year has a downturn, and exports have almost comprehensively declined. Affected by the epidemic, the consumer purchasing power of the world has slowed the rhythm. Therefore, China also imagined that the foreign trade surplus during the epidemic situation in the past three years is possible. This possibility does not exist. In this case, he must maintain a connection with the economic or political aspect of the Western power."

The United States and the European Union have become more and more vigilant on issues such as the Russia -Ukraine War. On Monday, NATO Secretary -General Yanz Stoltenberg said in Berlin that many people had previously believed that buying natural gas from Russia was "pure business decision and now tasted suffering." He also named China, "We must never make the same mistakes against other authoritarian regimes, especially China."

NATO Secretary -General Yanz Stoltenberg said on June 19, 2023 in Berlin, saying, "We must never make the same mistakes against other authoritarian regimes, especially China." (Associated Press picture) Europe must not make the same mistake against other authoritarian regimes

Cai Shenkun said that Li Qiang's visit to Europe expects to improve the relationship with the West, especially if you want to differentiate the relationship between morality and France and the United States, which is almost impossible. He said: "Especially when the Russian and Ukrainian war fiercely, you have to divide the steps of Europe and the United States, and it is impossible to succeed. Moreover, a prime minister can't finish such a task."

According to Xinhua News Agency, Li Qiang left Beijing by "charter". Unlike his former Li Keqiang, he visited the special plane. According to public information, Wang Yi, director of the Central Foreign Affairs Office, recently visited Russia and Europe, all took special planes.

According to Chinese industry insiders, special planes are used for senior government officials or important characters, such as President, Prime Minister, Foreign Minister, and important figures such as Huawei Finance Meng Wanzhou returned from Canada. The charter is usually renting the entire aircraft, which is paid by the government or enterprise. When the charter machine needs to go off and land in accordance with the relevant procedures of civil aviation regulations, such as security checks, registration and other procedures. Dedicated planes enjoy exemption, without having to go through these processes during the take -off and landing process.

The People's Bank of China has stimulated the economy and lowered the LPR interest rate

Description: This is the most obvious sign of the Chinese government's concerns about economic stagnation, indicating that under the decline in exports, engineering stagnation, and weak consumer confidence, Beijing hopes to stabilize economic output. The interest rate reduction does not show that the decision makers are not panicked although they are worried about the status quo. Agency France-Presse-Getty Images' interest rate cuts are very different from the policy of Western Bank of China, and Western central banks have been pushing high interest rates to cope with inflation.

Type: Article

The People's Bank of China reduced the important interest rate of loans issued by the state -owned banking system on Tuesday. This is the most obvious sign of China's economic stagnation so far.

The interest rate cut is very small -only one -tenth of the country's one -year and five -year loan benchmark interest rate. However, because almost all corporate loans and mortgage loans in the country are linked to these two interest rates, interest rate cuts may have a certain impact on the overall economic growth rate.

The actions of the People's Bank of China have made China and Western policies very different. Before the suspension of interest rate hikes earlier this month, the Fed spent more than a year fighting against inflation. The European Central Bank has also been pushing high interest rates to deal with inflation.

However, there are opposite problems in China: expenditure and private sector investment are so weak that companies have been racing prices to retain customers. In the four months of May, consumers and producers prices were actually declining.

Lin Han Sheng, deputy general manager of the China Bank of China and current professor of finance at New York University, said that interest rate cuts are a slow medicine for the Chinese economy. Each company usually negotiates with the borrowing limit with the bank each year, and then the loan ranges from weeks to several months. Only when new loans or existing loans are issued, lower interest rates are performed.

Lin Hansheng said that the central bank's interest rate cutting on Tuesday "will penetrate the entire system, but it will only penetrate."

Family needs to wait longer to benefit. In China, the interest rate of mortgage loans is almost adjustable. But adjustment usually occurs in January, and said in an interpretation statement on Tuesday when the People's Bank of China announced on Tuesday.

Therefore, although buyers in the next few months may benefit from new interest rate cuts, many owners will need to wait longer to benefit.

The measures on Tuesday were the first time that China had lowered loan interest rates since August last year. At that time, the Chinese economy was still struggling in Shanghai two months after the epidemic blockade. The latest information issued is that Beijing hopes to stabilize economic output in the case of decline in exports, stagnation of engineering, and weak consumer confidence. At the end of last year, the government suddenly abandoned the prevention and control of the new crown virus, bringing people's expectations for the rapid recovery of the Chinese economy.

The interest rate reduction indicates that there are concerns about Chinese economic decision makers, but it is not panic. In contrast, when the global financial crisis accelerated at the end of 2008, the benchmark interest rate of the Bank of China deposit and loan 1.08 percentage points on a single day Essence During the Asian financial crisis in the late 1990s, China reduced the loan interest rate by 1.44 percentage points a day.

The United States ordered Nvidia to go to China with unable to export high -end artificial intelligence chips, but local Chinese players can still try to get it.

(Voice of Germany Chinese) Reuters reported on Tuesday (June 20) that under the control of the United States, if you want to buy a high -level Nvidia (Nvidia (and Huida) AI chip, Shenzhen's Huaqiang North is a good choice.

Reuters reporters actually walked into the Siege Plaza Building in Huaqiangbei. The 1st to 10th floor was crowded with various stores, and the selling things were available from camera parts to drones. The chip will not be sold directly, but if you ask it carefully, you can buy it.

It is reported that these chips are not cheap. Two local suppliers revealed anonymously that they can provide a small number of American A100 artificial intelligence chips, one for a price of 20,000 US dollars, which is twice that of the general price. It is not illegal to buy and sell US high -end chips in China, but the US export control measures actually create an underground market, and sellers do not want to attract the attention of the United States or Chinese government.

With the intensive situation of politics and trade, the United States to limit China's development of artificial intelligence and super computing technology

Last September, Nvidia was required to stop exporting A100 and H100 chips to China and Hong Kong. This is the company's two most advanced chips. Subsequently, the United States sacrificed a series of export control related to semiconductor.

However, AI continues to flourish globally, and the demand for high -end chips has increased, especially by Nvidia's microprocessors. It is generally believed that it is best to develop machine learning technology, it is best to use this processor.

At this stage, Nvidia is influenced by the US export control. It is not allowed to sell A100 chips to China, and replace it with low -performance chips such as A800 and H800 and sell it to Chinese customers.

Avoid US sanctions underground markets

Ivanlau, the co -founder of Hong Kong New Corporation Pantheon Lab, intends to buy 2 to 4 A100 chips to operate the company's latest AI model. These sellers have obtained chips from outside the United States, and 1 chip quotes can reach HK $ 150,000 ($ 19150). "We are talking to two sellers now and find a way to buy some," Liu Jianfeng said, "They directly tell us that there will be no warranty or support."

Reuters interviewed 10 suppliers in China and Hong Kong, who said that they could easily buy a small amount of A100 chips. In addition to showing China's strong demand for these chips, it also represents that small -batch transactions are relatively easy to avoid US sanctions.

Local sellers have revealed anonymously that buyers are usually applied developers, startups, researchers or gamers, and even officials of local governments. Reuters cannot estimate how many A100 and H100 chips have flowed into China in total, and it is impossible to know how much these transactions have met the demand.

The statement provided by Nvidia to Reuters stated that the company did not open the export of A100 or H100 chips to China, and only sold alternative products with reduced performance , Conquering American norms. The statement wrote: "If we receive a message saying that a customer violates our agreement with our agreement and the illegal exports are restricted, we will take appropriate action immediately." Comment on request.

Earlier, the British "Financial Times" also reported in March that Chinese artificial intelligence companies will sign a lease agreement with third parties through cloud service providers to use this bypass the US export control order Obtain high -end chips in the United States.

In recent years, the US -China Science and Technology War has taken chips as the core. The United States and its allies have sacrificed a series of export control orders. The picture shows the US President Biden's 2021 administrative order to sign a chip shortage, holding a chip in his hand.

How do Chinese sellers get American chips?

Reuters pointed out that Chinese suppliers mainly purchase chips through two ways. One is that after Nvidia shipped a large number of goods to large US companies, they try to purchase excess inventory flowing into the market; the other is through India, Taiwan, and Singapore and other places.

Registered companies import. This means that there are very few chips they can get, and they cannot meet the needs of establishing a complex AI large language model from the beginning.

According to about 40 A100 sellers listed by an electronic product procurement website, most sellers are located in Huaqiangbei. However, on Taobao, Xiaohongshu, and Douyin, you can also find the message selling A100. The aforementioned enterprises did not respond to Reuters' comment requests.

Some suppliers also reminded that the fraudulent behavior of impersonating the A100 with the refurbished old chip is becoming more and more common. The more advanced H100 chip just launched in March this year, it seems more difficult to buy.

The Department of Economics of the Chinese University of Hong Kong purchased 4 A100 chips from local sellers for research. Vincichow told Reuters that he heard that he was selling a pack of 8 H100 chipsets. However, only one of the 10 suppliers interviewed by Reuters said they could purchase H100.

86Research analyst Charliechai, an analyst at Shanghai, said that the United States is likely to not care about such small chips. He said: "Only when China catch up and constitutes a greater threat, we will see more stringent law enforcement." He added that at this stage, Chinese sellers may fall after the premium sales of A100 and H100 chips, because China may fall because China is because China Many AI startups will eventually evacuate this market.

China Semiconductor Industry Explosion?

According to the "South China Morning Post" reported on the 19th, Wei Shaojun, a professor of the Institute of Microelectronics at Tsinghua University in Beijing, said in a industrial forum in Guangzhou last weekend that in the face of US scientific and technological export restrictions, China's semiconductor industry should be more open and emphasized. In response to the restrictions on the US semiconductor exports, the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs once said that this move violated the law of industrial development and criticized the United States to "do nothing to maintain science and technology hegemony." The spokesman Mao Ning also said in March: "Facts have proved that restricting suppression can not stop China's development, it will only enhance China's determination and ability of self-reliance and technology innovation."

On June 13, Professor Yang Jun of China University of Political Science and Law published an article (hereinafter referred to as Yang Wen) in Singapore's "Lianhe Zaobao" (hereinafter referred to as Yang Wen). Essence

Will the West willing and can stop Russia?

Yang Wen believes that the Russian -U -U -U -Uta war occurred in the 21st century. The annexation of Crimea and invading the Wudong area are all appeased.

The author believes that the United States leads NATO is indeed not passively appeased, but the arson of the arson of the arson. The latter acts more than the former. Before the outbreak of the Russian and Ukraine War, as the only superpower after the end of the Cold War, the United States took the initiative to adopt a strategic offensive. NATO continued to expand eastward and aggressive. He was garrisoned and deployed offensive weapons at the entrance of Russia and continued to compress the strategic space of Russia.

In 1990, U.S. Secretary of State Baker promised to Soviet President Gorbachev, "If NATO can maintain a garrison in Germany, NATO will not expand eastward, even in an inch." The fact is that NATO has expanded eastward in the next five rounds. Russia is based on Russia. This judgment has been deceived many times, also warned many times, and proposed to negotiate. The last time it was announced on December 17, 2021, the "Draft Treaty of Russia and the United States" was announced, all of which were neglected and rejected. Putin was interviewed by the US NBC in June 2021 and held an annual press conference on December 23. Two angrily criticized "NATO East Expansion" and "shamelessly deceived us."

Russia maintains special interests to the CIS countries and has also maintained special influence, which is in line with geopolitics and historical inertia. If the outside world rises and penetrates, it will inevitably conflict with Russia. On June 13, 2023, Putin reiterated that the launch of special military operations was "a reaction to the red line (referring to the continuous eastward expansion of NATO) by crossing Russia". Essence

"2014" obviously refers to the riots and riots in February 2014. On February 22, Ukraine's highest Rada impeached and dismissed President Yanukovich, who was pro-Russian. Russia planned the "Color Revolution" in U.S. U.S., as revenge, annexing Crimea on March 21.

After the outbreak of the Russian and Ukraine War, the United States quickly led the Western allies to severely sanction Russia and continued to assist Ukraine. If the purpose of the United States and NATO is only to defend the value of democracy and freedom, or to justice for Ukraine, then it is naive. In fact, the political elites are intimidated and the vertical champion is to maximize the interests of the country. The difference is that the strategy is the strategy. Whether it is clever, can be achieved, and how to achieve it.

Yang Wen was optimistic, "If European and American politicians were more resolute and fatal, no matter how much the brave man was afraid, and then implementing some effective curb strategies, the probability of the Russian and Ukraine war would not happen."

According to the author's opinion, is the United States curbing Russia's strategy is not valid? The polar bears had been forced to the corner, and they could not retreat, and they became angry. According to Russia's logic and justification, NATO will not annexes Crimea and special military operations. Will war will not happen if Europe and the United States fight against Russia? May wish to analyze the responsibility and origin of the war.

The outbreak of the Russian and Uchians has complex historical latitude and longitude and continuous realistic responsibility, which is also a sign of the big collapse of the European security system. If the responsibility is distinguished, Russia, the United States, and Wu roughly four or three or three, which is also the three dimensions of objective analysis. The United States' war responsibility has been described earlier.

Putin is of course the primary responsible person of the war. The national strength does not match the individual's ambitions, seriously misjudge the situation, trapped himself and the people in the abyss, and accelerates Russia's decline into a second -rate country. The United States does master confidential information such as the Russian army transferring troops and combat, showing how deep and successful the top -down penetration of the high -level military and political and frontline troops of the Russian military and political and political, and it must have been operating for many years. Before the war, the Director of the Central Intelligence Bureau (CIA) worshiped to visit Russia secretly, and took out the evidence for the last warning. At this time, Russia had been iron -hearted and blindly optimistic about the battle situation, so he refused.

The intention of Putin's war may not be as analyzed by Yang Wen, "comprehensively and completely re -incorporated Ukraine into the Russian Federation." It is to overthrow the Zeelianzki regime and support a puppet's pro -Russian regime. It is the same as that in 2014 to annex Crimea in 2014, and in 2022, the so -called "national referendum" is organized under the Russian muzzle. , Then the Russian and White Ultra "Slavic National Federation" was established. In this way, although he could not restore the vast territory of the Soviet Union, at least it became the "heroes" of the unified Slavic nation.

The idea of this "world hero" has a relationship. The most unreasonable means are the means and cannot be used. Even if you want to penetrate and buy, you can get it. Eat too ugly, indigestion, and even food poisoning. There are differences in differences between the country and the country, but it should not solve the problem through the war of aggression. This obviously violates the "UN Charter" and fails to achieve a quick decision. Now that it is difficult to ride a tiger, the setting sun is more than Huai, and how to end the scene is no longer autonomous.

Since this century, there are three regimes that have aroused public anger: First, Afghanistan Taliban, who has destroyed the Bamiyan Buddha of the World Cultural Heritage, now violates his promises when he has emphasized power, and once again prohibits women from being educated and worked; second, North Korea is North Korea. Kim Jong -un conducted the sixth nuclear test, and many countries broke their diplomatic relations or expel the ambassador. Third, Russia Putin invaded Ukraine.

There is also a war responsible person is Zeelianzki. He replaced the dismissal pro -Russian president, of course. There is no big deal for pro -beauty. The problem is "one side" pro -beauty. Regardless of the repeated warning of Russia, it will even join NATO and the European Union to enter the constitution, blatantly confront Russia, and rush to the front line. Funeral. It can be said that this is a country's internal affairs, but when it comes to Russia, it is a brutal neighbor, and it is the Slavic brothers.

The primary responsibility of the head of state is not the fast of ourselves and the great exhibition, but to protect the people's people's survival and dignity. The excellent performance during Zellezki could not cover the mediocrity before the war. Two successful precedents are significantly clever.

One is Finland. After the defeat of the Sufen War in March 1940, Finland has been a "little daughter -in -law" for more than 80 years, and succumbed to the prostitution of the Soviet Union and Russia until the century of no time after Russia had no time to distinguish between Ukraine. ; The second is Singapore. The model of the small country has repeatedly claimed to be "not choosing a side" between China and the United States. He also dared to tell the truth from China and the United States many times. China and the United States also bought it. It is regarded as a friend, and Malaysia did not dare to annex it.

Western restraint is not appeased but rational to avoid war out of control

Yang Wen criticized the United States appeasement, "withdrawing from U.S. military advisers and observer in Ukraine, and further condoning Putin to be afraid and launched a comprehensive war." Yang Wen quoted the point of view of Kane, a strategic researcher at Hopkins University in the United States, and questioned why Ukraine had no right to fight against Russia.

According to the author's opinion, Ukraine certainly has the right to attack the Russian homeland. In essence, the drone attacked Moscow, the Russian border settlement, and the attack on the Crimea Bridge (Russia's Crimean as the territory). The United States and NATO are restricted to attack Russia with their weapons.

This is not an appeasement, not as Yang Wen called, "the result is all in a larger, more and more inhuman war, the sea and quagmires", but a recognition rational reason, avoiding the sharp upgrade or even out of control of the war. On June 12, French President Macron revealed the bottom line of Western military aid, "Never attack Russia (local) to avoid any form of conflict upgrade."

The United States and NATO are restrained and do not provide long -range missiles; they provide the "Haimas" rocket launcher, but do not provide rocket bombs with the longest range; one year after the war, the Ukraine will not be able to upgrade to provide heavy weapons such as fighter planes and tanks, but it will not provide the most advanced advanced, but the most advanced is provided. model. In this case, Russia also has corresponding restraint.

If the red eyes are really killed, the Ukraine attacked Moscow and St. Petersburg with Western aid missiles, causing major casualties, and there is a high risk of direct conflict between NATO and Russia. Putin must retaliate severely. The first to suffer from the Ukrainian people, the world condemn, what can I do with Putin? Both sides have the blood of innocent civilians. Do you laugh at 50 steps?

Putin has launched a war. Of course, the Russian army would not wait to die. It had to use tactical nuclear weapons in Ukraine, which led the U.S. military to use tactical nuclear weapons to retaliate. This may be a catastrophe for Ukraine and even Europe and the world.

Because the Russian army has a huge nuclear arsenal, the author has repeatedly said that although the strategy is defeated, it can be undefeated. The United States and NATO have no willingness and courage to end, or allow them to use their weapons to attack Russia, so Putin has no fear of war. The longer the war is dragged, the higher the chance of the Russian army.

Yang Wen criticized that Western aid weapons of Western aid were "after repeated tangles, delay and obscurity". They named Germany who first assisted only hundreds of steel helmets. Recently, the "Leopard 2" tank was delivered for more than a year.

In the West, especially in the United States, the military aid is already very large, but he could not satisfy Zellezki's appetite, so that he reminded him to be "grateful" when he talks with Zendiski. On June 13, the U.S. State Department announced the 40th plan to provide US $ 325 million in weapons and equipment, and has provided more than 40 billion US dollars in military aid. On June 12, the United States will open up the wind after the United Kingdom may provide Culfur bombs that are disabled in international law and can penetrate the front of the tank. Putin responded on June 13 that Russia also had depleted uranium bombs. "We will also retain the right to use the same ammunition."

As for the slow aid weapons of Ukraine in the West, it was not appeasement, but utilitarian. At that time, not only in the West, but almost the world believed that within a week, the Russian army would overcome Kiri Fuxi. What else would help Ug? Do you donate to the Russian army as a loot? Due to the weakness of the Russian army, the Ukraine stubbornly supported the first week before getting in exchange for its own vitality.

In fact, the victory of the Ukraine in the first week is inseparable from the US intelligence support and tactical command. For example, the Russian helicopter group suddenly descended from Kenfu suburbs to try to establish an outpost base. The tactics were the same as the invasion of the Czechoslovak capital Prague in 1968 and the invasion of Kabul, the capital of Afghanistan in 1979. The Russian army was ambushed by the black army, most of them were annoyed, and most of them retreated. Otherwise, the heels will be established. A large number of military aircraft and soldiers who have been standing in the back are rushing, and Kiev will not be able to keep it. Zeleiski can only establish an exile government on Lavff near the Polish border, and Russia can follow the original script. Establish a puppet regime.

As for Germany's cautious military aid, there are also their national feelings and historical tangles. Germany launched World War II, which brought heavy disasters to the country and the world. Fascism and war crimes were severely liquidated after World War II, and there were strict legislation in China. This has led to Germany's public opinion and the government for military care, and they can't live a psychological country, and they are afraid of misunderstanding in other European countries.

If it weren't for the outbreak of the Russian and Ukraine War, how could Germany turn 180 degrees and re -embark on the road to expand? How could Shuerz quickly determine and set up a 100 billion euros special defense fund, promising to increase national defense expenses to the standard GDP standard in NATO accounting for 2%? Germany has been forcing the United States to announce the "M1 EBrams" tank, which is not practical, and then announced that the practical "Leopard" tank is announced to avoid Russia to retaliate in Germany. It is mature and clever politics.

Why did the Vietnamese "whistle" disclosed the secret document of the Taiwan Strait crisis in 1958

Description: Elsberg revealed the United States' lies in the Vietnam War. With the upgrading of Taiwan issues, he disclosed that in 1958, the United States considered the use of nuclear weapons in mainland China to protect Taiwan, hoping to cause discussions on the Anti -Spy Law and the Taiwan Strait crisis. Donal F. Holway/The New York Times Daniel Elsberg and his wife Patrisia. In 1971, he disclosed the behavior and consequences of the Pentagon's documents left a mark in history, defining his life.

Daniel Ellsberg, a military analyst, who experienced the disillusionment, was famous for leaking the so-called "Pentagon Document" in 1971. In the last few years of his wonderful life, he hoped that he would be sued. He hopes that I can help him achieve this goal.

The allegations he expects is to deal with the national security secrets according to the "Anti -Spy Law". His plan is to give me another confidential document he took away decades ago. Wing this file. He hopes to give a chance to give the Supreme Court, which clearly applies the law to those who leak government secrets to reporters. Today, former President Trump is facing 31 allegations that it is against this "Anti -Spy Law", although the case is completely different.

Elsberg disclosed the Pentagon Document in 1971 -a confidential research report on the Vietnam War, showing how a generation of military and political leaders lied to the public -his behavior and consequences left in history. The mark has become an incident that defines his life.

But in some 讯 Among them, you can also vaguely see an episode in 2021. At that time, he gave me a top secret document that the content of the US military leaders promoted the first nuclear blow to China in 1958. Risks and deaths of millions of people.

When examining his influence on future generations, it is also worth noting that he also hopes to start to pay attention to the issue of "Anti -Spy Law" by revealing.

"If you are sued, I will reiterate my beliefs, that is, what I am doing -just as I have done in the past -not a crime," he told me, he also said that the use of the bill "will be out of The confidential disclosure of public interests should be regarded as unconstitutional.

The government has a variety of means to prevent and punish the behavior of disclosing information to reporters and the public without authorization, and in most of the history of American history, the government has never tried to send the leak to prison. The Anti -Spy Law has been written as early as the "World War I", but it was not until the second half of the 20th century that the government began to try to use it to prosecute the leak instead of the spy -the initial effect was very small.

In 1957, the military put forward the allegations of "Anti -Spy Law" on a military court in the military court that the crime was to provide reporters with information about a controversial missile plan, but the prosecutor canceled the allegations. In 1971, the Ministry of Justice successfully initiated such prosecution for the first time in cases of Elsberg and his colleague Anthony Russell who had helped him. However, the case was rejected by the judge because the government's behavior was improper and illegally collected evidence.

Ten years later, the Ministry of Justice of the Reagan government tried again to sue a national defense analyst with the Anti -Spy Law, which(Jane's Defence Weekly)Provides a secret satellite photo of a Soviet shipyard. He was convicted. However, only one person was sent to prison because of such behavior that often happened in decades. This was strange and unfair, so President Bill Clinton pardoned him in 2001.

However, the Ministry of Justice used the "Anti -Spy Law" to investigate the leak from time to time from the beginning of President George W. Bush's administration. The law set a severe punishment for the defendant -10 years of imprisonment for each crime -and prohibited the defendant from arguing that their disclosure was for public interests to recommend that the jury declared innocent. Most defendants accepted the confession agreement to avoid the risk of being sentenced to long -term imprisonment, thereby excluding the opportunity to appeal whether the law was concluded in this case.

In 2014, Elsberg and I discussed that the government used the increasing use of the law. At that time, I wrote an article The former contractor Edward Snowden who leaked the secrets of the monitoring activity, the former contractor Edward Snowden, joined Elsberg to participate in a non -profit press freedom organization. (Elsberg has publicly stated that Snowden and his ambitions are similar, and the latter has accused the "Anti -Spy Law" alleged in Russia.)

"The question is -I want to say that almost no one realizes that this is a problem -the Anti -Spy Law is applicable to those who provide information to the US public, rather than secretly providing information to foreign forces like spies People, whether this is in line with the Constitution, "he told me. "Few people now ask this question. When I reveal the Pentagon's document, I did not think of this -I think I violated the law of the law and someone reminded me that. I did violate it."

In the "Anti-Spy Law", Elsberg said, "It is obviously too broad, not just for people like me." Leon Neal/Agency France-Presse — getty Images

In the following years, more reporter Frontman Facing the allegations of the Anti -Spy Law. In 2019, the Ministry of Justice under the leadership of the Trump administration crossed another boundary, "Anti -Spy Law" sued the founder of WikiLeaks Decryptor Julian Assange —It is not because of leakage, but because of the collection and release of leak information. The Department of Justice of the Biden Government retained these unprecedented charges; Anshan delays the trial by fighting for not being extradited in the UK, but the appeal has repeatedly failed. Elsberg said that decades ago, he also had another confidential research report based on the internal record of the government, but when the Pentagon's document leaked, he did not hand over the report to reporters because it involved it involved in it because it involved it. It is another different topic: In 1958, the CCP's shells of the island controlled by the CCP triggered a crisis. The report shows that the distance between the world is closer than the public is allowed.

Are I interested in writing this? I have.

In the next few weeks, I carefully read the research report on Taiwan and counseled experts on the history of the crisis in 1958. Write in me article When, Elsberg talked with me many times. He prefers to call through video calls in his family office full of books in California. In a long call, his wife Patricia also joined us.

He said that some of his motivations were Taiwan issues again nervous Essence He said that the war planner of the Pentagon is likely to formulate an emergency plan again. If China wants to attack Taiwan, and conventional weapons seem to be not enough to repel China, they will use nuclear weapons. He believes that the possibility of any such terrible measures is worth public discussion.

But he said that another reason was that he publicly acknowledged that he would retain and spread confidential documents without authorization, and he hoped to be charged according to the Anti -Spy Law. He wanted to be a test case, and submitted the Ministry of Justice to punish the leak to the Supreme Court.

He pointed out that the clauses that are prohibited from retaining national security secrets are too widely written, so that on the surface, it can also be used to prosecute a reporter, publisher, and even those who will be prosecuted by a secret newspaper article. The article tells the spouse or retains the readers who have not reported to the authorities. He mentioned that the gradual expansion of this law had disappointed the public's cicada effects that the public obtained information generated in democratic countries, and expressed disappointment with San's "Anti -Spy Law" allegations.

"It is obviously too broad, not just suitable for people like me. Asanic now feels this pressure," he also said. "For 50 years, I have always told reporters. The weapon of the bore is aiming at you. "

In short, at the age of 90, he was willing to take the risk of prison disaster that he had been removed when he was 42 years old. However, although the Ministry of Justice has become aggressive in the use of the Anti -Spy Law, it obviously does not want to participate in Elsberg's plan. The article was published and attracted some attention, but what disappointed him was that no one had charged him.

"I am looking forward to debating in court," in March this year, after announced that he had been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer, he went to a interviewer explain. "At that time, I didn't know that my life would be shorter than I expected."

@stream A woman in Cili County, Hunan Province posted a video on Monday for help saying that her mother took the initiative to go to the police station to accept inquiries, and died in the police station, and there were scars on her body. But the police station said that she had no recording and video at the time, and she suspected that her mother was forced to confess. This matter once appeared on Weibo hot search. On Tuesday, the Cili County Political and Legal Committee established a joint investigation team to investigate the case.

Wuhan primary school student was killed by the teacher to kill his mother suspected of being chosen by Internet violence and stability ***

The woman named Deng, who made the video publicly for help, said her mother went to the police station a week ago to accept inquiries. After a few hours, she received a call from the police and rushed to the hospital to see her mother's bodies with scars. She said with tears in her eyes: "I want to use the power of netizens to accuse the public security organs of Cili County, Hunan Province to confess to my mother Zhao Yongxiang. Unfortunate things happened at around 10 am on June 14, 2023. My mother took the initiative to take the initiative to take the initiative When I went to the public security organs, I asked, but by 4 o'clock in the afternoon, a policeman called me and asked me to rush to Cili County Traditional Chinese Medicine Hospital. When I rushed to the hospital to see my mother, I found that there were many scars on my mother's body. , I have lost the signs of life ... "

In the video, the woman was wearing a photo of her head and holding a heritage. She was suspicious of her mother's death. She begged the netizens to preside over justice and positive justice: "Cili County Public Security Organ said that there was no synchronous recording video, no law enforcement recorder in the law enforcement recorder Imaging information. The Cili Public Security Organ handling the case seriously violated the rules, forced torture for torture, and a lively life died unknown at the police station. "

The daughter of the deceased said that the mother's mouth had blood, and the police station said "there is no video." (Network screenshot / ancient pavilion provided) Joint Investigation Team: Heart rate causes sudden heart -derived death

On Tuesday, the WeChat account "Ping An Cili" issued a "situation notice" saying that on June 14, the suspect Zhao Mouxiang (female, 56 years old, Cili County) took the initiative In the Guanyin Bridge Police Station of Cili County Public Security Bureau, the case was submitted to the case. Zhao Mouxiang suddenly fell to the ground while waiting for the interrogation to go to the toilet. The police immediately contacted the hospital for rescue and died after the hospital rescue. Hospital diagnosis is malignant heart rate caused sudden heartogenic death.

The joint investigation team of Cili County reported that the joint investigation team was composed of the county party committee politics and legal committees, the county disciplinary committee supervision committee, and the county people's procuratorate to conduct investigations in accordance with the law. If the investigation finds that there are violations of discipline and law, it will be dealt with seriously according to law.

The matter was once on the Weibo hot search list. Some netizens left a message. The monitoring in the police station was 24 hours without dead ends. Unless you brought people to a local trial without monitoring, "Please announce the surveillance video of complete law enforcement." Is the monitoring probe broken again?

In an interview with this station on Tuesday, the rights protection lawyer Bao Longjun said that from a legal perspective, the parties must have a video record of all the dialogue between the police and the suspect: "To ensure the safety of all aspects of her, this area is in this regard. It is necessary to record in the case in accordance with the law. If the questioner is, whether there is a guarantee of her rest and the necessary diet. Second, it is necessary to determine the cause of her death. Family members have the right to participate in the inspection process. "

The woman named Deng cried and complained that her mother died strangely in the police station. The authorities set up a joint investigation team for investigation. (Network screenshot / ancient pavilion provided) Folk Voice: Police Overall Law Law

Ms. Tian, a teacher of the former middle school in Zhangjiajie, Hunan, told this station that in a Chinese society that does not talk about legal systems, the law enforcement power of the police station's public security is often enlarged infinitely. If you can get through the relationship with the public security, no matter how big the matter is, it is also "small things": "You are not on the beam and the lower beam, the more you reach the grassroots, the more like a bandit. I know that the police can not ask the suspect separately now. It can prove each other. From the common sense, the police have problems with law enforcement. "

Although the above cases are under investigation, some netizens have speculated that the official conclusions may make, including the joint police, temporary workers, or "urine -leaving, scars before". "The message wrote that at the police station, the normal inquiry was monitoring, but it seemed that there were three hours of monitoring. At present, many Chinese media are paying attention to the progress of the matter.

Dispute between natural gas

After the outbreak of the Russian and Ukraine War, Russia and the European Union countries sanctioned each other. In this context, the European Commission passed the issue of "saving natural gas for safe winter seasons" to cope with Russian natural gas supply interruption.

Peninsula TV station focuses on the development of natural gas war and Europe's natural gas dependence on Russia. Previously, Europe made a way to overcome the natural gas and energy supply crisis last winter and reduced the consumption of natural gas. Now the import volume is about one -third of the historical import level.

According to the plan report, according to the European Commission, Europe has quickly diversified its natural gas resources, and spent more than $ 50 billion last year to fill its reserve. Energy costs have lost nearly trillions of dollars in continental Europe.

These days, with the decline in natural gas prices, Europeans are optimistic about the upcoming winter reserves, but the main exporters in the Gulf area and energy experts in Europe have warned that the next winter may be worse, and it is announced that There is still a long time at the end of the energy crisis.

The plan report also monitored the tension of Russia and Ukraine after the end of the Cold War, and discussed with international experts in the field of European energy replacement to reduce dependence on Russia's natural gas imports. , Africa or East China Sea imported natural gas, and long -term dependence on any of these alternative challenges.

alternative to Russian natural gas

Regarding Russia's substitution, researcher and international expert Anasas Hargie said that although it is impossible to rely entirely on Russia's natural gas, Europe cannot completely get rid of Russia, but only countries that can win a lot of natural gas for Europe are the only countries. U.S.

Anasa Hagi believes that the demand for natural gas and liquefied gas will be great in the next few years. It is expected that its prices will rise sharply, which means that the European natural gas crisis will continue because the cost is high, and the European continent will be unbearable.

Gulmila Razayev, chief researcher of the Institute of Energy Research in Oxford Energy, said in the European situation that due to the interruption of Russia's natural gas supply, the European Union was still recovering from a historic crisis. Although the market has recovered from this impact, it has recovered, but it has recovered from this impact, but the market has recovered from this impact, but In the next two years, more natural gas supply interruptions may exacerbate risks. Therefore, he emphasized that the EU needs to seek the protection of natural gas resources through new channels.

Gulmila Rizyev believes that in addition to natural gas, Europe has other options. It can rely on many suppliers and alternatives, but the problem is often in terms of cost and commitment to long -term contracts. Don't want to be involved in it, looking for alternatives and temporary solutions.

The blockade implemented during the new crown epidemic was boring, anxious and painful, but some of us also gave birth to an inexplicable excitement. It is difficult to be prohibited from going out of the house. This day may be difficult, but at least we can use this idea to comfort me: we are experiencing a major historical event. In the future, we can tell this time with my grandchildren. Some people will make it into a movie.

However, at the time of Britain's official new crown investigation, and this country has completely lifted the legal restrictions, it is less than 16 months, but the blockade not only makes people feel like a long -term thing, but also seems to be quickly dissipating from our consciousness. Many people have only blurred memories of that period, and only a little bit faintly felt about when it happened during that period.

The Italian government has recently restricted the influence of China Sinochem Group on Italian enterprises (data photos)

(Voice of Germany Chinese) Italian tire manufacturer Pirelli said on Sunday (June 18) that the Italian government has ruled that the CEO of Sinochem shall not designate Pirelli, although Sinochem Group holds the company 37%of the shares and 60%of the board seats are its main shareholders.

Reuters reported that Italian Prime Minister Melonini (GIORGIA MELONI )'s right -wing government last Friday (16th), according to the country's "GoldenPower", announced a series of measures to protect the endurance and its management of its management to protect the strategic significance of the country's strategic significance assets. Earlier, Sinochem Group notified the Italian government in March that the company will renew its contract with the current CEO Marcotronchetti Provera and update the existing shareholders' agreement with the Italian Holding Company.

The Italian government stated in a statement announced on the 16th that the "Cybertyre" of Pirellium's "smart tires" is a key technology that collects vehicle data with chip technology. Potential major risks of national security.

The investor behind the Sinochem Group is the State -owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission of the State Council of the State Council, and Camfin is a private investment tool for Provella, with 14%of Pirelli.

The British "Financial Times" reported that "golden power" is a extensive power that the Italian government can veto the acquisition of acquisitions, forced the sale of equity, and restrict foreign investment in national strategic asset investment. When Sinochem Investment Pirellium in 2015, this power was not so great, and the transaction was not reviewed by national security.

What are the regulations on Italy?

According to the earlier shareholders' agreement reached by Sinochem Group and Provella, the CEO of Pirelli has the right to designate the successor, and Sinochem proposed to update the agreement and cancel the clause. He currently enjoys the power of appointment of the executive CEO, and gives him to the Pirellium Pirellium, which is controlled by Sinochem. The updated agreement was submitted to the Italian government in March, which caused the review.

According to comprehensive media reports, the Italian government ruled that only Camfin had the right to nominate the next CEO of Pirellium, and it also prohibited the participation of Sinochem's participation in the relevant decision -making of Pirelli's operating strategy and financial planning. Any changes in Pirelli in the future -including failure to renew or sign a shareholder agreement -also must be reviewed by the government.

Italy stipulates that among the 15 members of Pirelli, Sinochem Group can only choose not more than 8 and decide 4 of Camfin. In the future, the "some" strategic decisions of the board of directors in the future must be approved by at least 80%of directors. If the previously submitted shareholder update agreement, Sinochem Group may have decided nine directors and Camfin will leave three members.

In addition to the separation of its financial and capital pool (Cash Pooling) from Sinochem Group, the company must also appoint a new Italian citizen to join the board to ensure that its ruling is observed.

In addition, the Italian government also requires Pirelli to refuse to refuse Sinochem Group to share any information, including any information related to proprietary technologies. Sinochem Group is also ordered to not have any intervention imposed by Beijing.

Sinochem Group refused to comment on this. The lawyer's analysis of the "Financial Times" may still be examined by the Italian government's decision.

Pirelli shareholders will vote on July 31 to vote for the new board of directors, and will be served as the next CEO by the current Deputy CEO Giorgio Bruno. The current CEO Provella will continue to serve as the executive vice chairman.

: The Italian government has been intervened very little

The Financial Times reported that a senior Italian official who was familiar with the case said that Italy could order Sinochem Group to reduce or even completely sell its stocks in Pirelli. Therefore, the country has shrunk the scope of intervention to "minimum" It's right.

The official said, "I think they (Sinochem Group) should be relieved when they learned that the shares were not affected," and pointed out that Sinochem Group also retained its seat at the Pirelli board.

It has promoted Italy to join Beijing "[Belt and Road]"(<https://www.dw.com/zh/zh/義大利傳將與中國談判退出一帶一路/a-65598090>)"Michelegeraci, deputy minister of the Ministry of Economic Development, warned that Italy's intervention in Pirelli this time not only did not have enough persuasiveness, but also furious Beijing, and increased the risk of business in China in China.

Italian considers low -key exit from the Belt and Road Initiative

Jerach said that China will be dissatisfied with this, "but they are smart and will not retaliate immediately in a clear and visible way." But in the future, if there is a problem in China in China, it will be the Italian government. Decide to pay the price.

He criticized the reason why the Italian government used "golden power" because Prime Minister Melonini and Treasury Minister Giancarlo Giorgetti needed anti -China, pro -beauty and NATO image.

He said that Pirelli's tire chip technology has nothing to do with national security or strategic assets. "If you are tracking a truck driver, where is he driving, how fast, and whether he stops to the toilet, this is not a national secret."

He also said that in the eyes of other foreign investors, it will be a destructive signal: "It is seen in the world that the Italian government is playing dice in investment rules."

The talks between Blintken and Xi Jinping were officially announced until about 1 hour before the beginning.

(Voice of Germany Chinese), Antony Blinken, USA, ended in the first visit to China on Monday (19th) and met with Chinese President Xi Jinping. However, some experts believe that this visit has not made a breakthrough on major issues. Blintken also acknowledged that the connection between the Sino-US military did not recover, but "still undergoing (repair)."

US CBS TV reported that when Slang was asked whether China was open to China-US military contact in an interview, Blintken said that the two sides would "continue to work hard" to reach an agreement and re-open these communication channels to avoid accidental conflicts.

Blintken said that he clearly stated to Chinese officials that exchanges between the military of the two countries meet China's interests. "We all agree that at least we must ensure that we will inadvertently conflict because of poor communication and misunderstanding."

"This chapter is over"

Earlier this year, after the United States shot down a Chinese "spy balloon" flying over the United States, China closed the communication between the two military.

According to the US media MSNBC reported on Tuesday (June 20), Brinkee said in an interview with the media that the Chinese balloon incident was "over".

The US Secretary of State said, "We do what we need to do to protect our interests. We said what we need to say, and we also clearly expressed the content that should be expressed clearly to ensure that this situation will not happen. Therefore As long as it no longer happens, this chapter should end. "

Bringsken: I held an important talks with President Xi Jinping

Expert: Non -successful visit to China

Blint's trip to China has been the first visit to China since 2018, the purpose is to ease the tension between China and the United States that has been warmed in the past few months, especially after the "spy balloon" incident. Brinken told the US media CBS on Monday that China and the United States "agree to stabilize our relationship", but there are still serious differences in some issues.

Although most of the overseas media must be sure that Brins' visit to China It believes that China and the United States will restore talks and contact, always better than no However, some experts have different views on this. Agence France -Presse reported that Sun Yun, the director of the Chinese think tank StimsOncenter, said that the two sides failed to restart dialogue in the military field that is most likely to explode, and the United States was responsible for the United States. In addition, "after the visit to Brinken, the relationship between the two countries is still extremely fragile."

BonnieglaSer, an expert in the Marshall Foundation of Germany, also said that as Taiwan is approaching next year's elections, Beijing is becoming more and more vigilant. " uncertain".

Reuters reported that US President Bynden praised Brinken this trip He stated in California, USA on Monday that he believed that US -China relations were on the "correct road" and hinted that he made progress smoothly during the trip to Beijing's trip to Beijing.

"We are walking on the right path," said Bayeng when he talked about US - China relations. When the reporter asked him if he felt that he had made progress, he replied, "It has made progress."

Biden also praised Brinken's visit to China and said "he did great."

China: Get six major achievements

China CCTV reported that Yang Tao, director of the US Department of Foreign Affairs, said on Monday that Brinken's biggest achievement was to agree to the consensus of China and the United States who returned to the head of state reached in Bali in 2022. In addition, from the perspective of Chinese views, Blinken's three talks with Xi Jinping, Wang Yi, and Qin Gang achieved six major results.

Yang Tao pointed out that first, the current Sino -US relations are at the lowest valley since the establishment of diplomatic relations. This situation does not meet the fundamental interests of the Chinese and American peoples, nor does it meet the common expectations of the international community. Second And the political foundation of maintaining Sino -US relations.

Third, China has proposed the direction and path of stabilizing Sino -US relations. The fourth is to explain the logic and trend of China's development, and the fifth is to reiterate the red line of the bottom line of China in core interests and major concerns. In the end, the two sides reached some positive consensus and achievements, and agreed to implement the consensus determined during the meeting of the heads of state of the two countries.

A TV wall in China, the news of Chinese President Xi Jinping met with the news of the US Secretary of State Brills

AFP reported that Shi Yinhong, a professor at the School of International Relations of Renmin University of China, said that Brinton's visit was in line with expectations, and both sides emphasized enthusiasm.

He said that Xi Jinping will visit the United States in November, and Bayeng will welcomes leaders of all countries to San Francisco to participate in the Asia -Pacific Economic Cooperation Forum (APEC) Forum. The atmosphere seems to have entered the right track.

Shi Yinhong said that "of course, it is positive, but it is difficult to implement it."

Taiwan Foreign Ministry: Mastering China -US interaction

Taiwan Foreign Affairs Ministry of Foreign Affairs issued a statement on Tuesday (20th) on the visit of Brinton that Taiwan has always paid close attention to the interaction between the United States and the middle and high -level levels. At present, Taiwan and the United States have good trust in each other. Always keep in touch.

Regarding the strong stance of the United States to support the peace and stability of the Taiwan Strait, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Taiwan expressed welcoming and affirming, and emphasized that the peace and stability of the Taiwan Strait is the core of the safety and prosperity of the Indo -Pacific region.

The statement said that the Taiwan government will continue to deepen the relationship with the United States and security, jointly defend the rules - based international order, and promote the peace, stability and prosperity of the Taiwan Strait and India -Pacific regions.

Blingken arrived in Beijing on the morning of June 18, arrived at the Diaoyutai State Guest House in the afternoon to talk with Chinese State Councilor and Foreign Minister Qin Gang. However, "News Network" broadcast by CCTV on the 18th did not report the matter. Regarding Brillin and Qin Gang's 6 or 7 hours of talks, the Chinese official media Xinhua News Agency and others only reported the Chinese position that Qin Gang expressed with his teachings, but did not say anything. Xinhua News Agency said that Qin Gang said, "At present, Sino -US relations are at the lowest valley since the establishment of diplomatic relations", and emphasized that "the issue of Taiwan is the core of China's core interests", "it is also the most prominent risk."

Analysis: Pay the way for Xi Jinping to attend the San Francisco APEC Summit in November

After talking with Qin Gang, Brinken wrote in Twitter that the two sides discussed how to manage the relationship between the two countries in charge through open communication channels. The U.S. State Department issued a statement stating that Brinken emphasized the importance of maintaining smooth communication channels on both sides and proposed to cooperate with China on some issues, but at the same time, the United States will continue to protect the interests of Americans and safeguard the rules -based international order. The Wall Street Journal had previously analyzed that one of the driving force for the recent recovery of dialogue in the United States and China was the Asia -Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) summit scheduled to be held in San Francisco in November. Beijing hopes that Chinese President Xi Jinping will attend the meeting and pave the way with US President Biden.

mask meaning

As can be seen from the photos, the US delegations led by Brinken were led by the Chinese Foreign Minister Qin Gang and a member of the Central Political Bureau and the director of the Central Foreign Affairs Working Committee. The personnel were wearing a mask, and the US personnel also put on the mask "with the customs" in addition to Blink. In March of this year, the picture reached by Beijing AIDS reached an agreement showed that in the three -party talks, all officials did not wear a mask, which was in sharp contrast to the picture of Beijing officials now meeting with Bollingken.

suspense revealed

Until the last moment, whether Xi Jinping, the Chinese President and the Supreme CCP leader, would have been a suspense. On the eve of Brinken's arrival in Beijing, Chinese Chairman Xi Jinping met with former Microsoft President Gates, saying that he was an old friend, and said that he always hoped to be in the American people. Analysts believe that if Xi Jinping does not see Blink, then Sino -US relations will be even more worrying. If you see, the relationship between the two parties is expected to be further ease. Xi Jinping may also have a formal visit to the United States when he goes to San Francisco in November to participate in the APEC summit.

What details are eye -catching?

Blinger to complete the main goal of this trip

According to usual, the US Secretary of State visits China, and Chinese leaders will meet with it. However, there are exceptions, such as when Plingken's former Pompeo visited China in October 2018, Xi Jinping did not see him. At that time, the Sino -US trade war had debuted, and US Vice President Pence had just delivered a tough speech on China. The relationship between the two sides was very tense. Today, Xi Jinping's visit to China after the Chinese balloon invaded the US led in the Great Hall of the People, which means that China and the United States will maintain high - level communication, and Brinken also reaches the "frankness, direct and direct, and directly, and directly announced by China to visit China. The main goal of constructive "discussion. During the talks, Xi Jinping was sitting in the middle, and the long tables on the left and right hands were sitting on Sino - US officials. Neither Xi Jinping and Brinken were wearing masks, and Qin Gang and Wang Yi, who had not wearing a mask during the meeting with Brinken, wore masks like other officials.

U.S. President Biden End two days after the Secretary of State Bringson Beijing Visit Later, he believed that US -China relations towards the right track.

According to Bloomberg and Reuters, Bayeng said to the media in California on Monday (June 19) in California that Brinken "did well" and "we went to the right track."

When asked if it was believed that the US -China relations had made progress, Biden replied, "My idea is not like this. You shouldn't ask this way. What you should ask is how many progress has been made this time."

Blinden has left Beijing to fly to London to attend the "Ukraine Reconstruction Conference" of the year. The reporter asked Bynden if he said with Brincken, and Biden said that he kept in touch with Brinken through the National Security Council consultant, Shalv.

Bayeng told reporters last weekend, he hopes to meet with Chinese President Xi Jinping in the next few months Essence When the White House was questioned on Monday, there was no schedule for the US -China leaders.

According to a press conference held before leaving Beijing on Monday, Brinken said that Washington has achieved the goal of this visit to China, including directly proposing concerns, trying to establish dialogue channels and exploration cooperation areas. But he also said that progress was not smooth.

Brinton said: "U.S. -China relations are in a period of unstable, and both parties realize that they need to work hard to stabilize the relationship."

In the past forty years, China's rapid development experience has told us that if a country wants to achieve substantial economic success, there are actually two most important conditions: one is that the people must be diligent enough, and have longing for a better life and practicality. The efforts of China and the entire East Asian nation have a very good tradition in this area -work hard, diligent, and down -to -earth; followed by the openness of the external environment, especially for economies that develop exports as the main driving force, In the case of the development rhythm of the development of freedom of trade and conservative trade, it will be different.

Starting from the Russian and Ukraine War, the world has abandoned the past liberal standards of "trade first". At present, it is more considered as a higher level of consideration. Each country and every region carefully divide the definition of "safety". From product standards to production process standards, from organizational structure to executive nationality, it can be said that they are drawing as much red line as much as possible. Prevent any potential leakage. Under such a background, the pressure of China's exports can be imagined. We have seen China's export data in May. It can be said that in addition to maintaining two -way growth of imports and exports except with ASEAN, there have been relatively large scale with other areas. The decline, especially in Europe and the United States with relatively high profits. There is both the reason for the weak market, but it is more caused by some market trends.

Outside of Bachmut, the Ukrainian soldiers used the S60 anti-aircraft gun on the truck to fire to the Russian position(Anadolu News Agency)Ukraine

Deputy Minister of Defense Anna Maryle said that Kiev's "biggest blow" in the counterattack against the Russian army has not yet arrived, but she acknowledged that the operation was difficult, and Moscow was doing its best to prevent Ukraine from advancing forward.

Two weeks ago, Ukraine opened the first stage of the long -rumored counterattack to recover the land occupied by the Russian army. However, there have been reports that the Ukrainian army has progressed slowly and Russia's stubborn resistance. In this context, Moscow officials claimed that Ukraine's offensive failed.

The Ukrainian military remained strictly silent for the entire battle. Until Monday, June 19, it announced that it has achieved some small victories so far, liberated 8 villages, and about 113 square kilometers (70 square miles) territories.

Maria said on Monday that "the biggest blow has not yet arrived."

She wrote on the Telegram message application, "There are several goals in the progress of the operation, and the military is doing these tasks."

Russia: Ukrainian shells were injured by 20 people in Walnovaha

She said, "The enemy will not give up the position easily, and we must be prepared to fight hard. In fact, this is what is happening now."

Russian President Vladimir Putin said later last week that Ukraine's counterattack did not achieve any meaningful success. However, some Russian military bloggers said that Kiev received a small profit at the cost of huge troops and equipment.

Although it is impossible to independently verify the authenticity of the most controversial military operations at the front line, Reuters can confirm that the Ukrainian army has made progress in the early stages of counterattacks.

On Sunday on the 18th, the Washington Institute of Think Tank quoted sources as saying that the Ukrainian army may temporarily stop the counterattack to "re -evaluate the tactics of their future operations."

The Institute of War also emphasized that the main operations of counterattacks have not yet begun.

In its daily analysis of the Daily situation, the Institute said, "The Institute has previously pointed out that Ukraine has not invested in most available troops for counterattack operations and has not yet started its main action."

It pointed out that "the suspension of action is a common feature of major offensive operations, and this suspension does not mean that the Ukraine counterattack is over."

Ukraine President Vladimir Zeleki said in his night video speech that military offense was a "stress", but the Ukrainian army did not let the pressure concentrated on the Russian army slip away in this case.

Zeleiski said, "In some areas, our warriors are moving forward. In some regions, they are defending their positions and resisting the occupant's raid and intensified attack."

He claims, "We have not lost any position. Only the liberation of some positions. Only they have lost their losses."

Officials from the two NATO member states said Moscow tried to predict that Ukraine would launch the target of attacks and was re -deploying some troops.

UKRAINE-RUSSIA COUNTEROFFENSIVE LOCATIONS

Ukrainian counterattacks to pay attention to (Peninsula TV Station) Intelligence officials in the UK and Estonia said Russia has been mobilizing some troops east along the front line from the south of the Dnieper. Earlier, the area was flooded by the flood due to the huge Kakhovka Hydropower Dam on June 6.

In short, the Ukrainian military said its counterattack was under plan, but at the same time acknowledged that there was a "dilemma" in the front line.

In the southern part of the country, Ukraine Commander Valeriy Zaluzhnyi wrote in Telegram on Monday that Ukraine's advancement was hindered by defensive work, densely wooded areas, and "a lot of reserves", but the operation will be carried out as scheduled.

In a video, he also appeared with the chief of staff Svetlana Shaptla at the command center near the front line. Through this, Zaluzhnyi may also refute the rumors of Russian official media, and they have repeatedly claimed that he was seriously injured in a missile attack in May.

(Voice of Germany Chinese), as the United States sought to compete in China, India Prime Minister Narendra Modi set off on Tuesday (June 20) to the United States on Tuesday (June 20) to launch a three -day state visit. Agence France -Presse pointed out that India believes that this bank has historical significance and will expand and consolidate relations with the United States.

Modi went to the United States many times. The last official visit was September 2021. However, this is the first time he visited the United States with the highest diplomatic visits in diplomacy.

"This is not a conventional visit, this is the fundamental turning point between India and the United States." C. Rajamohan, a scholar at the Asia Society Policy Institute in New Delhi, told Reuters: "This is not to suppress China or Anti -China problem is related to establishing a new power balance in Asia. Asia is polarized and there is no single force dominated. "

According to the Indian Prime Minister's office, Modi will first go to the United Nations headquarters of New York to participate in the "International Yoga Day" event on the 21st, and then go to Washington to meet Biden and accept the national banquet. In addition, he will speak in the US Congress. Asian International News (ANI) reported that Modi would also meet with Tesla CEO Elonmusk.

to deal with China?

According to the pre -speeches announced by the Indian Prime Minister's office, Modi said that India and the United States continued to deepen cooperation in the fields of defense industry, space, quantum, artificial intelligence, biotechnology, and jointly committed to promoting the "free, open, and inclusive India -Pacific India Regional vision; his meeting with Biden will also help promote the operation of multilateral systems such as the G20 (G20), Sifang Security Dialogue (QUAD), and Indo -Pacific Economic Framework (IPEF).

Earlier this month, American Defense Minister Lloyd Austin visited New Delhi At that time, it was announced that it had established a "ambitious and brand -new blueprint for national defense industry cooperation." Agence France - Presse pointed out that this may be related to a plan worth billions of dollars. The two sides have discussed this for a long time, and the United States may officially announce the approval of the plan during Modi's visit: let the General's production jet engine in India for use in India's domestic fighters.

China -India relations have continued to deteriorate recently. The two sides refused to issue visas to reporters. At present, there may be no Chinese official reporters in India. The picture shows Chinese President Xi Jinping and Indian Prime Minister Modi attended the BRICS Summit in Xiamen in September 2017.

Ashok Malik, an analyst at The Asia Group, told AFP that the "Practicalism and Deep Alliance at the Government" set the US -India relations, and with very powerful economic and commercial bonds Essence He also said that as China gradually revealed "extraordinary self -confidence" in the region, India, a major rising country, is very important.

The Associated Press quoted Jitendra Nathmisra, a diplomatic scholar of the Global University of Global (O.P. Jindal Global University). It is necessary for China to fight each other and cannot fight alone.

Reuters pointed out that India and the United States did not trust each other during the Cold War, but during the recent tenure of the President of the United States, the relationship with India has supported cross -party support, and the two countries have closer to the past 20 years. Based on this, Biden further deepened his cooperation with India and regarded it as an important partner to fight against China's influence and strengthened the security of the Indo -Pacific region. With the deterioration of India's relations with China, India also gradually moved towards the West.

2000 kilometers border, 120,000 square kilometers dispute

The total length of the China -India border is nearly 2,000 kilometers, and there are also 120,000 square kilometers of territorial disputes. The border with territorial disputes involves three parts: Western (600 kilometers), mid - section (450 kilometers), and eastern section (650 kilometers). In May 2020, there was a conflict (mid -section) in northern Sikkim; on June 16, a soldier conflict in the Palestine Valley (western section) of China and India caused dozens of casualties, at least India, at least India, at least India. It was said that 20 soldiers died.

McMahon Line

Markma Hong Line(Mcmahonline, the eastern section line)It is a border between British India and Tibet, which is drawn by a British adventureist to measure India. In 1914, the British diplomat McMahon convened the three - party meeting of Central, India, and Tibet. Because the Republic of China did not agree to divide the McMahon line in Tibet, and the Tibetan party failed to get an independent change in advance discussions, he also gave up the recognition of the McMa red line. As a result, Tibetan did not sign the "Simra Treaty". India and Myanmar believe that the McMahon line is a historical boundary. To this day, although the People's Republic of China refused to recognize the McMahon line, it regarded it as the actual control line. In the 1962 Battle of the China -India, although the Chinese army once occupied Darwon, the area, it was later withdrawn to the north of the actual control line.#

South Tibet (India: Arunachal)

The southern Tibet is known as "Arunachalpradesh" in India, with an area of about 60,000 square kilometers and is located on the south side of the Himalayas. The west is Bhutan, Myanmar east is India, and the south is Tibet in China. China calls the south of Tibet and belongs to the administrative division of the Tibet Autonomous Region. However, according to the division of the "McMahon Line", the place belongs to India, and India also actually controls the place. However, the Tibetan side and the Republic of China refused to sign on the treaty. This route continues after the founding of the People's Republic of China. In 1948, India, which was just independent, began to send troops into this area. In 1960, India completely occupied the south of the wheat line, and China controlled north. In 1972, India established Arunachal's central area in the area. In 1987, the district was changed to "Arunecal Pradesh".

Britain occupied the Kim Kingdom in 1887 and sent troops to Tibet the following year. In 1950, India was called the protection of Sikkim after independence. In 2003, after the Indian Prime Minister Vajapa visited China, Beijing acknowledged New Delhi's sovereignty over Sikkim, and India also recognized China to Tibet sovereignty. After 2005, Sikkim is no longer marked as a sovereign state on the map published by China.

In April 1960, in order to seek resolution of territorial disputes, the Chinese and Indian governments were negotiated with Indian Prime Minister Nehru in New Delhi by Chinese Prime Minister Zhou Enlai, but did not obtain consensus. The China -India border war broke out in 1962. When the Chinese army launched an offense at the same time from the east and west places on October 20 of that year, the military force was 5 to 10 times that of the Indian army. The Chinese army had been deeply deepened to India today's Arunachal and Himalayas. The entire war continued for a month, causing a total of 2,000 people to be killed. On November 20, 1962, China unilaterally announced a ceasefire and withdrew it to 20 kilometers after the McMahon line. After the war, China -India relations have entered a trough due to border conflicts.

From December 19th to 23rd, 1988, Indian Prime Minister Ragov Gandhi conducted a formal visit to China and met with Deng Xiaoping. This is the first time that Indian Prime Minister has visited China in 34 years. This visit has been regarded as a sign of the warmth of the Sino -Indian relations after years of tension. In 1993, while Indian Prime Minister Narasimharao visited China, the two sides signed the "Agreement on Maintaining peace and peace on the actual control line of the China -India border." This interview marked a new era that Sino -Indian relations have opened. Since the 1990s, China and India have signed a total of 5 agreements on peaceful resolution of border conflicts.

Doklam, which covers an area of about 100 square kilometers, is a controversial area between China and Bhutan, and India has never declared sovereignty to the place. In June 2017, India sent troops to cross the border between China and India on the grounds of "receiving help from the Bhutan government" and "supporting Bhutan sovereignty" to prevent China from building roads there and form a confrontation with the Chinese army for 71 days. Bhutan is the only country in China's 14 neighboring countries that have not established diplomatic relations with China, and its country's diplomatic power and defense power are in India. ### "embarrassing reality" between the United States and India

The Chinese official media "Global Times" reported on the 20th that Modi's trip to the United States and India relations was strengthened. The newspaper visited Lin Minwang, deputy director of the South Asian Research Center of Fudan University, saying that India is essentially "riding a wall." Lin Minwang believes that the United States said that Modi visits the United States is a "turning moment", but it is just the saying of "wishful thinking". This expectation is "destined to fail", "because India only wants the benefits and will not bear the obligation of the American allies." "Biden regarded democracy against non -democracy as an organizational principle of foreign policy. From this point of view, if India is a vigorous democratic country, it is much more convenient," said Nurdin. However, some experts said that, compared with China, India is at least a democratic government. Tanvimadan, a scholar Tanvimadan, a scholar of Brookingsinstitution of the Washington Think Tank, told DW that the United States accepted the leaders selected by Indian voters and had a limited impact on India's internal affairs; The issues that will be considered. "

Ma Dan further stated: "If China does not want to see a close relationship between the United States and India, maybe it should not be so tough to India before." Ma Dan said that anyone who understands India knows that the country cherishes its independence and may not necessarily. Happy to form an alliance, "But when it is facing greater challenges It will overcome this hesitation. "

India's appetite for Russian oil is getting bigger and bigger

Indo -Russian relations are hidden concerns

India has a huge market, and has potential to become a replacement of China's supply chain, but Relationship between India and Russia Still doubt the United States. The Indian government did not clearly condemn Russia's aggression against Ukraine and continued to buy low -cost oil from Russia.

Donaldcamp, a scholar of the Washington Think Tank Strategy and International Research Center (CSIS), told AFP that although the United States urged India to take further measures to Russia, it did not seem to have a huge obstacle to the progress of the U.S. -India relations.

The Associated Press analyzed that India and Russia have cooperated in the fields of defense and nuclear energy. This relationship lasted for decades; however, the White House observed some signs from the recent public speech of Modi, showing that India is faintly far away from Russia. This On behalf of India, the source of its military equipment can be more diversified, and the Indian government also realizes that China -Russia's friendship may have an impact on India.

CSIS's US -Indian policy researcher Richard Rossow told the Associated Press that the White House do not want India to continue buying oil from Russia On the one hand, they are also unwilling to cut off their relationship with India, so they will "gently push" India in a subtle and appropriate way, which will not make this event a decisive factor.

The US Minister of Justice, Galan, suddenly visited the Hague International Criminal Court (ICC) of the Hague, Netherlands (June 19) to meet with the chief prosecutor of the International Criminal Court.

Reuters reported that the US Department of Justice did not announce the schedule of Galan beforehand or provided any information to the media. Garland's visit to Hague is a sign of the transformation of Washington's policies for the Court of Wars of the World Wars.

The International Criminal Court said on Twitter on Monday that Galan met with Karim Khan, chief prosecutor of the International Criminal Court, but did not provide any details of the two people.

Garland and Karim Khan met to show that the relationship between Washington and the International Criminal Court has improved.

Many major powers, including the United States, China and Russia, are not members of the International Criminal Court. When Trump served as President of the United States, he imposed sanctions on the International Criminal Court.

After taking office, Biden lifted the sanctions and supported the international criminal court to investigate Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

In March of this year, the International Criminal Court arrested the Russian President Putin, accusing him of illegally transferred hundreds of children from Ukraine for war crimes. Biden previously said that the International Criminal Court issued an arrest warrant to Putin.

Moscow has repeatedly denied the charges of the Russian army committed atrocities. The Kremlin claimed that the International Criminal Court's arrest warrant issued Putin was "invalid".

However, in the Bayeng government, not everyone's support to establish a more friendly relationship with the International Criminal Court.

Last month, some US Congress said that the State Council and the judicial department were cooperating with the International Criminal Court, but accused the Pentagon of the Pentagon to prevent US military intelligence sharing and destroy the prosecution of war on Russian officials.

Students from a university in Nanchang ate a suspected "mouse head" at the campus restaurant last month, and the official insisted that it was a duck neck. China's official released the latest survey results on the 17th confirmed that foreign bodies were mice and non -duck necks. Network screenshot/RFA information

The "referring to mice as a duck" recently happened in Jiangxi universities became "hot search" on June 1, and after more than two weeks, the Jiangxi Provincial Education Department, the Public Security Department, the Public Security Department, and the Public Security Department, and The "Joint Investigation Team" composed of the SASAC and the Market Administration made a notification: The "Joint Investigation Team" of Jiangxi Province determined that "the foreign body in the meals of the Jiangxi Industrial Vocational and Technical College is a mouse head", not the previous school and the Market Administration bureau's embarrassment for adultery. The "duck neck".

Not easy! Although after more than two weeks, the Communist Party of China can finally distinguish whether it is a rat head or a duck neck! So the question is: Who came forward to force the students who had to eat the mouse after the incident had to change their mouths and said it was "duck neck"? What sin should these people who use power upside down black and white? Intersection What legal responsibility should be held? Intersection How to investigate the CCP responsible people who are fraudulently faked, reversed black and white, and forced students to make false statements?

If the Chinese Communist regime cannot conduct a thorough public investigation on the above issues and seriously deal with those harmful people thieves, then the current conclusion is that the CCP has to make the fool who wants to protect the handsome and not to lose his death under the turbulent people's sentiment. Surgery. Therefore, the students who were forced to change their mouths to admit that they were "duck necks" in the next time they ate the mouse head. It will become an important vane for measuring this matter.

If the student is like Deng Yujiao and has since lost his freedom and cannot meet with the media freely, then it shows that the evil has risen from the school and the Market Administration to the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China. The next script will continue to be proven by countless historical facts -the Communist Party of China will join forces to stand on the side of the evil side with the people. The Chinese Communist Party will re-transfer the problems raised by the people back to solve the people who have raised problems.

In fact, the "finger mouse is duck" in the falling area of the Communist Party of China is worse than the Qin Dynasty Zhao Gao's "refers to the deer as a horse". "Refers to the deer as a horse" occurred in Xianyang, the capital of the Qin Dynasty more than two thousand years ago. The struggle there, you died, and Li Si did not know that it was a sika deer, but to live in the troubled times in the troubled times. "Refers to the mouse as a duck" occurs in the current academy cafeteria where technology is developed, and the authenticity of things, even if it is not possible to be discerned with the naked eye, there are countless methods that can accurately identify what the essence of foreign objects that students eat. , And not threaten the security of the regime.

However, the matter of "referring to mice for duck" happened, and the "Internet hot search" continued to be over half a month later, the simple and discernous truth conclusion was preliminarily concluded.

However, when I came late, I couldn't get better, and the Chinese Communist Party finally had the ability to distinguish between mice and duck neck. Friends feel that the Communist Party still has the ability to distinguish the mouse head and duck neck. Is it blessing or a disaster for the people of the CCP's occupied areas?

And the problem now is: How will the Communist Party treat the student who eats mice? Is it open to commend him to tell the truth and give compensation, or give compensation, or is it secretly suppressing it as a "source of excitement"? It is worthy of our reference.

I personally think that the doom of that student is likely to have just begun. In the future, whether he can go to school freely ... and even speaking and traveling, it deserves close attention. According to the experience of fighting with the Communist Party: It is likely that before the matter is calm, he will be in a state of being disappeared as Hunan Deng Yujiao assassinated with a fruit knife to try to rape her cadres.

I believe that the CCP will use actual actions to prove that the current "referring to mice is a duck" is more evil than the "referring to the deer as a horse" that happened in the Qin Dynasty.

The United States is not a member of the International Criminal Court. During the term of the US President Donald Trump, the United States even sacrificed sanctions on senior officials of the International Criminal Court because he was dissatisfied with the intention of investigating the US military in Afghanistan in Afghanistan's war. Joe Biden canceled the relevant sanctions after taking office.

The U.S. Department of Justice stated that Jaland's bank mainly discussed with the international criminal court officials to investigate Russia's responsibility and other common law enforcement priority matters, and said that Jaland's visit to the International Criminal Court has "historical significance."

The International Court of Criminal Court today released a film on the community media Twitter (Twitter) Karim Khan.

After Russia made a comprehensive invasion of Ukraine in February last year, the International Criminal Court issued an arrest warrant against Russian President Vladimir Putin in March this year, accusing him of illegally transporting hundreds of children from Ukraine to Russia, involving the crime of war.

However, because Russia is not a member of the International Criminal Court, it is regarded as an invalid order.

the G20 summit held in Indonesia in 2022(Associated Press) Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi went to the United States to meet President Joe Biden and delivered a speech in Congress. As his host seemed to fight against China in the region, military and technical relations have been on the agenda.

Before the first state visit to the United States on Tuesday, the United States for the first time since we came to power in 2014, Modi posted a tweet on Twitter. Relationship."

The leaders of the country with the most population in the world will attend the national banquet held in the White House on Thursday. This is the third time that Biden has held such activities since the inauguration.

At the time of Hindu's nationalist leaders' concerns, human rights and democratic retrogression of their Muslim ethnic minorities, this visit was known as a "historic" opportunity for New Delhi as the "expansion and consolidation" relationship.

But Biden clearly stated that he believes that the relationship between the United States and India is a decisive relationship that will jointly deal with some of the most difficult global challenges in the next few years, including climate change, damage related to artificial intelligence, and China in India Tai Tai in India. The growing strength of the region.

access to human rights concerns

On the occasion of Modi's three -day visit to the United States, human rights organizations and political oppositions accused Indian leaders accusing Indian leaders suppressing objections and pursuing the split policy of discriminating against Muslims and other ethnic minorities.

Why do Muslims escape from a small town in North Akandbon, India(Peninsula TV Station)Human Rights Observation, the director of the Asian region, Eleine Pilson urged Bayen not to avoid the confrontation with India's "worsening human rights status" with Modi.

The organization plans to screen a BBC documentary that criticized Modi in Washington on Tuesday, which has been banned by the Indian government.

This documentary deeply discussed the supervision responsibility of Modi's deadly anti -Muslim riots that killed more than 1,000 people in 2002 as the chief minister of Gujarat. Human rights organizations believe that the number of official deaths is underestimated.

In 2005, Washington revoked Modi's U.S. visa because he was worried that he did not take action to stop the violent incidents of Gujarat. A survey approved by the Supreme Court of India later waived Modi's blame, but the stain at this dark moment was no longer wearing.

Recently, Modi has been criticized for revising the legislation of the country's citizen law. The law is rapidly citizenship for some immigrants, but it excludes Muslims outside. In addition, the increased violence of Hindu ethnicists to Muslims and other religious minorities, as well as India's largest opposition leader Lahul Gandhi recently was convicted for mocking Modi's surname.

Pilson wrote, "The Modi government also showed public prejudice in protecting the BJP supporters and affiliated agencies accused of being accused of a series of crimes," here is the first alphabetic abbreviation of the Modi's Indian People's Party.

"At the international level, it is proven that the Modi government is often unwilling to stand with other governments on a critical human rights crisis to refuse or avoid condemnation of serious human rights acts in other places."

Ghost in Gujarat: India banned BBC Modi documentary(Peninsula TV Station)The Indian government has continuously defended its human rights records and insisted that the country's democratic principles are still strong.

The relationship between India and Russia

The United States also avoided publicly condemning India's silent criticism of the invasion of old allies in Russia and the increasingly dependent on New Delhi to Russia. Russia's oil accounted for 19% of India's annual crude oil imports, and 2% in 2021.

In an interview published on Monday, the Wall Street Journal asked Modi about the United States' criticism that it did not take a stronger position on Russia's invasion of Ukraine. He commented on this: "I think this view is not common in the United States, I am not common in the United States. It is believed that India's position is well-known and understandable in the world. The world's primary task of the world is full of confidence in the fact that peace is peaceful. "

In the interview, Modi called for reforms to the United Nations and other global institutions to make them adapt to increasingly "polarized world order" and make them better represent the world's less wealthy countries.

He said India hopes to be a permanent member of the UN Security Council. "I should ask the world if I want India there."

INDIA MUSLIMS FLOGGED FOR PROTESTS

The richest ethnic group in the United States, nearly five million Indian diasporas, has become a strong man in economy, culture and politics.

Biden tried to revive the "Quartet Safety Dialogue", which is an international partnership consisting of the United States, Australia, India and Japan. The US defense sales in the United States increased from nearly zero in 2008 to more than $ 20 billion in 2020.

Modi's trip to the United States will begin on Wednesday, 21st, and he will lead foreign dignitaries and officials to participate in the International Yoga Day Conference held in the United Nations Secretariat of New York. Yoga, an ancient discipline, was first practiced by the Indian saints. It is now one of the most successful cultural exports of India after Bolili.

Nine years ago, Modi successfully posted the United Nations on June 21 as International Yoga Day. Since then, he has used yoga as a cultural soft power to expand his diplomatic influence of his country and shape himself as a "asceticism" leader.

Modi's formal state visits will begin on Thursday, 22nd, including meeting with Biden in the oval office, delivering speeches at the joint meeting of Congress, and hosted by Bayon and First Lady Gil Biden, hosted Luxury White House Dinner.

On Friday, 23rd, Modi will be commended at the lunch party hosted by Vice President Kamara Harris and Secretary of State Anthony Brinkean, and plans to speak to Indians before leaving Washington.

After three years of the epidemic, after a great impact on the economic and political system of the world, due to the gradually slowing down due to the epidemic in countries in the world, when the economy began to recover, China's outbreak of the new round of the epidemic has once again strengthened the civil society again. Controlled, but unlike the zero -epidemic prevention policies that have been pushed in the past three years, more controls have imposed on the general public this time. , And the "Cultural Market Comprehensive Law Enforcement Team", commonly known as "cultural management".

1. Political risks allowed funds to escape and lead to downside of the economy

Behind China 's strengthening of the people' s strengthening measures is because of the three years of the epidemic. Under the policy of forced "clearance" and "seal control", foreign capital began to gradually evacuate China. In addition, the other factors are to avoid political risks. The examples of Ma Yun's arrest have made these foreign -funded giants recognized that even if they maintain a good relationship with the current senior executives of the Communist Party, they may still be arrested and confiscated by any reason for any reason. property.

In order to prevent foreign capital and private funds from evacuating, the Chinese authorities have also strengthened a series of control measures for funds. However The unemployment rate within China, and after the evacuation of these capitals, even brought problems in the fiscal taxes of various local governments, but even if the local government's taxation problems occur, the amount of taxes paid to the central government every year will not be reduced. Economic growth has reached the standard, and increasing the tax that the local governments must pay to the central government are required. Therefore, local governments have begun to set up various names to collect taxes and fines from the people. Tour and parking fees, but this further deteriorated the non -optimistic private economic situation.

2. Establish an agricultural management team to strengthen rural management

However, it is not just a problem with taxation. In order to improve the self - sufficiency rate of food and avoid further loss of domestic funds, the Chinese Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Ministry of Agriculture and Rurality set up a "agricultural management team" in various places to help local governments enhance "agricultural land recovery under a signal order last year. Indicators such as farming rate "and" cultivation of farmland "improved the area of agricultural land in various localities, but the actual results of local officials' actual implementation are stunning. In addition to cutting off the woods to implement the policy of returning forests and returning farming, the hillside is also hard just as the ground. The mode of transforming into a terraced field is completely ignored the problem of soil and water conservation.

In addition, because the indicators given by the central government are only one grain, the local agricultural management team has also been forced to eliminate the forthcoming vegetables and sweet potatoes and other non - indicated crops. The project also includes the management of the use of agricultural machinery, which contains a license and license for the use of agricultural machinery for cross -regional agricultural machinery. , Resulting in delayed harvesting and germination of wheat.

Three, strengthen various management to make the problem more serious

In fact, whether all local governments have begun to enable taxes and fines to the people, or the launch of agricultural management teams to strengthen rural production capacity, it has shown that China's official policy can only be proposed in response to the economic decline, but the management principles of bureaucratic agencies' management principles can be proposed. Just look at the digital reports, and the same management model has appeared once during the Great Leap Forward. The famous "satellite" and "large steel refining" are because the production management cadres lie to the requirements of the superior leadership, which causes the number The culprit of many years of famine.

Economic deterioration can lead to the deterioration of social order and directly affect the rule of the Communist Party of China. In order to avoid any "rebellious" ideas, the original ideological control of the original ideological control is independent into the "comprehensive cultural market enforcement team" is that the future will be the future that will be future. For the implementation of policies, we can foresee that the Communist Party's ruling class may further tighten various control measures for the people in order to stabilize our rule, but whether this will cause further impact on Taiwan is what we need to observe further observation. Beijing-US Secretary of State Anthony Brinkeak said on Monday that although the United States did not see the Chinese government's decision to provide a fatal weapon assistance to Russia, the United States was worried that Chinese private companies would provide materials and technologies that may be used in Ukraine to the Moscow army.

"This is concerned," said Bollingen's press conference in Beijing after meeting with Chinese leaders Xi Jinping. He said he had proposed this concern to Chinese officials and "urged them to be vigilant."

Blint said in February that China is considering providing fatal assistance to Russia's war in Ukraine. The Chinese government has denied that this action is considering, but Brinken and other American officials have repeatedly repeated this statement.

Blinken reiterated on Monday that the United States did not see Beijing's decision to provide such assistance signs. He said: "We haven't seen any contradictions now."

His emphasis on private companies stated that U.S. officials are abandoning allegations that have relevant intentions to the Chinese government. But Brinken did not publicly explain why Washington was worried about Chinese companies.

Blint also met with senior officials in foreign countries on Sunday and Monday. He said that he told Chinese officials that the United States welcomed Beijing to work hard to promote the war between Russia and Ukraine, provided that these efforts can bring "justice and peace" based on the UN Charter.

Brinken said that this fair peace means a peace that can bring lasting security to Ukraine and will not allow Ukrainian territory to fall into Russia's hands.

It is estimated that since the battle in Sudan, more than 115,000 Sudan people have fled to Chad (Anadu News Agency)

A source of the Sudan government believes that the statement of the "Igart" national mechanism is unacceptable. This is a clear challenge to the Sudan and the infringement of its sovereignty. Previously, Igart announced Sudan conflict.

At the same time, on Tuesday morning, intermittent gunfire appeared in southwest of the Sudan capital, and the Sudan army accused the quickly supporting troops of violation of the 72 -hour ceasefire agreement started in the morning the day before yesterday.

In a statement, the Igart organization stated that foreign ministers consisting of Djibouti, South Sudan, Kenya and Ethiopia agreed to take a gradual way to resolve the Sudan conflict.

This method gives priority to the main issues of the conflict between the conflict.

The Igart organization was published, and the ministers agreed to cooperate closely with the Sudan and related parties to ensure that the Sudan play a leading role in the peace process.

However, a source of the Sudan government believes that the statement of the Igate Quartet mechanism is unacceptable, which is a clear challenge to Sudan and an infringement of its sovereignty.

The same sources also believe that Kenya's political process means that groups from other Africa will control the efforts of the Sudan crisis.

International Warning and Follow

On the other hand, the UN Secretary -General Antonio Gutres warned at the closing ceremony of the Sudan issue in Geneva on Monday in Geneva, warning that "Sudan is drowning in death and destruction at an unprecedented speed."

Antonio Gutres also expressed concern about the target of humanitarian workers to become the target of attacks. He called on conflicts to protect civilians and provide convenience for the work of humanitarian organizations.

During the meeting, the donor promised to provide about $ 1.5 billion to alleviate the humanitarian crisis of neighboring countries that ease Sudan and the refugees who escaped from fighting.

This amount only accounts for half of the total number of humanitarian agencies in a humanitarian agency, that is, more than half of the total population of a country that survives, that is, more than half of the population rely on humanitarian assistance.

The third month of the war ... What extent to the Sudan situation develops

Violation of the armistice agreement and evacuation wounded

Regarding the real local information, the Sudan military stated in a statement that the rapid support for the army violated the armistice agreement and attacked the "Tavila" area in the northern Dalfur state in the west of the country, causing 7 citizens in the region to die, and there were other people. Many people were injured and forced them to escape to the military headquarters.

According to the Sudan military statement, the support forces have implemented the "serious violations" of citizens in the area within two days, including killing 15 people and injured dozens of non -incoming civilians. In addition , And make hundreds of citizens in the area displaced.

Against the relevant background, the Sudan Ministry of Foreign Affairs accused the army of rapid support for the rapid support of the residence of the embassy and the Ambassador of Zimbabwe in Khatoo Moo. The allegations, the fast support forces did not comment immediately.

On the other hand, the Red Cross International Committee stated that at the request of the Sudan Army and the Khatoumu rapid support forces, it canceled the operation of transferring the injured soldiers to the hospital. A gunshot occurred near the front line.

The Red Cross International Committee confirmed in a statement that although both parties provided security guarantees, the incident still occurred.

On the other hand, the Sudan military denied allegations that he hindered some wounded evacuation, claiming that the Cross International Committee delegation did not reach the designated evacuation point and followed the so -called hindering this process.

The rapid support forces have stated that an injured Sudan soldiers accompanied by the Red Cross International Committee sent the fleet after medical treatment and was attacked by the Sudan army.

On the other hand, Minne Alco Monovovova, the governor and head of the Sudan Liberation Army Movement in the Darfur area, said that the war has shifted to an important area, and the situation in the war caused the outbreak of the situation in most regions of the region.

In a video editing posted on its Facebook page, the Sudan Liberation Army added that Moniva added that it may lead to a civil war similar to Rwanda for and assassinated political leaders and civil affairs authorities.

On the other hand, Muhammad Hamdan Dacro(Hermei)In a statement published on his Facebook page, he expressed his confidence in eased the situation. He called it "corrupt military government". Continue to rule and control behind the scenes. "

In the statement, General Mohammed Idoris Daibi, chairman of the Charius Council of the World Council, thanked Sudan refugees.

In the latest "Asia Want to Talk" program in this station, some experts interpreted this phenomenon that Xi Jinping was displayed, and Brinken opened the way to break through the U.S. -China deadlock.

Brinken ended his visit to Huamei and China Agreement "Stable Relationship" * Xi Jinping's last time to meet with Brinden's significance of Sino -US relations

Blindken is the highest -level official of China since 2018. Chinese leader Xi Jinping met with Blint on the 19th. The White House believed that this was a good step for US -China relations. In this regard, the show guests of this station's "Asia Want to Talk" pointed out that China has a greasy arrangement for the "Followers" arrangement.

International experts Wang Hao pointed out that the two parties announced the above meeting one hour before the meeting, and the meeting was only 35 minutes. Xi Jinping was sitting in the middle of the meeting table, like the chairman of the meeting, the manager of the subordinate department on both sides, reporting to the chairman, listening to the instructions.

International Expert Wang Hao (Screenshot of the Program/Radio Free Asia)
Not in line with international etiquette ** Wang Hao: There are humiliated mesagants of the form

Wang Hao said: "This is the form of the emperor of the heavenly dynasty in the past. It is not the practice of modern international relations at all. It is not in line with the etiquette of modern international relations. It will cause unexpected consequences to support the US Congress support Blint and Bayen government to further improve US -China relations. "

On Personal Facebook, on June 14, 2018, Xi Jinping and the then Trump administration's Secretary of State Pompeo were adjacent to the pair of seats and wrote "there is no more harmless". Netizens wrote a message: "Listen to training", "This is the intention of China", "You have lost the country", "Chinese people eat hard and not eat soft".

Wang Hao Facebook screenshot Huang Jiezheng, an associate professor of the Institute of International Affairs and Strategy of Taiwan Tamkang University, who participated in the show, also believed: "If there is no before it comes to discuss with the United States, it will be arranged so directly, so that the United States has no way to return and not participate. This is a domineering. However, the United States negotiated without results, and finally accepted. This is the second possibility. In short, there is a score in mainland China to give Americans and the world. After Bollingak returned to Huafu, the Republican Party, especially the Republican Eagle School, Interpretation or pressurization to the White House? This is a difficult game that he may face very difficult. "

Return to teeth? Huang Jiezheng: Trump has also settled Liu He

Huang Jiezheng mentioned that in February 2019, when the US President Trump met with Liu He, the Vice Premier of the State Council of the Chinese State in the White House, he also sat behind the desk and asked Liu He and then the then Secretary of State Pompeo to sit around the table and sat around the table. Essence

Huang Jiezheng said: "The attitude of the Chinese mainland is relatively high, is this good for China? Is the United States doing this for the primary election of the president who will start next year, or in order to play other diplomatic challenges? The economy has not spoke or answered the phone, is not positive. Will the United States take the initiative to be effective this time? Basin basically risked to continue observing. "

Huang Jiezheng believes that the Chinese side should be shot down with the current American survey of the air balloon in China in February. In addition, the recent Chinese warships and military aircraft are close to the U.S. military, and Li Shangfu has not been taken over by the Chinese defense. Very stiff.

Huang Jiezheng, associate professor of the Institute of International Affairs and Strategy of Tamkang University in Taiwan (screenshot of the show/Radio Free Asia)

Huang Jiezheng: Even if you meet, even the pioneer of the road

Huang Jiezheng evaluated Brinken's trip at least at least a window, and it also indicates that there will be high -level interviews: "If the aircraft has fallen at a low standard, the aircraft landed at Beijing Capital Airport. Meet it. The remaining percentage, including Xi Jinping, see it. It seems that he is a pioneer in the road. How can you look at the two parties later? Does the US Department of Commerce and the US trade representatives continue to visit? Of course, suspense is national defense. information."

Wang Hao observed that the US -China relations have fallen from Nixon to the lowest to 50 years from Nixon's visit to China. The United States has regarded the establishment of the US -China military dialogue mechanism as the primary task in Brinkee's visit. Brinken admits that it has repeatedly rejected. Before the meeting and after the meeting, the two parties did not show high -profile celebrations to the results of the talks.

On the issue of Taiwan, Wang Hao believes that the two sides still say each other. Blingken repeated the "one-China policy", emphasizing the internationalization of Taiwan's issue, the role of Taiwan in the international industrial chain, and the important position of Taiwan in international trade. The former Prime Minister Abe proposed that there was something in Taiwan in Japan. It is the world that the Bayeng government has expanded to Taiwan. This concept has been accepted by the seven major industrial countries (G7) and NATO meeting.

Scholars' teachings should check the content of the US -China talks from the United States

Huang Jiezheng pointed out that the United States will not be concessions in principle in Taiwan, but Taiwan should ask the United States Briefing to explain what the United States and China talked: "How deep does the Taiwan issue talk about when improving the relationship with Beijing? Requirements and new claims? The government must check with Americans. This question itself is an attitude, indicating that we attach great importance to it, and we must let the United States know what Taiwan should worry about. "

In this regard, Liu Yongjian, a spokesman for the Taiwan Foreign Ministry, said that the United States and Taiwan have good mutual trust and communication channels to unblocked. For the situation of the interaction between the United States and the middle, Meitai has always been closely linked. Blingken's visit reiterated that the United States and more and more countries have jointly concerned about China's provocative behavior in the Taiwan Strait, emphasizing the importance of maintaining the peace and stability of the Taiwan Strait, and pointed out that 50% of the world's freight is made through the Taiwan Strait and 70% of advanced chips in Taiwan. The Taiwan Strait crisis There will be huge economic consequences in the world. For the United States repeatedly publicly emphasized the strong position of supporting the peace and stability of the Taiwan Strait, Taiwan expressed welcome and affirmation.

(Voice of Germany), German Prime Minister Shulz, accompanied by the visiting Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang, inspected the Federal Defense Army's honor guards, and the German and Chinese government opened on Tuesday (June 20). A total of more than 20 ministerial officials participated in the government consultation with the theme "Common Active Action". The core topic discussed by the two parties was how to cope with climate change and the economic transformation related to it. Other issues also include Germany's economic and trade relations and the war of aggression launched by Russia to Ukraine. Unlike Germany and other Western countries, China refuses to condemn the aggression war launched by Russia, but calls on Russia and Ukraine to negotiate.

Shawrtz and Li Qiang jointly review the honor guards of the Three Army

The Federal German Government will regularly conduct government consultations with countries that have important economic or strategic significance to Germany. In the past few months, the German Red, yellow and green co -government has conducted government consultations with Spain, the Netherlands, Japan and India. It is generally believed that this consultation with the Chinese government will be the most suspenseful and difficult government consultation to date. On Monday evening, Shulz set up a banquet at the German Prime Minister's palace to welcome Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang to visit. The German Ministry of Finance issued a push that the Minister of Finance of the Liberal Democratic Party conducted a "constructive" talks with the Chinese Minister of Finance Liu Kun. International order.

According to sources from the Ministry of Health of Germany, the Minister of Health Social Democratic Party and the deputy director of the China Health and Health Commission Cao Xuetao "exchanged views on the core issues in the field of health care".

German Foreign Minister Berbak communicated with Chinese Foreign Minister Qin Gang. Bell Berk later tweeted, "We look at the world different vision, but this does not prevent us from seeking communication with China, finding our common points and differences, and the content involves economic cooperation, human rights, and the Russian and Ukraine War." She Said that for this government consultation, the two sides have carried out a weeks of positive preparations.

Bell Berk: Different views are not hindered to communicate.

Rolfmützenich, chairman of the Communist Party Parliament Party, said in the German -Chinese government's consultation that Germany should not take a confrontation, but it should be clearly stated where the boundaries are. In an interview with the German Radio, Mingtenich said that for a period of time, the German government has realized that verbal quarrels have not achieved any results, involving climate protection and arms control, and only discussions have played a role. When talking about the Taiwan issue, Mingzei said that we should encourage the Chinese government to maintain a negotiated attitude, and it should also make China realize that the state of tension continues to be upgraded will cause great losses. The German side should also clearly tell China that the martial arts of Taiwan are violating the UN Charter.

Lot, the Chairman of the Federal House of Foreign Affairs Committee, told the "Morning Magazine" of Germany and Guanglian that in government consultations, Germany must make a clear statement. "China has become increasingly autocratic to the internal, and the suppression of ethnic minorities is becoming more serious. The outside world is becoming more and more aggressive, such as threats to Taiwan. In addition, China is still the closest ally in Russia. In view of this, Germany must show a confident attitude, of course, it is not a state of confrontation. "

Lot, chairman of the Federal House Foreign Affairs Committee: There is no need to adopt a confrontation, but must be confident.

Since the final face -to -face talks in 2018, During the entire epidemic period, the German -Chinese government consultation has been conducted in a video connection, and during this period, bilateral relations have also significantly cooled Essence China 's restrictions on the freedom of the people, the suppression of ethnic minorities, the threat of the force issued by Taiwan, and the expansion of the great power in the Indo -Pacific region have made Berlin extremely disturbed.

The war -invading war launched by Russia also made the German government's pain and determined to reduce its economic dependence on China. However, despite this, China is still the most important trading partner in Germany, and Germany is also the most important trading partner in China in the European Union.

U.S. media: The U.S. government is worried that China will conduct military and intelligence activities at its "door" (the picture shows the US Embassy in Havana)

(Voice of Germany Chinese Network) The Wall Street Journal reported on June 20 that reports from the American intelligence department showed that the negotiations on the construction of a joint military facility in the coast of northern Cuba have entered the later stage, but it has not yet been not yet. end. It is reported that the Biden government has contacted Cuban officials to try to prevent the agreement between Cuba and China. But the White House refused to comment on this.

The Wall Street Journal quotes the current and former officials of the United States, which is not known as that such a new military facility may provide a platform for China, potentially possibly permanently stationed in Cuba, and expand intelligence collection capabilities, including electronic eavesdropping.

The report quoted a current and former official in the United States that the most worrying thing for the United States was that the planned facility was part of the "141 project" in China. And logistics support network.

A former American official told the newspaper that other "141 projects" project also included a naval stronghold in China in Cambodia, and a military facility that was not known to the outside world in a UAE. It is reported that the Djibati military base in Africa also has intelligence collection capabilities.

It is reported that some American intelligence officials said that Beijing's actions in Cuba were regarded as a geopolitical response to the United States' relations with Taiwan. The United States has given great investment in military and training in military and training. The Wall Street Journal has previously reported that more than 100 soldiers in Taiwan have provided training for their national defense forces in Taiwan. Taiwan is about 100 miles from mainland China, which is equivalent to Cuba and Florida.

The Wall Street Journal cited unnamed U.S. officials on June 9 that China and Cuba plans to establish a spy base in Cuba. Since then, The New York Times "on June 12 quoted the unnamed Bayeng government officials, saying that since the upgrade in 2019 (or before it), a spy base in Cuba has been able to intercept nearby US military and commercial facilities nearby nearby US military and commercial facilities. # For the first time, the human embryo model was used to cause regulatory voices

Description: (Agence France -Presse, Paris, 20th) Scientists use stem cells to create a structure similar to human embryos in the laboratory for the first time. Experts said that this research field should be prudent.

Many laboratories around the world have published pre -print books describing their research work in the past 7 days, but the content has not yet been reviewed by peers.

These laboratories use different technologies to promote human embryonic stem cells to form a structure similar to embryo. During the process, no sperm, eggs or fertilization are required. Embryo stem cells can develop into any type of cells.

The purpose of this is to provide a model for scientists to study human embryos. It is hoped to have new opinions on the causes of birth defects, genetic diseases, infertility, and other problems during pregnancy. Based on ethical issues, such research has restricted past restrictions.

The first research content was announced on the 14th. At the annual meeting of the International Society for Stem Cell Research, a scholar at the University of Cambridge and California University, describes her team's work at the International Society for STEM CELL Research. The report was first reported by the British "The Guardian".

The Jacobhanna team of the Weizmann Institute of Science published a pre - printed book on the 15th to introduce their work in detail to use stem cells to cultivate human embryo models.

The Zenica Gauz team subsequently published a pre-print book to provide more information. Chinese and other laboratories in China have also followed up, and they released pre -print books later last week.

Researchers refuted media reports that called these cells as "synthetic embryos", saying that they grew out of stem cells. Strictly speaking, they were not synthetic cells or should not be regarded as embryos.

Both Tenica Gosz and Hana said that they have developed an embryo model for 14 days. This is the legal number of days that many countries stipulated in laboratories to conduct human embryo experiments.

14 days later, the embryo began to tissue cells to form organs including the brain. This period was called "black box" because people knew less than 14 days of human embryo.

Cambridge University announced on the 16th that the project has been launched to formulate the first management structure for British stem cell human embryo model.

Related researchers emphasized that they will not put the embryo model into the human uterus in the end, even if they are put in, they will not create a baby.

Jamesbriscoe, a Francis Crick Institute, called on researchers to perform experiments "carefully, cautious and transparently."

"The danger of doing so is that the wrong steps or unreasonable claims will have a chilling effect on the public and policy makers, which will be a major setback in this field."

U.S. Secretary of State Brills visited Beijing for two days to meet with Chinese President Xi Jinping and high -level diplomatic officials in China. The United States pointed out that Brinken has achieved the three major goals prepared before the trip, and it is expected that officials in the United States and China will visit each other in the next few months.

Daniel J. Kritenbrink, Assistant Secretary of State East Asia and Pacific Affairs, and Sarahberan, senior director of China and Taiwan Affairs of the White House National Security Council, passed the U.S. State Council's "U.S. Asiatic Media Hub) on the 20th. Lincoln visited an online briefing.

Kangda said that Brinken has three goals, including restarting the communication channels of bilateral senior officials to control US -China relations in a responsible manner. Potential cooperation areas.

Kangda pointed out that the United States believes that Brinken has achieved all goals, and his frank and constructive meeting with China has made actual contributions to the above goals. He said that this is only the first step.

Washington will continue to work in these issues to control the competition in the United States and China in a responsible manner.

Kangda said that the two sides are welcome to strengthen the exchange of students, scholars and corporate exchanges, including the number of direct flights between the two countries, and also agreed to let senior officials communicate in Washington and Beijing to maintain open communication channels.

Kangda mentioned that Brinken invited Qin Gang to visit Washington for continuous discussion. He said: "We are very grateful to the State Councilor Qin Gang have accepted the invitation, and the two sides agreed to visit each other at the same time."

Berlan said that US -China officials are expected to visit each other in the next few months, including US Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen, climate special envoy Johnkerry, and the United States to participate in the Asia - Pacific Economic Cooperation Conference (APEC) Chinese officials at the meeting.

In response to the differences between the two sides, Kangda said that Brinkens mentioned many concerns of the United States to China, including being imprisoned by China, international trafficking of American citizens, synthetic opium drugs, Chinese non -market economies, and human rights violations in Xinjiang, Tibet and Hong Kong. Act, etc.

In terms of the Taiwan Strait, Kangda said that the two parties discussed extensively on this issue. Blintan reiterated that the United States has not changed based on the Taiwan Relations Law, the United States and China

Three Public News and six guarantees. The United States continues to persist on cross -strait differences and resolves peacefully.

Faced with media inquiries why China still refuses to restart military communication channels, Berlan said that Brincken mentioned the matter to the Chinese side many times in the meeting, emphasizing that this is the control of the two sides to control competition, the crisis communication, avoid poor communication or misunderstand each other's intentions. pipeline.

Berlan said that the United States has always had a willingness to meet, and Minister of Defense Lloyd Austin had previously proposed to hold a court meeting with Chinese Defense Director Li Shangfu in the "Shangri -La dialogue" in Singapore.

She emphasized that officials at all levels of Washington still have a willingness to meet and call on Beijing to respond in a timely manner.

China State Council announced on Tuesday that it will restore Taiwan's Shakya (also known as Fan Litchi) input from now on. Some Taiwan legislators criticize that China is selective release, and the purpose is to differentiate Taiwanese society.

What is the meaning of trade barriers to Taiwan business products? *

Mainland banned Taiwan Fan Litchi Lotus Fog Kaohsiung Mayor to protest to suppress

In September 20, 2021, in the detection of seg by detection of seg from detection, it did not meet international norms. The Taiwan government requires scientific and technical dialogue with China through the "Cross - Strait Agricultural Products Quarantine Inspection and Cooperation Agreement" platform to resume trade, but China does not respond.

After the Kuomintang in Taiwan led a delegation to China to participate in the Straits Forum, the China State Council announced on the 20th that the General Administration of Customs decided to restore Taiwan's Shakya input from June 20, but "must come from the registered packaging factory and orchard" Essence

The Taiwan Agricultural Committee stated on the same day that he was happy to see the restoration of pineapple and Shakya input in mainland China. At present, the platform of the "Agricultural Quarantine Inspection Agreement on Cross - Straits" has not yet received the Chinese notice to re - entered pineapple, Shakya, and not provided registration conditions for registration. Essence There are a total of 1009 orchards and 50 packaging factories in Taiwan's pineapple and Shakya industry. Currently, only 25 in the orchards, 3 packaging factories, and 14 farmers in Taitung have obtained permission. The Agricultural Committee called on China to communicate the quarantine specifications of the business under this platform, so that all packaging factories and orchards can be followed.

The Kuomintang issued a press release on June 20 to return this vice chairman of the Kuomintang, Xia Liyan, to communicate in China several times last August and strive to get a response. A spokesman for the Kuomintang Literature Conference Lin Jiaxing told Liberty Radio: "Vice Chairman Xia Liyan and Taitung Rao Qingling County Magistrate this trip delivered a speech at the Straits Forum Conference. One of the main purpose was to continue to reflect the voices of Taiwan's farmers and fishermen. Development, allowing mainland consumers to experience the beauty of high -quality agricultural products in Taiwan, and also allows the positive benefits of cross -strait exchanges to be inclusive more Taiwanese people and truly achieve cross -strait double -win. "

Kuomintang Chairman Zhu Lilun also stated on his personal Facebook, "The Kuomintang Gu Minsheng, successfully fighting for the sale of Shakya, the United States and the Democratic Progressive Party created against evil." Zhu Lilun emphasized that after 638 days of efforts of Taitung County Mayor Rao Qingling , Pineapple and Shakya re -closed. Xia Liyan led a group to Xiamen to participate in the Straits Forum. During his speech, he fought with the Beijing authorities to fight for the rights and interests of Taiwanese farmers, fishermen, and Taiwanese businessmen. "Peace and Taiwan", but criticized the participants of the "Straits Forum", let alone solve the export dilemma of Taiwan's agricultural and fisheries products.

The Taiwan media "Zhongshi" quoted agricultural experts that China was accepting the management system proposed by the Taitung County Government, rather than the Agricultural Commission's export -export supply park system. The Agricultural Committee was completely "overhead".

Democratic Progressive Party legislators: Agricultural products should be colleagues

In response, Liu Shifang, a DPP legislator in Taiwan, accepted an interview with Radio Free Asia and criticized the China to selectively release part of the dividends. Not all pineapples and Shakya were released. Liu Shifang pointed out that agricultural products should not be distinguished by blue and green, and should be treated equally. The Chinese side only releases some agricultural products such as Taitung County, which is governed by the Kuomintang.

Liu Shifang said: "Chinese intends to create only those who recognize the" 1992 Consensus "can you go to mainland China. This is not a truly free trade and equal way. Of course, it will affect Taiwan's election and Taiwan.

Speaking and media, this is political release agricultural products. Because Taitung County Mayor and Xia Liyan went to China to participate in the Straits Forum together. If the Kuomintang has a bad election, China will handle this method. "

Liu Shifang emphasized that the government advocates equal trade, using good platforms and business to do business on the other side. It is purely considering the quality and safety of agricultural products, and the standards should be consistent.

The Taiwan Agricultural Committee also said that it will assist farmers to expand export markets such as Hong Kong, South Korea, Thailand, Canada, and Japan. In the past, Taiwan's agricultural products rely on the Chinese market. In 2018, China accounted for 23.2% of the amount of China, and in 2022, it has fallen to 12.9%. Amount.

Taiwan Fruit Lotus Fog (Associated Press data map) The mainland committees of Taiwan's in charge of cross -strait affairs pointed out that China has differentiated and united fronts with economic interests. This old political operation method only allows people across the Taiwan Strait to gradually move away and call on China to stop political operations on cross -strait agricultural trade.

Huzhong, the director of Nong and Food in Taiwan, has always stated that he is happy to see China agree to restore Taiwan's Sakyama input, but now it is not Shakyama without Shakya and can lose to China, but I hope that China will let Taiwan pineapple and lotus fog as soon as possible as soon as possible. Wait for agricultural products to lift the ban.

There are 5 people named "TITAN" lost submarines

(Voice of Germany Chinese) The private company operating the Titanic shipwreck submarine tour project on Monday (June 19) said that a small submarine disappeared in the waters near the coast of the southeast of Canada.

The private company called "Oceangateexpence" released a brief statement saying that it has lost contact with relevant submarines and is currently "mobilizing all options" to rescue the missing persons.

The United States Coast Guard stated that it was searching for the disappeared submersible in the Atlantic Ocean under the wreckage near the Titanic shipwreck.

"The C-130 search and rescue team of the United States Coast Guard is looking for an overdue Canadian expedition submarine in the area where Capecod is about 900 nautical miles." Performance Canada aircraft are also assisting in search and rescue work.

Related announcements show that the 21 -foot submersible from the Canadian "Prince Prince" scientific test ship contains 5 people in the water. It lost contact after sinking into the water for 1 hour and 45 minutes on Sunday morning.

"We sincerely thank some government agencies and deep -sea companies to assist in the reconstruction of the submersible." The operator's statement of "Ocean Gate Adventure" was written by a statement.

There are 5 people with lost submarines, including British billionaire and explorer Hamish Harding (Hamish Harding)

"Search and Rescue is a challenge"

U.S. Coast Guard Commander, Major General John John Moger(John Mauger)It is said that more search and rescue resources will arrive in the next few days.

Mogg pointed out: "The disappearance area is a remote area, where search and rescue is a challenge. But we are using all existing resources to ensure that the position of the submersible can be found and rescued the trapped person."

Davidconcannon, a consultant to the "Marine Gate Adventure" company, said that time starts at 6 am on Sunday, the remaining oxygen on the submarine can still support 96 hours. He also added that the relevant departments are trying to dispatch a remote control diving vehicle that can reach the depth of 6,000 meters under the water to reach the disappeared place as soon as possible.

Valled submarine journey

According to the information provided by the operating company, the lost submersible is called "Titan", which can accommodate 5 people -including a captain, a Titanic shipwreck expert, and three customers who usually pay. The tour of this Titanic shipwreck has continued for several days, and the cost is about $ 250,000 per person.

The "Marine Gate Adventure" company will also be equipped with archeologists and other experts to observe the corrosion process of the wreckage of the shipwreck.

Billionaires in the UK are also in the submarine

Hamish Harding, a wealthy British businessman and an explorer who settled in the UAE, posted on social media on Sunday and shared his photos of his submarine.

"I was very proud to announce that I participated in the RMS Titanic detection operation (from the gate of the Marine Gate Adventure Company), which will be used as a task expert to carry a submarine to dive to the Titanic."

The Action Aviation, a company of Harding, also confirmed that others are indeed on the submarine.

Harbing, who is rich in the business aviation business of the Gulf area, is also an enthusiastic enthusiast of deep-sea adventure. He once selected the Guinness World Records three times, twice because of the longest distance of driving under the depth of the ocean and the longest time to stay at the depth of the entire ocean.

In 2021, he and VICTOR VESCOVO took a double submarine and sneaked into the deepest part of the Mariana Trench in the West Pacific - ChallengerDeep, where the world is the deepest in the world-sea 11000 meters under the plane. In contrast, the highest altitude of Mount Everest on the earth is about 8848 meters.

The famous Titanic was built by the UK, new benchmark was regarded as a luxury cruise ship at the time, But the Virgin Airlines who drove to the United States in 1912 hit the iceberg halfway, and then sank.

The story of the Titanic is written by many authors into documentary and novel literary works, and the film of the same name also appeared on the big screen in 1997.

A senior person at the South Korean military revealed on Tuesday (June 20) that the military's internal internal establishment was basically established to counter the North Korean drone attack.

The Yonhap News Agency reported that senior officials from South Korean military said that if North Korea dispatched a drone over Seoul, the military will dispatch a 10 -fold drone to Pyongyang and circulate demonstrations on the core target.

It is reported that the South Korean military has fully reserved the drone required for the remote reconnaissance and combat tasks, and plans to equip them with 100 small drones that cover the entire territory of North Korea before the end of this month.

In addition, the military also plans to develop a small stealth drone by the end of this year. Senior military sources said that if North Korea initiates drones again, South Korea will show the determination to invest in multiple drones at any time for countermeasures.

In addition, the South Korean military also plans to establish the "UAV Battle Command" to perform anti -North Korean aircraft combat missions in September.

The government held a state -of -state meeting on Tuesday and passed the "Proposal on the Development of the Drone Combat Command", which began to solicit public opinion in April this year. According to this proposal, the Command will perform tasks such as monitoring, reconnaissance, strikes, heart warfare, electronic warfare at the level of combat level, and responsible for enhancing the work of drone combat capabilities.

Agence France -Presse reported that the case of the SUPERIOR ELECTORAL TRIBUNAL (TSE) trial was derived from a meeting with foreign diplomats at the meeting with foreign diplomats at the meeting in July 2022. A series of allegations that have no facts prove. At that time, he was running for re-election, but eventually failed to step down.

Seven judges of the Court of Higher Election Court will begin a judgment on Posonalo's charges of abuse of power and abuse of national media. At that time, he held that meeting at the Chenxi Palace of the President's residence in Brazil. There were representatives from the European Union, France, Spain, and other countries. They were broadcast live by public television.

Insiders said that the court would definitely make a 68 -year -old Posonaro conviction. Posonalo lost to the senior left presidential candidate Luiz Inacio Lula DaSilva in the October 2022 election, and now he may lose his right to participate in the next presidential election in 2026.

A source of a judicial community told AFP: "How many question marks are (how many judges) will decide to convict him."

If the court convicts Posonalo, it may cause the split power of the Rights of Brazil. Right is still a powerful force in Brazil's politics, and conservative forces currently occupy a dominant position in Congress.

If Posonalo, known as "Trump" in the 2026 election, has no obvious heir.

St. Paul's Business, Law and Engineering Higher Education Institutions (Insper) political analysts Leandroconsntino said Bosonaro may use conviction to shape himself into a "martyr".

He said: "Posonalo will try to maintain his hard -line site by trying to depict himself as a victim of political persecution."

"No matter who becomes a candidate (right), he (Posonalo) will be an important asset to attract votes."

competition upgrades in the United States and China and the increasingly stricter measures for the US -China chip exports, China's underground chip market has recently been exposed by the media. So, how do these chips flow into China? What is the use of China?

chip war upgrade the Netherlands to ban Chinese students taking semiconductor courses * U.S. will extend the export of export control of Korean and Taiwan chip manufacturers

Reuters disclosed this Tuesday that the Chinese people can purchase the top chip of American production in the Shenzhen Huaqiangbei Electronics Area. Although the related chips are not displayed on the shelves, customers can buy it after asking the store. These chips are not expensive. Some stores have anonymously told Reuters that a small number of high -end Nvidia A100 artificial intelligence chips they provide are priced at $ 20,000, which is twice that of normal prices.

After the ban on the US chip ban, China 's high -end chip supply is in short supply

Although it is not illegal to sell American -produced chips in China, since the United States has implemented chip export controls on China, the Chinese black market has also emerged. Therefore, electronics industry hopes to maintain a low -key and avoid the attention of these chip business to the United States and relevant Chinese departments.

Since September last year, the U.S. government has banned artificial intelligence technology company leading Nvidia exported to China and Hong Kong's exports of A100 and H100, the two most advanced chips. Under the competition of science and technology, political and trade competition in the United States and China, this move has limited the development of Chinese science and technology. However, with the rapid growth of global artificial intelligence and the rapid growth of related chips, Nvidia is regarded by countries as the most advanced chip in the field of artificial intelligence machine learning.

The above -mentioned merchants who sold American chips in the underground market in China said they purchased these chips at the United States at a price of $ 19,150, and they were told when they purchased that these chips did not provide after -sales service. Reuters asked 10 electronic product suppliers in China and Hong Kong to inquire and found that each manufacturer could provide a small amount of A100 chips, which shows that China has a strong demand for high -end chips in the United States, while related chip sanctions measures in the United States It can be avoided.

The above -mentioned merchants also pointed out that Chinese customers who purchase chips from them include application software developers, startups, researchers, gamers, and even local governments. Reuters said that it is impossible to estimate how many A100 and H100 chips have flowed into China in total, and it is impossible to determine how many purchase demand has been met.

Chinese technology companies highly rely on American chips

Regarding the situation of the underground market in China, Nvidia told Reuters that according to US law, Nvidia cannot export A100 or H100 chips to China, but can only sell lower -order products. If the company finds a customer's illegal export chip, Nvidia will immediately take corresponding treatment measures.

At the same time, the US Department of Commerce also stated that the export ban has greatly limited the ability of China to obtain high -end US chips, and the US government is not surprised to the incident of illegally obtaining American chips in Chinese merchants. investigation.

In order to cope with the impact of the export ban on production and operation, Nvidia launched a lower effective A800 and H800 chips for the Chinese market last year. Chinese technology companies currently depend on the import of these chips, including Alibaba and Tencent, leading technology leading companies.

The "European Economic Security Strategy" file is scheduled to be released on the 20th. The EUROPEAN Commission's official website screenshot of the European Commission plans to propose some measures this year to solve the security risks brought by overseas investment, and strengthen export control of civilian and military products to ensure that the EU's new technologies will not flow into China and other countries. "Reuters" is scheduled to be released on the 20th "European Economic SecurityStrategy" file, which explains how the EU makes its economy more tough and identifies the risks of new emergence. The proposal of this strategy marks the beginning of the committee to persuade EU countries. At the EU Leaders' Summit held in Brussels from July 29th to 30th, it supported its proposal before debate with China. However, countries will be reluctant to give up the power to grant export licenses and weigh the security interests. The document pointed out that some exports and investment may leak a small part of "a small part of a military significance" to foreign enemies, such as quantum computing, artificial intelligence, 6G, biotechnology and robotics. Although this document does not name China, it emphasizes that the EU should cooperate with countries with common concern and use the term "de-risk". (Responsible editor: ( : )

Eason Chan became popular because of singing Lin Xi's song

(Voice of Germany Chinese), "King of K Songs", "Ren Me", "Want to Cry", "When the Earth has no flowers", "Ten Years", "Can't Drive", "Love Transfer", " You listen to me "...-- What are the common points of these popular songs of Hong Kong singer Eason Chan?

That's right. They are all old songs that are not unfamiliar, and they have been popular in Cantonese and Mandarin. They also come from the same role of the same lyricist. There are more than 3,800 songs, countless awards, and the reputation of words. His name is Lin Xi.

Almost all singers in Hong Kong singing have sang Lin Xi's songs. Eason Chan, who once became popular because of singing Lin Xi's song, said, "Without Lin Xi, there is no me." However, on the performance of the "Eason Chan FEARAND DREAMS Tour Concert-Guangzhou Station" on June 12, the official website of the Guangzhou Cultural Radio, Film and Television Tourism Bureau on June 12, on the performance list of the reporting information for the review and declaration of the report. Waiting for the names of other lyricists in Hong Kong and Taiwan. Lin Xi's name disappeared.

Related documents are rumored on social media such as Weibo, which has aroused heated discussion among netizens and public opinion at home and abroad. On June 15, the official website of the Guangzhou Culture, Radio, Television Tourism Bureau deleted the above performance list, leaving only the basic report of Eason Chan's concert. On June 18th, "Guangzhou Xinhui Culture Development Co., Ltd. apologized on the official Weibo statement as the organizer of Guangzhou, announcing that he was applying for the cancellation of the" cultural approval ", and said that" the operation was not rigorous, major mistakes occurred "" , "Express the authors of the songs sincerely", "sincerely apologize to the song copyright company", but the full text does not mention Lin Xi's name. On June 19, the official website of the Guangzhou authorities completely removed the entire approval. On the same day, Gan Jingjing, manager of Eason Chan, told the media, "If there is an error on the approval document, it cannot be allowed. We have terminated cooperation with the organizer immediately." It is reported that "Guangzhou Xinhui Culture" belongs to only one of the hosts. The unit is only affected by the document procedures. The concert of Eason Chan Guangzhou Station will still be held as scheduled.

Support the Hong Kong War Movement

Lin Xi's original name Liang Weiteng, born in Hong Kong on December 7, 1961, is a veteran of the Hong Kong music scene. He has won the lyricist award of the lyricist of the music scene in a dozen times. Radio Hong Kong's "Top Ten Chinese Golden Melody Awards Concert" "Golden Needle Award" and other awards.

In 2014, a series of citizenship citizens fighting for the true universal election occurred in Hong Kong, commonly known as "Umbrella Movement". Lin Xi and the lyricist Pan wrote lyrics for the theme song of the Hong Kong Umbrella Movement "Support the Umbrella". The lyrics wrote, "Sitting on the sea, you, I am not afraid to be afraid of what to do like this, but in this night, I am more afraid of shouting in the heart." Tonight, you and I have a calm face to face the worry if you miss this night and you are afraid that you will not have the opportunity to shout at will again. "

In 2014, the "Umbrella Movement" that strives to fight in Hong Kong

When all the demands of the demonstrators were rejected by the authorities, Lin Xi voted with his feet and began to return to Hong Kong and Taiwan, and gradually lived in Taiwan. In 2019, Lin Xi repeatedly publicized the "Removal Middle" campaign in Hong Kong, and collaborated with the Taiwan Orchestra's "Fire Except" song "Double City", which reflects the voice of the protesters in the movement. In 2020, Lin Xi rewriten his "agreement" that he wrote his lyrics as a singer Faye Wong, and presented to the former chairman of the "Hong Kong State" Luo Guancong Essence

As Lin Xi was blocked in China, Lin Xi was blocked in China, and many works were removed from the shelves. When many works he wrote in China were played in China, the lyricist became "anonymous". In August 2020, China CCTV published an article named Lin Xi, saying that "Hong Kong lyricist Lin Xi, who often opened the door of the Beijing Olympic Games, often opened the" My Gate Open ", and recently got it with 'Hong Kong Du". The article mentioned that in an interview, Lin Xi said that he was "glory" by the name of the music and being removed by the show in the mainland, and made a official mouthpiece for "Welcome to Beijing". Essence

After Hong Kong implemented the "National Security Law", Lin Xi obtained the National ID card of the Republic of China and officially settled in Taiwan. He said that he did not dare to return to Hong Kong and was worried about being persecuted, but he would continue to speak for Hong Kong and "pursue freedom."

There are more than 3,800 works in Lin Xi. Many songs are popular and loved by singers and fans. He was blocked by Beijing, which made Hong Kong and mainland artists encounter a common problem when singing his songs in the mainland. Eason Chan's Guangzhou concert show is just one of them. Most of the songs sung at a concert in Guangzhou in April this year in April this year were written by Lin Xi, but the song list only listed the song name, and the lyricist was left blank. After Eason Chan's Guangzhou concert was poorly tampered with as the storm of poet names, the relevant song list may also leave the lyricist to leave or do "anonymous".

Critics believe that if Hong Kong artists are allowed to change their names or remove their works in order to enter the mainland market, it is the "accomplice" that tampered with the facts and disguise themselves into a "accomplice" for those who are in power and creative freedom. Since 2014, mainland China has continued to block the entertainment industry through blocking artists, and has a particularly strict sealing order to artists holding different political claims.(Comprehensive report)

China's economic recovery is stagnant, and the government remedy measures are stretched

Description: The export atrophy, the sluggish property market, the unemployment rate, the high unemployment rate, the loss of consumers' confidence ... Under these problems, the Chinese economic recovery has not appeared. The government has taken some stimulus measures, but their effectiveness has been questioned. Qilai Shen for the New York Times China 's investment activities in China had a period of active in the end of last winter, and this spring was stagnant.

Images: "[00China-Econ-..."]

Category: 中国

Type: Article

In December last year, when China suddenly canceled the blockade and other epidemic prevention measures, officials and many investors in Beijing had expected the economy to recover.

But things are contrary to their wishes.

After a series of investment activities appeared in the end of winter, by this spring, China's investment has stagnated. Exit is shrinking. There are fewer and fewer newly started housing projects. The price is falling. More than one - fifth of young people were unemployed.

In the past few years, when the economy is unsightly, China has tried many remedial measures, such as paying roads and railway construction costs through a large number of loans. During the state, the country had a huge funding for testing and isolation. The use of borrowing for additional stimulus expenditure can stimulate the outbreak of economic activities, but this will be a difficult choice for policy makers who are worried about debt pressure.

"The authorities have the risk of lagging behind the situation in stimulating economic changes, but there is no rapid solution," said Lu Ziyi, an economist who studied Chinese issues in Singapore to study Chinese issues in Singapore.

In order to fight against the new crown virus, China is isolated from the world in the past three years. This decision has prompted many companies to start transferring the supply chain to other places. China now needs to adjust the economy. Chinese leader Xi Jinping Meet on Monday U.S. Secretary of State Brilings, the two countries tried to ease the tension of diplomatic tensions and paved the way for high -end economic talks in the next few weeks. Such discussions may slow down the increase in recent sanctions and countermeasures.

China's economic recovery is stagnant, and only a few types of expenditures such as tourism and catering have grown strongly. These numbers have increased compared with the extremely low level of the spring of 2022. At that time, the two -month blockade in Shanghai disrupted economic activities in central China.

There are fewer and fewer new residential projects in China. Qilai shen for the new york times

The economy is particularly weak in recent weeks.

"From April and May to the present, the economy has obviously unexpected changes, so that some people think that the original judgment may be too optimistic," said Yin Yanlin, former deputy director of the CCP's highest economic decision-making committee, in a speech at an academic conference on Saturday.

Chinese government officials have been hinted that the economic stimulus plan may soon be introduced.

advertise

Last Friday, after the meeting held by the Chinese State Council, the new Prime Minister Li Qiang said: "In response to changes in the economic situation, more powerful measures must be taken to enhance development momentum, optimize the economic structure, and promote the continuous rise of the economy."

The weak Chinese economy is also good for the global economy. Over the past four months, Chinese consumers and producers have fallen, which has suppressed Western inflation by lowering the cost of importing from China.

Tourism is one of the few categories of expenditures growing this year. Qilai shen for the new york times

But weak demand in China may also exacerbate the global economic slowdown. Earlier this year, Europe has been in a gentle recession Essence The rapid interest rate hike in the United States has prompted some investors to bet on the United States at the end of this year.

Beijing has taken some measures to regain the economy. Implement tax reduction and exemption policies for small and micro enterprises. Reduce bank deposit interest rates to encourage families to consume more instead of savings. The latest government measures were introduced on Tuesday. The state-controlled banking system reduced the benchmark interest rate of corporate loans and housing mortgage loans.

But many economists at home and abroad are worried about the effectiveness of new measures.

Consumers are unwilling to consume, and investors are cautious about investing in Chinese companies. Compared with 2022, private investment has actually declined so far this year. The real estate market is still in crisis. Developers borrow more funds to repay the existing debt and complete existing projects, although China has been plagued by excess housing supply.

Consumers have been cautious, partly because the real estate market as a source of wealth is unstable. Qilai shen for the new york times

The housing market is in the center of the troubles currently facing. The construction industry accounts for a quarter of the proportion of China's economy. However, due to the default of the developer's debt and failed to complete the apartment paid by the buyer, the potential buyers have dispelled the buying plan.

Compared with the same period last year, housing construction in the first five months of this year fell by nearly 23%. This shows that the real estate industry will further fall in the next few months.

advertise

The 27 -year -old Chen Leiqian (Yin) was engaged in marketing in Beijing. She started to find a house with her boyfriend who had been dating for five years in 2021. But then they decided to continue renting and living after marriage.

"That is, the nation's house prices are falling, and then the economy is not good, but there are too many factors that are unstable," Chen Leiqian said.

Chen Leiqian worked in an online counseling company and cracked down on China in 2021 [Promotional Private Education and Training Industry]](<https://cn.nytimes.com/business/20210730/china-education-tutors/>)Later, two -thirds of her colleagues in her department were fired. She also had a friend who could not afford a mortgage after unemployment in the technology industry, and lost the house due to redeemed.

When looking for an effective plan for a new round of economic stimulus, what may bring the biggest dilemma to policy makers is the cautious attitude of middle -class families like Chen Leiqian.

"You can sprinkle money to people, but if they don't have confidence, they will not spend money," said Elisia Garcia Elero, chief economist of the Asia-Pacific region of France.

The expenditure of dining in restaurants is growing, but on the other hand, the family strives to repay debts and avoid the purchase of commodities. Qilai shen for the new york times

It is not just family to work hard to repay debts, so is the local government, which limits their ability to increase infrastructure expenditure.advertise

The sluggish real estate industry has damaged domestic demand. However, since this year, exports have been flat, and in May, it has actually declined. China's exports have always been strong, and its weakness is particularly noteworthy, because since mid -January, Beijing has allowed RMB to depreciate about 7%against the US dollar. The devaluation of the renminbi has made Chinese export products more competitive in foreign markets.

More exports help create employment opportunities and may make up for the original weak domestic economy. However, it is unclear to how much China can rely on exports to help economic growth, as some of China's largest trading partners have transferred some purchases to other Asian countries.

In the United States, the Trump administration levies tariffs on a series of Chinese industrial products, making US companies buy products from China. Last year, President Biden persuaded Congress to approve extensive subsidies for American products such as electric vehicles and solar panels. Compared with May last year, China's exports to the United States fell 18.2%last month.

The United States has formulated subsidies for electric vehicle production to try to fight against China. Qilai shen for the new york times

Now, when considering how to boost the economy, it must cope with the loss of consumer confidence.

Charles Wang (Yin) runs a small tourist company with only eight employees in Zhangjiakou, northern China. After the epidemic, his business rebounded almost completely, but he had no plan to invest in expansion.

"Our economy is actually going down, and everyone does not have so much time and willingness to spend," Charles Wang said. "It's because everyone doesn't want to spend money anymore. Still, everyone is afraid, but rich people are also afraid."

U.S. Secretary of State Brills held a meeting with Chinese leader Xi Jinping on Monday. The United States and China are seeking the relationship between the two countries that ease the state of deep freezing. This state has aroused concerns about the increase in the risk of conflict between the two countries.

The 35 -minute meeting this time was the climax of Brinken's two -day visit to China. The signal released by the meeting is that at least for the present, the United States and China do not want the relationship between the two countries to be disclosed. Competition and diplomatic efforts have a huge interest relationship.

Blintken and Xi Jinping held a meeting in the magnificent Great Hall on the west side of Tiananmen Square. Xi Jinping often met with politicians here. His opening of the game was harmonious and praised the two sides to make progress on some unexplained issues during the visit of Brinken, saying "this is good."

As the leaders of the two largest economies in the world, President Xi Jinping and President Biden are facing increasing pressure from other countries, asking them to curb the increasingly intense stance of the two governments. The stance of the two countries on major issues is relative: Taiwan issue, Beijing calls this de facto independent island as its territory; China's continuous expansion of military influence; development of advanced technology; Russia's war in Ukraine, and human rights issues.

Many problems have troubled US -China relations for many years. However, as the Chinese military and economic strength increased, and Xi Jinping and his assistants believed that the United States was at the end of decline, the conflict around these problems became more acute. It is unclear whether high -level diplomacy can change the trajectory of the relationship between the two countries, but U.S. officials said that at least they hope that such talks can make the two sides see each other's intentions more clearly and avoid misjudgment.

Officials in Washington and Beijing acknowledged that it is necessary to prevent the sharp decline in relations between the two countries. But even when the two governments explored how to rebuild the relationship during the visits of Brinken, the two sides were trying to show that they would not compromise on the core issue.

In the opening of the meeting with Brinken, Xi Jinping implied China's dissatisfaction. He said: "The exchanges between the country should always be based on mutual respect and sincerity. Make more positive contributions."

Bollingak said later that he emphasized the needs of "direct participation and continuous communication" in all meetings. Washington has accused the Chinese government of deficiencies in this area. Broskens again on Monday for example: he said that he and assistants urged China to open the military communication channels in the talks -US officials believe that this is related to the crisis of waters and airspace around China. Important -but rejected.

Brinken also said that he also discussed other difficult topics: Ukrainian war, North Korea's nuclear plan, coercion economic policy, illegal detention of American citizens, and suppression in Xinjiang, Tibet and Hong Kong.

The State Council stated that Brinton conducted a "frank, deep, and constructive communication" with Xi Jinping, Wang Yi, the highest foreign policy official of Xi Jinping, Chinese highest foreign policy officials, and Minister of Foreign Minister Qin Gang.

When talking about the competition between the two countries, he stated that the United States will "responsible managing the competition, so that the relationship between the two countries will not fall into a conflict" and propose the field of potential cooperation, including climate change, global food security and control of lethal fatal and fatal control. Obscopic drugs Fentanyl's production.

Blinger heard some fierce words in a two -day interview. On Monday morning, Wang Yi bluntly at the three -hour meeting of the Diaoyutai State Hotel, blaming Washington in Washington.

According to the official information released by China, Wang Yi said that the United States should cooperate with China, not "hype' Chinese threat theory '. He said Washington must cancel sanctions against China and stop suppressing China's technological development. He accused the United States of [providing weapons] to Taiwan provides weapons , "To interfere with China's internal affairs" on issues such as Taiwan.

U.S. diplomats did not express expectations for major breakthroughs before attending the meeting. On the contrary, they emphasized the development channels that have worked hard to rebuild in recent months, and made progress in negotiations of small issues such as visas and commercial flights between the two countries. The two sides agreed to work hard to solve these problems in the next few months.

Blint is the first US Secretary of State to visit Beijing since 2018. When he visited, the relationship between the two sides had fallen to the lowest valley of decades in the past six years. In February, the Pentagon announced that a Chinese reconnaissance balloon was drifting over the United States in the United States -this prompted Brinken to cancel the Beijing trip that was about to perform at that time -the US fighter aircraft received an order to shoot down the balloon, which intensified the tension.

In February, a large balloon was shot down above the Atlantic coast, and a fighter flew. Chad Fish, Via Associated Press

Blindken had confronted Wang Yi during the Munich Safety Conference at the end of February this year. He told Wang Yi that Washington believes that China is considering providing lethal weapons support for Russia's Ukraine War, which has led to further deterioration of relations between the two countries. China's response is to freeze some important diplomatic exchanges and strengthen domestic anti-American propaganda.

Although Biden and its assistants have adopted tough and comprehensive business policies such as export control in the strategic field (especially semiconductor fields) to try to limit China's growth in the strategic field (especially semiconductor fields), and also strengthened military cooperation with Asian countries. The Biden government has a weak attitude towards China. Some Republican councilors even criticize Brinken Visit China, saying that this is tantamount to concession to Beijing. When Biden is expected to seek re-election next year, the wording of American politicians on Chinese issues will become more and more intense.

Both officials said that Brinton's visit to China will contribute to other senior US officials to visit Beijing in the near future, including Treasury Minister Jennite Yellen, Commercial Minister Gina Raymond, and the special envoy of the presidential climate change affairs. John Kerry. Qin Gang is also expected to visit Washington under the invitation of Brinken.

On Sunday, Blint and Chinese Foreign Minister Qin Gang met for more than five hours. POOL Photo by Leah MillisPeople's hope is that these talks in Beijing will promote the two governments to "form the principle framework for managing US-China relations in order to restrict competition in acceptable scope and work hard to create more cooperation in regions where China and the United States have overlap. Space, "Bai Jiexi, political scientist of Cornell University(Jessica Chen Weiss)He said that she has recently made suggestions to the State Council on the Chinese policy.

Before Brinken's visit to China, China adopted a tough attitude and repeatedly accused the United States of lack of "sincerity". While calling for negotiations, it continued to harm China's interests, whether it was implemented with new sanctions or establishing a trade relationship with Taiwan.

However, Xi Jinping's decision to meet with Brinken shows that China is also uneasy about the upgrade of tension.

"Although China strives to make this trip look more like the United States wants to come to China, China's side also attaches great importance to Brinkeit's interviews and brings greater stability issues to US -China relations." Han Lei, an official of the National Security Council of the Obama administration(Paul Haenle)explain.

Due to the deterioration of the economy, the Chinese government may face increasing pressure on stable Sino -US relations. Xi Jinping also wants to stabilize the relationship between the two countries.(<https://cn.nytimes.com/world/20230313/saudi-arabia-iran-china-biden/>)Essence If Xi Jinping chose to attend the Asia -Pacific Economic Cooperation Leadership Summit, he and Biden will meet again in San Francisco in November this year.

"In the past few months, China has always attributed Sino -US relations and broader domestic issues to the United States," "He Renan, a senior researcher at the Brookings Society of the Chinese Affairs Department in the Obama administration,(RyanHass)explain. "Now, Chinese leaders need to open up political space in order to turn to more direct communication."

After the meeting, Xiao Zi reiterated the policy of German decentralized trade risks. Do not use risk as an excuse to alienate China.

Agence France -Presse reported that this was the first visit to Li Qiang after taking office, highlighting Beijing's emphasis on improving the relationship between China and the European Union (EU). The EU's criticism of Beijing has become more and more loud.

Germany and the European Union have been harmed due to the interruption of the supply chain interruption of Russia's natural gas and COVID-19 (2019 coronary virus disease). Since then, they have continued to strengthen the "de-risk" action to relieve China.

Olaf Scholz said at a press conference after the talks that Germany is "committed to actively expanding economic relations with Asia and other regions.

However, Li Qiang emphasized that "the lack of growth in the global economic recovery" at a press conference, and "China and Germany, as influential powers, should work closely to promote world peace and development."

Li Qiang also said that investors attach great importance to removing risks. "But if they are in the name of risks, they will decompose or treat some countries to act as possible ... then it will violate market rules and the principles of fair competition."

He also said: "I think most friends in the German industry will not regard China as a risk, nor will they agree to conduct any so -called de -risk actions against China."

Exporting power Germany has always enjoyed a special relationship with China. Former Prime Minister Angelamerkel's administration period, Germany adopted a pragmatic approach to China. On the one hand, China became a major market for German exporters. Obviously not to be revealed.

But to this day, in the first national security strategy report released by the German government a few days before Li Qiang's visit, it is called China as "partners, competitors, and hostile systems". "Facing more and more stress", and ignore human rights.

US Secretary of State Antony Blinken arrived in China on June 18th. When he got off at Beijing, he did not see the Chinese laid red carpet welcoming. I saw the red line on the airport's ground, which caused the outside world to associate with the outside world. American media and other American media interpreted Blinden being treated coldly by Beijing. In the Chinese public opinion field, netizens also rumored to be "extreme humiliation" on platforms such as Twitter and Weibo. We warned "Don't step on the red line" to humiliate the United States.

Asian facts investigation of the laboratory reviewing four pictures of US Secretary of State's visit to China, including Mike Pompeo, found that the Chinese side did not necessarily spread the red carpet when getting off the machine, showing that Brinken was treated when they arrived in Beijing. Instead of some media and netizens, they refer to the use of shabby and take the opportunity to humiliate. As for the red line on the ground, it is a fixed line of the airport.

Deep analysis:

U.S. Secretary of State Brosky's visit to China from June 18th to 19th. Since Pompeo's visit to Pompeo in 2018, the highest US diplomat visit to China for the first time; Blintz restarted a visit that was postponed by the "spy balloon" incident. The itinerary is regarded by the outside world as a journey of ice breaking in the United States and China.

When Blingken arrived at the Beijing Capital International Airport on the 18th, Yang Tao, the director of the North American Oceania of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China, and the US ambassador to China, Nicholasburns, took over the plane. The scene of the scene also captured the moment when Brosky stepped on the red line, and this process became the focus of community platforms and media attention.

American media Washings Times "\(Washington Times\) "News Weekly" When Blingken arrived in Beijing, there was no red carpet, and it was arranged by the head of the director at the level. China Xinhua News Agency reporter and former deputy editor -in -chief of "Global" magazine Liu Hong's WeChat public account "Niu Boqin" The post stated that in the past, the visit of US Secretary of State seemed to have a red carpet, but this time there was no red carpet, but there was a red line; he said that there was no association, "Does the United States know the red line of the Chinese side?"

The above -mentioned "Niu Piano" and "News Weekly" reports have become the source of the media quoted by media in China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and other places. It also commented on the red line instead of the red carpet, telling Brinken not to step on the red line. Many netizens have spread Lincoln's videos and photos on Twitter, Weibo, Douyin and other platforms, and Tuka says that "there are no red carpets on the ground with red lines, everything is simple and extremely humiliated."

U.S. Secretary of State Brills arrived in China on June 18th. There was no red carpet when they got off the plane. The red line was drawn on the airport ground, which became the focus of many netizens and media.

Asian facts check the laboratory to review the videos and photos of the former Secretary of State Pompeo, Rex Tillerson, John Kerry, and Hillary Clinton. "In the past, the visit of the Secretary of State of the United States seemed to have a red carpet." For example, Pompeo's film to Beijing in June 2018 It shows that there is no red carpet in the apron, and the red line can be seen on the ground in 31 seconds.

Photos of Tillerson's arrival in Beijing in March 2017 It shows that China has not paved the red carpet to welcome him, another photo You can see that there are also red lines on the airport.

When Kerry arrived in Beijing in April 2013, the airport was not laid on the red carpet. According to the US State Department, Xie Feng, the director of the US Department of Foreign Affairs, took over the aircraft.

Crey visited China in April 2013, and was the then Director of the US Department of Foreign Affairs, Xie Feng, took over the aircraft. (Figure/US State Department website) Hillary to arrive at Beijing Airport in May 2010 Show, there is no red carpet on the ground. Hillary visit in September 2012 At that time, the Chinese side welcomed the red carpet at the airport, when the head of the US Division Xie Feng took over the aircraft.

As for the "red line" across Brosky, the Asian facts check the laboratory based on the International Civil Aviation Organization Safety Operation Specifications for the Pingping Ping Ping And Regulations on the Safety Management of Transport Airport Operation of Transportation Airport "of the Ministry of Transportation of China Article 122, it is determined that it is a fixed label of the airport, called the "airline safety line". It limits that when the plane just enters or is ready to leave, it is not allowed to enter if it is guided or dragged a vehicle.

The standard drawing of the "Putting Safety Line" displayed in the safety operation specifications of the International Civil Aviation Organization Tortoise. (Screenshots of relevant documents of the International Civil Aviation Organization) ) Brinken vs Macron

Many other netizens posted comparison charts in the social media. Compared with the differences between Blinden and French President Emmanuel Macron, they visited China, saying that Brinken had no red carpet and welcomed in a big battle. It was humiliated.

But Macron went to China in April this year for state affairs visit, Statevisit (or "country is visiting") is invited by the head of state of one country by the head of state. It is the highest level of diplomatic activities between the two countries. The honor guard, 21 lings, etc.

The levels of Macron and Blintken are different in terms of access. Compared with the Chinese reception specifications of the two, it is meaningless and cannot be used as the evidence of China to humiliate Broscase.

in conclusion:

At least four former Secretary of State of Brosky visited the picture in the visit of the former Secretary of State, and the Asian facts investigating the laboratory found that China may not have to spread a red carpet at the airport to welcome US Secretary of State. As for the pick -up level, when Kerry and Hillary were in the middle of the visit, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs was also taken over by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Therefore, the treatment of Brinken when he arrived in Beijing was in line with past practice. Some media and netizens claimed that the Chinese side "replaced the red carpet with the red carpet" shames Boringken, which is not the fact. The "red line" on the ground is the standard line of the airport.

In the "709 Capture" incident of the Chinese authorities against the rights protection lawyer and human rights defenders, although the arrested people have been released from prison, the authorities' suppression of this group continues. Recently, the human rights lawyers Wang Quanzhang and Li Heping in Beijing have repeatedly been forced to relocate by the authorities. Overseas Democratic Games Wang Dan launched a joint agency to call on the authorities to stop persecution of rights protection citizens.

China Human Rights Lawyers Group issued a statement to condemn and harass human rights lawyers * Beijing's persecution and then upgrade Wang Quanzhang's couple and besieged at home by unknown Han Overseas democratic movement Wang Dan recently launched a solidarity operation. The co -scholarship believed in Beijing Mayor Yin Yong, Minister of Public Security Wang Xiaohong and Beijing Public Security Director Yuan Yanjun, calling on the authorities to stop the two lawyers Wang Quanzhang and Li Heping of the "709 Capture Case" lawyer. Political persecution, relocation and border control.

"Previous political persecution has not been like this, not letting people live. Both lawyers have already served in the period of finishing, not only to keep their lives unable to continue, but also threatened their minor children. I think this nature, this nature, this nature More upgraded than before. "On Tuesday, Wang Dan said in an interview with this station:" Frankly speaking, this is already a hooligan governing the country, not just national violence. The international community is highly concerned. "

"709 Everyone is the backbone of society. They can have been quiet, make money, and live a decent life. But they are responsible for pursuing the rule of law, social fairness, and national progress. . "Wang Dan also wrote in the statement:" Here, calling, whether it is from humanity or human dignity, please stop persecution and harassment of them. Please let them work freely and freely choose to live in the country. Their side control, especially the border control of innocent children, should not have such a 'national prisoner'. "

Wang Dan revealed that from 2015 to 2021, Wang Quanzhang and Li Wenzu's residence had been forced to relocate 4 times. In the past two months, they were forced to move 13 times; Li Heping and Wang Qianling's family were forced to move 8 times.

This station had previously reported that the Wang Quanzhang family was repeatedly moved by the authorities in Beijing. The residence was not only broken by water and power, but the public security personnel were still smashing the door at night, and various harassment methods were different. Li Wenzu told this station that the child was sick and was forced to separate from his parents because of his frightening.

According to the latest news released by Li Wenzu Twitter, their family has not only been powered off for 10 days, but also encountered unknown persons to block the door within 10 days of staying in Xinjin. Wang Quanzhang also revealed that after the power -offs, the camera on the door was covered with a spray gun.

"This is the emergence of a new (persecution) model. Especially after Wang Xiaohong came to power, it took a new approach to objections, including 709 lawyers. Broken their will to fight. "Wang Dan said:" So I think this is a very dangerous signal."

In addition to Wang Quanzhang and Li Wenzu, Li Heping, a human rights lawyer in Beijing, was also expelled from violence. Not only that, the Li Heping and Wang Qiaoling family were also prohibited from exiting by the authorities in the name of "possibly endangering national security."

Lin Shengliang, the co -scholar of the above -mentioned public letter and the disagreement person in the Netherlands, told the station that the Chinese authorities have continued to upgrade for the persecution of rights protection lawyers and human rights defender, and there is a trend of gangs. Who issued the order, I do n't know, but it must be from the above, that is, through layers of cover, we ca n't go to chase the black hand behind. "

He also said that while the authorities have intensified the implementation of the persecution, the pressure of public opinion has already turned a deaf ear to public opinion. Therefore, he believes that overseas public calls have limited effect on improving the living conditions of groups such as Chinese human rights lawyers.

He said: "I think (open letter) has not improved to him (living conditions). Holding optimism, all aspects have become more and more extreme. "

On Sunday, the China Human Rights Lawyer Group also issued a statement condemning the Chinese authorities' suppression of groups such as rights protection lawyers and human rights defenders in recent months. The statement also urged the authorities to pursue the criminal responsibility of "illegal invasion of housing" by relevant illegal criminals; fulfilling legal obligations, protecting the right to citizen residential residential residential residential, and the right to live in business in international law, constitution, and legal regulations.

The statement emphasized that "this ugly crime that deviates from modern civilization and infringement of human rights must be stopped."

Images: "[000000.png"]

According to data from Chinese Customs, China is Russia's largest economic partner, and the trade volume of the two sides last year reached a record 190 billion US dollars.

Detailed data from customs show that China imported 9.71 million tons of oil from Russia in May, higher than 5.4 million tons in February 2022 and 6.3 million tons in March of the same year.

Data show that since Moscow's full invasion of Ukraine, Russian crude oil imported by China has almost doubled.

This is consistent with the trade data released in June. These data show that the trade between China and Russia has soared to a new high since February 2022.

Data from the Beijing authorities show that the trade volume between May between the two countries was US $ 20.5 billion, of which China imported from Russia for $ 11.3 billion.

At a Summit in March, Chinese President Xi Jinping and Russian President Vladimir Putin promised to increase the trade volume to US $ 200 billion in 2023, and praised the "unlimited" partnership between the two countries.

Russian Deputy Prime Minister Alexander Novak said in May that Russia's energy supply to China this year will increase by 40%.

Registration to find new support forces-China

The report quoted the analysis of political scholars that the Ukrainian war caused Russia The economic and geopolitical forces have been weakened, and the Putin regime may even collapse. Therefore, the autocratic rulers of Kazakhstan are looking for new powerful forces to support its regime when necessary. Therefore, this Central Asian country is interested in establishing a close relationship with China.

China also responded And for the first time in May with Central Asia The summit of the five kingdoms. Beijing promises to provide it with 3.4 billion euros in economic assistance. And Chinese President Xi Jinping also promised to provide Kazakhstan with [military support] military support .

Germany President Steinmer visited Kazakhstan

, ha. Hope to strengthen cooperation in an all-round way

Against this background, German President Steinmier visited Kazakhstan for two days. On Tuesday, Steinmier and President Toccyev met at the country's capital Astana. The two sides hope to fully expand the relationship. "We hope to have more and closer partnerships with Kazakhstan and Central Asian countries." Takayev said that he hopes that "our cooperation will reach a new level." During the visit, the two sides agreed to provide crude oil from Kazakhstan regularly to PCK refineries in Schwitt, Brandonburg, Germany.

According to Germany, Tocaev said that Germany was a trusted partner in many fields. He pointed out that in the trade between Germany and Central Asian countries, 83% of the proportion of Kazakhstan. He also said that the country is one of the four major oil suppliers in Germany. "Our economy complements each other in many areas."

According to the agreement, Kazakhstan will transport 100,000 tons of crude oil a month to the Schwitt PCK refinery by the end of 2024. Germany said that this would increase the actual capacity of the plant by 10%. Before the end of 2022, the plant is mainly crude oil from Russia, and is now looking for new suppliers.

In addition to oil and natural gas, Kazakhstan also has rare earth. Germany depends on China very much. In addition, due to the vast area, the country is also a good place for wind and solar energy. In terms of area, Kazakhstan is nearly eight times in Germany, but only about 19 million people are not as one-quarter of Germany. The country has a common border of about 7,600 kilometers with Russia, and has a common border of nearly 1,800 kilometers with China.

Ukrainian war is now different

The country is under autocracy. International observer believes that there are problems with the country in news, speech and rally. For example, in the press freedom ranking in 2023, the country ranked 134th in 180 countries. For comparison: Germany ranked 21st.

In addition, this Central Asian country is also questioned, bypassing the EU's sanctions imposed on Russia due to the Ukrainian war Essence The presidential talks between the two countries also talked about this issue. Stein Mel emphasized: "We must take all efforts to prevent the behavior of bypassed sanctions." Tocaev said: "We comply with sanctions."

For the end of the Ukrainian war, the two sides also showed disagreement. Tocaev called to stop the fire as soon as possible, saying that "bad peace is better than a good war." Stein Mel emphasized that the goal must be "fair peace", and to ensure that Ukraine's sovereignty and territorial integrity must be guaranteed, "and we are far from this."

Steinmore's trip to Central Asia will also visit Kyrgyzstan.

The draft agreement proposed by the White House to Iran includes that Iran must not sell ballistic missiles to Russia(Anadolu News Agency)The Russian media "Nezavisimaya" published an article by the author Igor Stapitin Report. This report states that the White House is secretly submitting an agreement to Iran, which may cause concerns because it includes a series of requirements on Iran, and some of them involve cooperation with Russia.

This report pointed out that the White House's back with the Kremlin proposed this agreement to Iran, while the Israeli and the United States Republican Party opposed the desire to reach an alternative agreement between the Bayeon government and Iran, and believed that this alternative agreement will weaken sanctions on Iran. pressure.

The author Sipotin quoted Israeli Broadcasting Corporation as saying that Israel is trying to influence this new agreement because the agreement may be more dangerous than the previous agreement on returning to the Iraqi Agreement for Israel, Trump announced unilaterally withdraw from the Iraqi Agreement.

Troubleshooting in the United States

The author quoted Michael McCal, chairman of the US House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Committee, pointed out that recently reported that the US government has restored its indirect talks with the Iranian regime, which will lead to approval to pay a large amount of funds to Iran. , Thus triggering concerns in the United States. The author explained that "the White House's actions over the 2015 Iranian Nuclear Agreement Review Act -the bill requires US President to report to Congress to Iran's nuclear energy situation."

Expert discussion(Peninsula TV Station)This report quoted the United States "New York Times" and reported that the United States is seeking to bypass the current US -Iqi relationship based on a extensive agreement to end the existing political crisis between the two countries. In addition, the agreement is the agreement. The draft focuses on the issue of "nuclear". Iran is required not to increase the concentration of uranium to more than 60%, and to expand its scope of cooperation with international inspectors.

Ask Iran not to sell missiles to Russia

The New York Times supplemented that the draft agreement stipulates that Iran can impact the Shiite organizations that combat the US military facilities in Syria and Iraq, but to avoid selling ballistic missiles to Russia.

The author mentioned that an American historian believes that the initiative proposed by the White House conforms to China's interests, and said that after the Bayeng government reached a new agreement, it would transfer billions of dollars to Iran's funds to Iran. Coupled with China's help, it will destroy the stability of the Gulf and North Africa.

The author also quoted the New York Times as saying that this initiative was just an informal agreement. It requires a certain degree of mutual trust between the two parties. Although the relationship between the two countries has deteriorated significantly in recent years, at the same time, according to the Israeli media According to reports, this form of agreement does not force Iran to take effective measures to limit its nuclear forces, but will only force it to stop its current concentrated activities without demolishing equipment.

(Voice of Germany) Schildez on Government Consultation At the press conference, the importance of bilateral and multilateral dialogue between Germany was emphasized. Shawrtz said: "The more we know each other on both sides, the more frequent exchanges, and the smaller the space for misunderstanding."

Not long ago, the national security strategy launched by the German government Call China as "partners, competitors and opponents", but at the entire press conference on Tuesday, the term "opponent" did not appear. At a press conference attended by the Prime Minister of Germany, there was no reporter's questioning link at the press conference. It is generally believed that this arrangement is made in accordance with the requirements of China.

The first security strategy after World War II announced in Germany

Corresponding to the climate crisis

Schildez said that the victims of the country with a large carbon dioxide emissions and climate change will cooperate in response to climate crisis. He talked about China's drought and the flood of the Alpha Valley in Germany. He said that fighting climate change requires the joint efforts of generations.

Schäfer said that in addition to climate protection, Germany and China will also promote cooperation in other environmental protection fields. For this purpose, this fall, the Lieutenant General of Germany held a ministerial environmental forum.

Russia and Ukraine War

When talking about the Russian and Ukraine War, Sharz said that he called on China to bear the responsibility of the UN Security Council's permanent member of the Security Council and exert a necessary influence on Russia. Shawrtz emphasized that only Russia's full withdrawal can achieve fair peace. In addition, China does not export weapons to Russia, which is also crucial. Shawrtz said: "China's position is still a nuclear threat, and even the use of nuclear weapons is absolutely unacceptable. I thank China for adhering to this position, which is also the common position of our two parties."

After the press conference, the German Chancellor Schröder published a tweet: Global problems can only be solved through joint efforts. Imperialist acts are by no means a solution to the problem. Play influence.

Shawrtz emphasized that Germany did not pursue the decoupling with China, but the economic relations between the two sides still face a series of challenges, and some problems need to be improved and resolved. These include the market access issues of German companies in China and create a fair competitive environment. Shawrtz finally said to Li Qiang: "Let's continue the conversation in order to win mutual understanding and deal with global challenges together."

Lot: It is time to hold government consultations with China regularly.

Compared with German Prime Minister Schulz, Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang's speech is very short. He said that China pays attention to the development of Sino -German relations and China -Europe relations, and is also willing to raise Germany and China relations to a new height.

He said that despite the weak global economy, the Chinese economy is still recovering steadily. Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang said: "Germany and China strengthening cooperation in the fields of technology, industry and economic, will also contribute to stabilizing the global economy."

When the German Chancellor Salz praised the results of the Dedaka government for consultation, some politicians also questioned the German - China government's consultation mechanism. Lot, chairman of the Federal House of Foreign Affairs Committee, pointed out: "Whether the regular government consultation with China has a future and it is worth reviewing. Because the government consultation, this mechanism was originally limited to close values of values."

Reporter from El Salvador Martinez (Óscar Martínez)

(Voice of Germany) "Silence is not an option", which is the credo of Oscar Martinez. The reporter from Salvador, a country in Central America, won the "Freedom of speech" of the German Voice of Germany Global Media Forum because of the heroic and fearlessness and investigation and research in investigating news reports.

Martinez has won many awards in the past -including the "Fernando Benítez National JournalismPrize" and the "Maria Moore Cobert, which aims to recognize the outstanding news reports about the Americas, Maria Moors Cabot Prize.

This year is the ninth time the Voice of Germany's Global Media Forum issued the "Freedom Award of Speech" Essence This award aims to pay attention to regions where the world's freedom is subject to the world's freedom and commend the outstanding journalists.

The Voice of Germany pointed out when he explained his awards that Martinez was born in Salvador in 1983 and is famous for its investigation news work. Since the 2019 Salvado President Nayibbukele took office, many reporters of the country have been criticized or threatened by reporters who have criticized the government.

Martinnez's reports also pay attention to organizational crimes, drug trafficking, etc.

Reporters who reported criminal groups were often convicted, and media institutions were also difficult to make by the authorities. In 2022, due to the high crime rate, the Salvador government announced that the country entered an emergency. The law of emergency status is above the basic rights given by constitution including freedom of speech and freedom of assembly.

Salvador ranked 115th in the release of the Freedom of Press in 118 countries around the world. According to a report from the "Reporter's No Boundary", the media belongs to the "widespread victim of violence" in this Chinese American country.

Martinnitz said in his award -winning speech that more than 150 reporters have been forced to leave Salvador, and international observers have evaluated the country's politics as a "mixed regime."

He himself left Salvador because he was threatened or worried about being arrested. Martinez firmly stated that whether it is an exile, the authorities' suppression, political persecution, or torture, imprisonment, and traversal -all this cannot stop him and his colleagues from continuing to continue criticism and the determination to expose darkness.

At the Voice of Germany Global Media Forum, Martinez also called on participants to show unity in China and the United States and South America's "brave and unshakable" reporters. "Don't ignore us, we will continue to follow up with you."

The Voice of Germany, Peter Limbourg, gives a high evaluation of Martinez and his criticism media "Lighthouse"

For his own country, Martinez said that Salvador continued to move towards the direction of dictatorship. The Voice of Germany Lynch Link also opened at the opening of the Global Media Forum: "Salvador's media is being subject to unprecedently monitoring." He believes that Central America is experiencing a new wave of authoritarian rule, and the freedom of the press is also suffering. More and more restrictions.

"Oscar Martinnez and the editorial department of" Elfar "bravely stressed to reporters in the work of reporters in Salvador and other Chinese American countries." Give high evaluation and point out that the work of the reporter makes them personal at high risk.

How to eliminate the division in society? ——This is the theme of the 16th Voice of Germany. About 2,200 participants from all over the world came to the Voice of Germany's headquarters Pohen this week to participate in the two-day (June 19-20) Global Media Forum.

The winners of the past "Freedom Awards" in the past include Nigerian Journalist Ovar in 2021 (TOBOREOVURIE) and MSTyslav Chernov and Evgeniy maloletka (MSTyslav Chernov).

Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang is welcomed by German Prime Minister Shulz

(Voice of Germany Chinese) US Secretary of State Blinger at the end of the visit to China, I met Chinese leader Xi Jinping It seems to be a positive signal in German media. "South Germany" published a comment, "Sometimes, those who determine the political climate are small words." This comment entitled "Wo Jedes World" wrote::

"Progress" is such a word. Chinese party and state leaders Xi Jinping pointed out in a meeting with US Secretary of State Tony Brillings that Sino - US relations have achieved' progress ". And the significance is not only that, this is also a huge political capital, and it must be clever to bet.

The biggest perception of Bollingin's visit to China is that people realize that although there are various competitions between the two sides of the (USA), they still hope to continue their diplomatic efforts and they can still find common languages. Brinken carefully calculated the concession to be accepted by the Chinese side, and the latter also signaled to return to the predictable track -the United States and Xi Jinping under the rule of Trump to strive for the third term and China during the epidemic period. This track. Since 2017, bilateral relations have fallen into a trough. Now, a period of cautious review has begun. How dangerous is the state of nothing to say between the two most powerful economies in the world? There have been sufficient examples in the past few years. The situation that China's system is easy to cause is to cover up the internal weakness by displaying strongly. The domestic anti -China mood in the United States has long been separated from reality. The internal tribe of China has launched a strong competition to see who is more tough to make the country be at a loss.

Don't spread red carpet, just give the red line

The trip to Beijing was the first visit to China in five years in the United States Secretary of State, and it was also the highest -level official to visit China after the Bayeng government came to power. However, when Brintken arrived at the Beijing Capital International Airport, there were no red carpets, no one presented flowers, and the Chinese officials who were present at the scene were Yang Tao, the director of the North American Oceania, which was relatively low -level. Interestingly, there are still a few red lines on the ground floor, and the photos on the scene just captured the moment when Brincayan stepped on the "red line". As Sino -US relations are in a historic trough, all of this seems to be symbolic. However, some experts pointed out that except for Hillary Clinton as a Secretary of State's visit to China in 2012, when the Chinese side paved the red carpet for her, when the U.S. Secretary of State Cry, Tillerson, and Pompeo arrived in China, there was no red carpet in the apron, and there was no red carpet. Blingken arrived in Beijing on the morning of June 18, arrived at the Diaoyutai State Guest House in the afternoon to talk with Chinese State Councilor and Foreign Minister Qin Gang. However, "News Network" broadcast by CCTV on the 18th did not report the matter. Regarding Brillin and Qin Gang's 6 or 7 hours of talks, the Chinese official media Xinhua News Agency and others only reported the Chinese position that Qin Gang expressed with his teachings, but did not say anything. Xinhua News Agency said that Qin Gang said, "At present, Sino -US relations are at the lowest valley since the establishment of diplomatic relations", and emphasized that "the issue of Taiwan is the core of China's core interests", "it is also the most prominent risk."

What details are eye -catching?

Analysis: Pay the way for Xi Jinping to attend the San Francisco APEC Summit in November

After talking with Qin Gang, Brinken wrote in Twitter that the two sides discussed how to manage the relationship between the two countries in charge through open communication channels. The U.S. State Department issued a statement stating that Brinken emphasized the importance of maintaining smooth communication channels on both sides and proposed to cooperate with China on some issues, but at the same time, the United States will continue to protect the interests of Americans and safeguard the rules -based international order. The Wall Street Journal had previously analyzed that one of the driving force for the recent recovery of dialogue in the United States and China was the Asia -Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) summit scheduled to be held in San Francisco in November. Beijing hopes that Chinese President Xi Jinping will attend the meeting and pave the way with US President Biden.

mask meaning

As can be seen from the photos, the US delegations led by Brinken were led by the Chinese Foreign Minister Qin Gang and a member of the Central Political Bureau and the director of the Central Foreign Affairs Working Committee. The personnel were wearing a mask, and the US personnel also put on the mask "with the customs" in addition to Blink. In March of this year, the picture reached by Beijing AIDS reached an agreement showed that in the three -party talks, all officials did not wear a mask, which was in sharp contrast to the picture of Beijing officials now meeting with Bollingken.

suspense revealed

Until the last moment, whether Xi Jinping, the Chinese President and the Supreme CCP leader, would have been a suspense. On the eve of Brinken's arrival in Beijing, Chinese Chairman Xi Jinping met with former Microsoft President Gates, saying that he was an old friend, and said that he always hoped to be in the American people. Analysts believe that if Xi Jinping does not see Blink, then Sino -US relations will be even more worrying. If you see, the relationship between the two parties is expected to be further ease. Xi Jinping may also have a formal visit to the United States when he goes to San Francisco in November to participate in the APEC summit.

What details are eye -catching?

Blinger to complete the main goal of this trip

The two sides have too sufficient reasons to incorporate their competitive confrontation into a control mechanism. From an economic perspective, neither the United States and China are allowed to start a war to compete for the scope of influence, and military, such a showdown will have no winners. Therefore, it is wise to consider how to manage this relationship. The United States took the initiative and China responded. After long -term mutual communication, this result cannot be underestimated. "

Competitive partner

The "Daily" published by Berlin focuses on the Chinese Prime Minister Li Qiang led a group to visit Berlin to participate in intergovernmental consultation between Germany and Chinese government Essence The author believes that China is launching a charm of Europe, and Germany is still regarded by China as the most important partner in the European Union. But this article entitled "Berlin's popular carpet from Beijing's opponents" wrote:

"However, the German government should not be blinded by Shun Er's words. Under Xi Jinping's leadership, China has undergone tremendous changes. It's right.

Beijing's increasingly offensiveness internationally shows its increasingly aggressiveness, its increasing military threat to Taiwan, the thorough suppression of the Hong Kong democratic movement, and the stronger intervention of economic activities, all of which have made Germany's domestic attitude towards China very Great impact. No one has talked about 'it' s a transformation with trade '. Nonetheless, as the German Federal Prime Minister Shulz (Social Party) said last week, it was the timing of dialogue, " in the current world situation, mutual exchanges are very meaningful. '

is how to re -position relations with China

The German government holds a pragmatic optimism on this issue, and the government spokesman Wolfgang Büchner said he looked forward to a 'good and constructive communication ". The theme of this consultation is 'Common and Sustainable Action', which is intended to emphasize the level of partners in relations with Chinese relations. Regarding Germany -China relations, Berlin is tirelessly described as the definition of "partners, competitors and strategic rivals".

However, recently, the center of gravity is increasingly biased towards the direction of strategic opponents. The national security strategy announced in Berlin this Wednesday also shows this. The strategy emphasizes that China has repeatedly adopted the interests and values of the interests and values of us (Germany )', and at the same time, the development partnership and the possible areas of realistic possible areas are narrowing.

The article finally wrote: "The lessons of the Russian relations have been absorbed. The federal government has a huge dependence on Germany to China (compared to Russia) and chose the slogan of" de-Risking ". Reduce risks and dependence so that Beijing will be threatened to implement and attack Taiwan. However, for some German companies and multinational companies, its dependence on the Chinese market and production bases has to be so great that it has to do so, and has to do it. Long -term transformation. "

The Indian Prime Minister Modi, who is about to visit the United States, believes that New Delhi and Washington's trust in each other "reach unprecedented levels."

Reuters reports that at the invitation of US President Biden, Modi will go to the United States to visit the United States from Wednesday to Saturday (June 21st to 24th).

Modi said in an interview with the Wall Street Journal before setting off that Indian -American relations are stronger and deeper than ever. He said that India should be more valued and let India play a more important role in a broader field.

When asked about the United States criticized India and did not adopt a tougher stance on Russia, which invaded Ukraine, Modi believed that this view is not common in the United States.

Modi said, "I think the stance of India is clear all over the world. India's primary initiative is peace, and the world is absolutely confident in us."

In addition, Modi also talked about the relationship between India and China. Modi said that only in the context of peace in India and China, the relationship between India and China can develop forward.

In the past three years, India and China have strengthened their positions and deployed a large number of troops and equipment in the disputed border area of Mis. So far, 20 Indian soldiers and four Chinese soldiers are killed in physical melee.

Modi said: "For the normal bilateral relations between India and China, peace and tranquility in border areas are essential."

Modi also said: "Our core belief is to respect sovereignty and territorial integrity, comply with the rule of law, and peacefully resolve differences and disputes. At the same time, India has made full preparations and is committed to maintaining sovereignty and dignity."

According to the Reuters Indian partner Asia International News (ANI), Modi will meet with Electric Vehicle Corporation Tesla President Musk during the visit to the United States.

Biden will have a national banquet for Modi on Thursday. Modi was also invited to give a speech at the joint meeting of the US Congress that day.

Description: On June 20, Alibaba Holding Group announced that it would change the coach, showing that its reorganization and demolition plan is being advanced. In addition, the internal speech of the founder of Alibaba, the founder of Alibaba, which was revealed by the Chinese financial media "Late LatePost" in May, also attracted attention. Ma Yun, who recently appeared in Tokyo, said at the time, "A company from the benchmark of the industry to the death of death, half a year to one year is enough to be enough. "

Ma Yun said in the internal speech of the business leader of Taitian Group in May this year that the competition situation is very serious.

(Voice of Germany) Zhang Yong, chairman and CEO of Alibaba Holding Group on Tuesday (June 20), announced that he will step down in September this year to focus on the chairman and CEO of Alibaba Cloud Smart Group. The chairman of the board of directors of Alibaba Holdings Group will be held by Cai Chongxin, the current executive vice chairman, and Wu Yongming, chairman of Tao Tian Group.

Alibaba has previously stated that it will establish a more flexible structure in order to maintain competitiveness when facing new regulatory challenges and the growing pressure of global economy. In March of this year, Alibaba Group announced that it will be reorganized into a holding company with six different business groups Including Alibaba Cloud Smart, Taobao Tmall Commercial, Local Life, International Digital Commercial, Cainiao, Great Entertainment, etc. On May 18, Zhang Yong also announced that it plans to completely split and complete the listing from Ali Group in the next 12 months, forming a new company that is completely independent with Ali Group in terms of equity and corporate governance. The introduction of the "6+N" reorganization scheme was commented on by the industry as Alibaba to survive through "making small", so as not to be too large to become the target of public criticism and the government's suppression object. In April 2021, Alibaba Group was accused of violating China's "Anti -Monopoly Law" and except for the highest fines of RMB 18.28 billion in the highest cases of similar cases, at that time, a total of 2.78 billion US dollars.

Jack Ma: The competitive situation is very severe

In addition to the reorganization and coach of Alibaba Holdings Group, the latest trends and remarks of Alibaba founder Ma Yun also attracted attention.

On Monday (June 19), China Financial Media "Late LatePost" reported that in late May, Ma Yun convened the heads of various businesses of Tao Tian Group to hold a small communication meeting. According to a number of Alibaba employees, Ma Yun believes that the current competition situation facing Tao Tian Group is very severe. He uses Nokia and Kodak as an example that a company is benchmarking from the industry to death. Speed may be faster. In addition, Ma Yun also talked about the views of Ali e-commerce "return to Taobao", Tao Tian Group should return to users, and return to the Internet. It is recommended that the team should do more product innovation in the future, such as combining AI services for small and medium businesses, "doing small business".

In the past three years, Ma Yun has remained low -key and rarely published "high theory". In 2020, Ma Yun criticized the Chinese regulatory agency to kill the innovation of Alibaba Fintech sister company Ant Group, and was suppressed afterwards, withdrawn from the public vision for a long time, and stayed overseas for more than a year. In January 2023, Ma Yun gave up control over the Ant Group It is no longer the controller of the Ant Group.

However, shortly after the media reported Ma Yun's further "retreat", Ma Yun returned to China at the end of March this year after the Communist Party of China, and appeared in Hangzhou Essence

By June 16, the University of Tokyo released news that Ma Yun delivered a speech to the students of Tokyo College on June 12 with the theme of "Innovation and Entrepreneurship". The University of Tokyo also released a photo of Ma Yun's speech at the student, showing that Jack Ma is in Japan.

Previously, the University of Tokyo, Japan, announced on May 1st that Ma Yun has hired Ma Yun as a guest professor at Tokyo College of the school.

China plans to establish a new joint military training facility in Cuba.

Subsequently, the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs denied this. At the same time, senior US officials once again called on Beijing to restore the military communication channels of the two countries.

China Refuse to Meet the Minister of Defense \* Wall Street Journal: China will set up secret intelligence in Cuba to the United States

As U.S. Secretary of State Brillings ended its visit to China, the Wall Street Journal was quoted on June 20 that it was quoted by news officials that China and Cuba were undergoing negotiations and planned to establish a new joint military training facility on the coast of northern Cuba. This will allow China to station in the army only 100 miles away from the Florida coast of the United States and start intelligence and other military operations. The report disclosed that the above -mentioned related negotiations have entered the later stage, but no conclusion has been obtained.

Johnkirby, a spokesman for the White House National Security Council, said in a press conference to answer media questions at a press conference on Tuesday that China has been working hard to improve its influence and intelligence collection capabilities in the Western Hemisphere. This includes the relationship between them and Cuba for a long time. The United States does not know or not monitored or did not take measures. He also said that the United States will continue to take measures to protect their secrets and national security.

Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesman Mao Ning responded to the relevant questions at a regular press conference on Tuesday: "I don't understand the situation you mentioned. I hope that the relevant parties will use more energy on things that are conducive to improving mutual trust and regional peaceful development. "

US media: China plans to establish new military training facilities in Cuba

According to the Wall Street Journal, the information of China's establishment of new military training facilities in Cuba has caused alert to the United States. The Biden government has contacted Cuban officials to try to stop the plan, and at the same time, it also understands the concerns of Cuba's might transfer some sovereignty.

U.S. officials said that new military facilities can provide a platform for China, making it possible to permanently garrison in Cuba to expand information collection activities for the United States, including electronic eavesdropping. The most concerned about the United States is that this planning facility is part of China's "141 project". The project aims to expand the global military base and logistics support network of the Chinese military, and set up 15 overseas bases within 10 years, but Beijing has never acknowledged the existence of the plan.

U.S. officials also revealed that the Central and Middle Schools have jointly operated 4 eavesdropping stations in Cuba. A few days ago, the Wall Street Journal reported that China plans to establish a new monitoring station in Cuba. The White House later confirmed publicly that at least since 2019, China has had intelligence collection facilities in Cuba.

Yao Cheng, a former Chinese Naval Command in the United States, told this station: "Because many space satellites in the United States, including space aircraft launch, many of them are in Florida. Cuba's location is very important to monitor American space operations. Intelligence collection stations are very necessary. (The Communist Party of China) has this plan long ago, including establishing some relay stations in some island nations in the South Pacific. It is for the need for space warfare."

Yao Cheng emphasized that China's establishment of intelligence collection facilities in Cuba will pose a great threat to the United States: "It is no doubt that the American Biden government has alertness on it. Go to pressure. "However, he believes that China is unlikely to establish a military training facility in Cuba.

Patrick Cronin, director of the Asia -Pacific Project Institute of the Hudson Institute of the American Think Tank, told this station: "For some time, people know that China has been expanding the global network of ports and intelligence facilities. As far as China is concerned, in Cuba near Florida to establish military training facilities and signal intelligence facilities, I think anyone in the military or national security community in Washington will not be surprised by this. This is that China is declare its global ambitions and the world. Military existence."

Cronin believes that the United States may not prevent Cuba from establishing military training facilities and intelligence facilities in Cuba. As for how to cope with China's threat, he said: "The United States will continue to establish its allies and partner networks, especially in the Asia -Pacific region. China regards this as a threat to China, but the United States and its allies and partners will regard this as their own. Defense. The United States will have to pay more and more attention to other regions, especially our own Western Hemisphere. "

Beijing refuses Brinkei's suggestion that the White House officials will call on China to restore the communication between the two armies

U.S. Secretary of State Brinkei just ended a visit to China on Monday, but this trip did not allow Beijing to agree to restore the communication channels between the two armies to avoid misjudgment. On Tuesday (20th), the White House National Security Council is responsible for the senior director of China and Taiwan affairs, Sarah Belan(Sarahbera)At a briefing about this interview, the establishment of military communication is essential for reducing the friction between the two global powers.Bonnieglaser, director of the Asian project in the Marshall Foundation in the United States, tweeted a few days ago that the fact that China's refusal to restore military communication channels is disappointing and worrying. Beijing obviously does not accept the framework of "big country competition" proposed by the Biden government at all, which makes people question whether it is possible to stable relationships between the United States and China.

Expert: China regards resistance to military dialogue as a means US - China confrontation is difficult to cool down

Chinese Defense Minister Li Shangfu refused to meet with US Secretary of Defense Austin at the Shangri -La Security Summit earlier this month. Since 2018, Li Shangfu has been sanctioned by the United States for participating in the Chinese military from a sanctioned Russian company to buy fighter aircraft and missile systems.

Cronin believes that the impact of the lack of military communication channels in the United States and China will not be too great: "In the sea area or airspace near China, as well as the East China and the South China Sea, the possibility of incidents is very high. Above the sex event (ALOCALINCIDENT). Nevertheless, it is very beneficial to perform more direct military dialogue to avoid such local events. "He also said that China may still change its position in the next few months and restore it to restore Military dialogue.

Crotning also pointed out that the US sanctions on China's defense director Li Shangfu are not the main cause of Beijing's resistance to military dialogue. "China does not want to be decentralized or turning on the activities of the US military in the South China Sea, Taiwan and the East China Sea." He said that for China, they also resisted the dialogue between the two armies as a means to apply to Washington Influence is to change its support for Taiwan, as well as alliances and partnership networks that are continuously expanded in the region.

Yao Cheng believes that the reason why the US -China military dialogue is difficult to recover is that on the one hand, the United States has not revoked sanctions on Li Shangfu. "Second, the confrontation between China and the United States has been upgraded from all aspects of trade, economy, and diplomacy to military confrontation. Status. This is irreplaceable. I think the military confrontation between the United States and China can only be upgraded and will not cool down. "Yao Cheng pointed out that the military encirclement formed by the first island chain to China has become increasingly obvious, and Beijing has also seen Beijing. At this point, Xi Jinping's so -called bottom -line thinking and extreme thinking are based on fighting. The battle in the United States and China may be unavoidable. He believes that the reason why China receives Bollingin visits China is mainly to ease the current situation of military confrontation and strive for more time and space.

Chinese leader Xi Jinping met with U.S. Secretary of State Brills in the Great Hall of the People on June 19, 2023 Pool Photo via AP Audio-1-Link: <https://www.rfa.org/mandarin/yataibaodao/junshiwaijiao/wy-06202023102946.html/@@stream> U.S. Secretary of State Brills ended his visit to China this weekend. Although the results of this visit are generally not expected to be high, from the conversation between Blintken and Chinese President Xi Jin, the media announced, can still see the profound differences between the United States and China in treating the relationship between the two countries.

Brinken ended his visit to Huamei and China Agreement "Stable Relationship" * Xi Jinping's last time to meet with Brinden's significance of Sino -US relations

Although the expectations of Blingken's trip were not high, they could successfully visit China, and dialogue with Xi Jinping, the top leader of China and the director of the Office of the Foreign Affairs Working Committee of the CPC Central Committee. Channels are still regarded as new hopes into the U.S. -China relations that have turned sharply.

But at the same time, Blingken's communication records of the visit to China still show a significant difference between the US -China relations between the two countries. According to the website of the US Embassy in China, in fact, Brincken emphasized to the outside world after meeting Xi Jinping on Monday that there is no fantasy in the United States' challenges to manage US -China relations. "On many issues, we are deeply and even fiercely or even fiercely. Hold different opinions. "

The first buttons have not been buckled

According to Chinese official media reports, Xi Jinping mentioned when meeting with Brinton that the competition between large powers does not meet the trend of the times, and it cannot solve the problems of the United States itself and the challenges facing the world. China respects the interests of the United States and will not challenge and replace the United States. Similarly, the United States must respect China and not harm China's legitimate rights and interests.

The phrase "the competition of great powers is not in line with the trend of the times." Obviously, there is conflict with the US information from the outside world. Since President Biden took office, the US government has been emphasizing that the two countries are competitive relations in the United States and China, but China seems to be unwilling to admit it.

Li Weidong, president of the magazine of the Overseas Political Political Publication "China Strategy Analysis", believes that when Xi Jinping said this, the word "competition" was "competitive". "From the perspective of Xi, or in China, the competition mentioned in the United States is confrontation.

Therefore, he said that competition does not meet the trend, and it is actually saying that confrontation does not meet the trend. China believes that you just want to block me, suppress me, and the banner of competition is actually fighting me. "

Li Weidong quoted a statement of Chinese Foreign Minister Qin Gang, saying that in China 's view, when the United States dealt with US -China relations, "the first buttons were deducted wrong ".

In March of this year, Qin Gang said at a press conference at a session of the 14th National People's Congress. This first button is wrong, which has led to the entire US policy of the United States from the right track of rationality and health. "

Li Weidong believes that in fact, China has misjudgment of the United States. "First of all, the United States does not want to hinder China's economic development, and China's economic development is also beneficial to the United States. It is difficult to reverse, which is also the tragedy between the United States and China. "Brincken said clearly when answering questions from the United States Cable Television News (CNN). The reason for restricting high -end chips is that your production of hypersonic missiles threatened the United States from the United States. National security, so I have to restrict you; and China said that my hypersonic missile was not targeted at you. You didn't come to my house's door. This hypersonic missile has nothing to do with you. "

Ye Yaoyuan, director of the Department of International Studies and Contemporary Linguistics of St. Tomas University in the United States, also believes that Xi Jinping's words focus on the word "competition", but his understanding is different. It is unfavorable to China, because as far as the global economic situation is concerned, when many countries slowly point their finger to China, it will actually have a certain negative impact on its economic development or stability of the regime. "

Ye Yaoyuan noticed that Xi Jinping actually wanted to dilute the word competition. "We can often see that when Xi Jinping talked about related issues, he did not use the words 'competition'. Many times they are talking about the cooperation between big powers. "

China is obviously not afraid of competing with the United States. The Wall Street Journal reported on Tuesday (June 20) that China is negotiating with Cuba to establish a new joint military training facility in the local area, and the United States has been alert to this; The target 2025 plan and China have continued to increase pressure in the Taiwan Strait region in the past two years, and various signs have shown that China's initiative to compete with the United States.

"Therefore, Xi Jinping's lecture on weakening the" big country's competition "did not reduce the doubts of the United States, nor did it really transform the competition between the two countries into cooperation," Ye Yaoyuan commented.

Chinese leader Xi Jinping met with POOL Photo Via AP in the Great Hall of the People on June 19, 2023 ! (Images/rfamandarin/2023-06-20T15-33-00-04-00/000003.png) Military communication? No! Since Pelosi visited Taiwan in early August last year, China has canceled the military exchange mechanism between the United States and China. At the beginning of June this year, US Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin also said when he visited Japan that China rejected the suggestion of the two countries during the Singapore's Shangri -La Safety Dialogue and emphasized that this was "unfortunate."

Regarding China's refusal to restore the US -China military exchanges, Li Weidong believes that this is not an essential issue. "This is actually very simple. How many times have been said at the Shangri -La Summit? China has requested the dismissal of Li Shangfu. Either you don't want to communicate, or you don't want to accept a communication under humiliation, that is, if you are sanctioning me, you have to talk to me, then I will not talk about it. "

Li Shangfu was appointed Minister of Defense in March this year. In 2018, the United States sanctioned Li Shangfu, then the Minister of Equipment Development of the CPC Central Military Commission in accordance with the "Agreement of the U.S. Martial Arts Act". The US State Department pointed out that this sanction is related to the purchase of ten Su-35 fighters in 2017 and the purchase of S-400-to-air missile system related equipment in 2018. At the end of May this year, the U.S. State Department made a statement that it would not lift the sanctions against Li Shangfu.

Ye Yaoyuan believes that the purpose of China's refusal of military exchanges is to put pressure on the United States. "The so -called military communication between the two sides is to slow down the possibility of military conflicts, but if the bridge of this communication is not constructed, it is equivalent to this potential. Risks or pressures to bear the United States, which is also a kind of intimidation of China to the United States to some extent."

However, according to the Radio of Hong Kong, Yang Tao, the director of the US Department of Foreign Affairs, said that when the visit to China was evaluated, the visit logo had a new beginning, but the United States must know the difficulties of the difficulty of military exchanges between China and the United States. He did not explain what the reason was here.

Support Trump's demonstrators rushed into the U.S. Congress to oppose the results of the US presidential election in 2020(Reuters)The French "Figaro" reported that Donald Trump, a former president of the United States and a candidate for the 2024 election, is facing the unprecedented legal dilemma in the history of the United States, and may exacerbate the current bipolar differentiation of tearing Americans. So, will this situation go to a civil war in the United States?

French historian Ran Halévi published in the newspaper article According to China, Trump may not be able to get rid of his dilemma this time, although the legal difficulties that may destroy any political figure life like this have not shaken him. , Defamation and paying the sealing fee to the stars -below, try to appear in the image of the victim, so as to wait to complete the continuous investigation of other allegations, encourage his supporters and increase his support in Republican voters Essence Research director of the National Science Research Center in France explained that due to the extremely serious allegations against Trump, once he was convicted, he would be punished and may have been in prison for too many years.

Former American President Trump(news agency)In this trial, for the first time, the former president of the United States appeared in court. The Federal Court will sue him with national crimes. In addition, these trials will be carried out at the same time as the presidential campaign. During this period, Trump will have to allocate time between the public platform and the defendant, and if he has won nominations for the Republican presidential candidate, then he will also respond to criminal allegations and repeated victims on conspiracy theories against the United States. Specification time between people. In the case of tearing the atmosphere of the polarization of Americans, 80% of the Democrats believe that Republicans pose a threat to the country, and Republicans have the same view of the Democratic Party.

The researchers pointed out that the allegations of the former president were very serious, and although according to Trump, they disclosed a judicial gang of "serious abuse". The author believes that the behavior of taking thousands of copies of confidential materials (even includes tight materials) is difficult to understand. Under the circumstances that the preservation of these materials and documents is illegal, this is a intentional violation of the "Spy Law". Just as his lawyer repeatedly told him, especially in view of Trump's negligence of former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton on the storage secret materials as his campaign theme, he asked Hillary to imprison.

Hard to explain

Hallevi was surprised by Trump's practice of retaining these sensitive documents, because these documents had nothing else except that these documents could be sent to prison. Although he was required to return these documents many times, he still issued a false statement, only returned some of the documents, and kept other documents in the temporary location in his home, and said "in my mind Among them, these documents have been decrypted."

The author believes that the interpretation of this evolutionary and unprecedented legal event that has evolved into a political confrontation can be attributed to Trump's narcissism, arrogance, indifference to the truth, and strong consciousness outside the law. He is a "loser", and he and his supporters still think that he was overthrown in an unfair way, and he should be re-elected.

After mentioning allegations against him, Trump admitted that the kind Americans were the target of this judicial farm. He also said, "If these Republicans are as expected as their wishes, then my affairs will not end. The persecution of Christians and active people, he also added when he talked about President Biden, saying, "A corrupt president surrounded by thugs is trying to destroy the democracy of the United States."

Trump's plane(news agency)Trump's ally in Congress said that his prosecution against him was a "war behavior." A member of Arizona stated that "with the eyes with the eyes", and another Trump supporters warned that government followers and their media partners- "If they will drive President Trump to step down, then they will be will be Facing the accountability of 75 million Americans. You know, most of us have guns. This is not a threat, but a public service statement. "In this regard Show the characteristics of the war.

The South Korean government will conduct emergency nuclear radiation testing in the sea water bath in the country.

The Yonhap News Agency reported that the Ministry of Marine Aquatic Products (Deputy Minister) Song Xianggen attended Tuesday (June 20) to attend the press conference of the Fukushima nuclear pollution water exhaust work in Fukushima in Japan that the summer is approaching. It will conduct emergency nuclear radiation testing of the domestic seawater bath.

The authorities will test the 20 most representative seawater baths in China, including the Xiande Sea Bath in Jeju Road and the Mirror of Jiangyuan Daowu.

Song Xianggen said that after Fukushima's Fukushima nuclear sewage is discharged, the government will also conduct a weekly radiation analysis and public results on the seawater bath, so that the people can reassure the people.

Regarding the expansion of the marine radiation survey point from 92 to 200 on the 18th, Song Xianggen said that Song Xianggen said that it will consider the 108 emergency investigation points in southwestern South Korea, southeast, and the waters of Jeju, and adopt it and adopt it. Quick analysis method is different from accurate analysis of one to three months.

In addition, in order to monitor the safety of Fukushima nuclear sewage in advance and whether to flow into the domestic waters, it will conduct radiation investigations of the Gonghai near Fukushima in Japan. For all ocean aquatic products that are currently fishing in the Northwest Pacific fishing ground, the same radiation monitoring is the same as domestic aquatic products.

The Japanese government officially decided on April 13, 2021 to filter and dilute the Fukushima First Nuclear Power Station's millions of tons of nuclear pollution water. Although Japanese fishery groups and local officials strongly opposed this treatment plan, neighboring countries such as China, South Korea also strongly opposed and questioned. In January 2023, the Japanese government set the discharge time of Fukushima's nuclear pollution water as "this year's spring and summer."

Tokyo Electric Power Corporation, Japan, began on June 12 Trial operation of the Fukushima nuclear power plant nuclear sewage discharge facilities Essence It is reported that the trial operation will last for two weeks so that Dongdian will officially open nuclear sewage emissions as planned this summer.

53 -year -old Hante. The confession agreement reached with the federal prosecutor of the Hometown Drava must be obtained by the Federal Judge, and he is unlikely to face the prison.

Hante. Biden's commercial transactions have caused a lot of controversy, and have been criticized by Republican Congress for many years.

The White House spokesman IANSAMS, on behalf of the Biden, issued a brief statement on the incident: "The president and the first lady love their son and support him, he is continuously rebuilding his life. We have no further comment on this."

Federal prosecutor David Weiss said Hante. Biden agreed to accept the confession agreement and acknowledged "the charges of two deliberately not paying federal income tax."

According to court documents, Hante. Biden's revenue in 2017 and 2018 exceeded 1.5 million US dollars, but it was not allowed to pay taxes on time. Therefore, in the past two years, it owed more than 100,000 US dollars in taxes. These two charges allow him to be sentenced to a maximum sentence of one year, plus 100,000 US dollars or double fines.

Weis said Hante. Biden also faced another charges that "controlled drug users or addicts to have firearms." He admitted that he was suffering from drug problems in the past.

The Finnish Parliament voted in favor of Olpo as the Prime Minister, which means that the term of Prime Minister Marin has ended.

Reuters reported that the Election Parliament at Finland (June 20), as expected, voted to choose the right -wing national co -party chairman Petteri Orpo as the Prime Minister, ending the Marin term of the Social Democratic Party. The results of the parliamentary voting are: 107 votes in favor, 81 votes are opposed, and 11 votes are absent.

The 53 -year -old Olpo will lead a joint by the National Coalition Party (NCP), the Finnish Party, The Swedish People 's PARTY, and the ChristianDemocrats of Finnish Alliance. These political parties won most of the parliamentary seats in the election on April 2, and the Democratic Party of the ruling party was defeated in the election.

The new government will work on Tuesday. Riikka Purra, a Finnish party leader, will be the Minister of Finance; Elina Valtonen, deputy leader of NCP, will be the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Olbo said shortly after the parliament voted: "I am very grateful to your trust in me."

Olpo promised to reduce government budget deficits by cutting expenses during the election, while reducing taxation and seeking to promote employment opportunities to promote private sector. The new government alliance will make changes to the immigration policy; reducing refugee quotas, increasing the threshold for work visas, and increasing the difficulty of foreigners to obtain citizenship; these are key priority matters of the Finnish party.

Malin was only 34 years old when he became the Prime Minister of Finland in 2019, and was the youngest prime minister in the world at that time.

Malaysia Minister of Health Kelly believes that for the upcoming Six State Elections The Prime Minister Anhua government must worry about the "tsunami tsunami" of the Malay community, not the "green tide" brought by the Islamic Party. This is because many Malay voters are dissatisfied with the government's lack of economic direction.

Kelly is currently a senior visiting researcher at the Malaysia Research Program of the Easov Isvy East South Asian Institute in Singapore. He published an article entitled "Fulcrum" at the academic website "Fulcrum" of the Yosov Issa Eastern South Asian Research Institute on Tuesday (June 20). According to the seven months of the Anwar government's administration in the past, the Malaysian economy has obviously lacking directions, Lingji has continued to weaken, and the crisis of life costs continues to erode the people's spending capacity.

He said: "The current situation of Malaysia is not so much that the rise of extremism is the rise.

He believes that some practices of the Anwar government have further irritated the Malay people. For example, the unity government claims to eradicate corruption and adhere to good governance, but to accommodate the UMNO leadership contaminated by corruption.

He pointed out that Anhua's appointment of Umno Chairman Ahmad Zahi as the Deputy Prime Minister is actually an unpopular decision. Ahmad Zhashi faced 47 charges involving the funds involved in the misappropriation of health thinking funds, and was suspected of receiving bribes in multiple projects during the period from 2013 to 2018.

In addition, Kelly believes that UMNO has rarely showed any willingness to reform. "The UMNO representative conference has almost no willingness to reform, but it emphasizes that Umno's support for the Anwar government is legitimate, and tried to convene the party representative Najib. The lowest point of its history. "

He said: "UMNO was originally regarded as the help of the Pakatan Harapan, and it may take the lead in rushing into the major constituencies of Malay voters, but now it seems unlikely."

He also said that Anhua's "3R" subject of race, religion and royal family in Anwar. "Recently, the government has attacked the government to abandon the 2021 High -Court ruling. Relevant ruling allows Christian publications to use the term" Ala " Essence Social media of the National League also tried to use the uneasiness of the Malaysian voters for the existence of the DAP in the government to fight for support. The exchange rate of the Malaysian Dragon to the US dollar has continued to decline recently, but the Ministry of Finance of Malaysia emphasized that the government will no longer link the exchange rate to the US dollar in the Asian financial turmoil in the 1998 Asian financial turmoil, because this will cause Malaysia to lose the dominance of monetary policy, and at the same time, it will also be at the same time. Let the Ringno face the risk of sudden changes in the US dollar exchange rate.

MPs, Susadin Adu, asked the government on Tuesday (June 20) in the House of Representatives whether the government planned to link the ringgit to the US dollar to solve the problem of the recent depreciation of the ringgit. When the Ministry of Finance, Ahmad Maslan, pointed out that the government would not do so.

Ahmad Maslan said that the linked to the United States and the US dollar may lead to further rise in the interest rate (OPR) overnight. He said that Malaysia's overnight policy interest rate was 3%, and the United States was 5.25%. "If the value of the ringing currency is fixed at RM3.80, the overnight policy interest rate will also increase to 5.25%."

He said: "The current overnight policy interest rate of 3% has made the people very uncomfortable. If the interest rate of overnight policy is raised to 5.25%, the situation will be worse." The State Bank of Malaysia (central bank) announced in May this year that the overnight policy interest rate is announced. Raise 25 basis points to 3%. This is the first time that the central bank has raised overnight policy interest rates since 2022.

Ahmad Maslan said that after the link between the ringgit and the US dollar, Malaysia also needs to use a large amount of reserves to maintain the ring value. Authorities will also implement capital control and cause capital flows to be no longer free, because foreign funds will be restricted by then in Malaysia.

He emphasized that in the uncertain global financial market, a flexible ringgit exchange rate can reduce the impact of market changes on domestic economic activities. "The government will continue to increase national economic growth and competitiveness, attract foreign funds and investment inflows, thereby supporting the strong value of the ringing currency."

Tuesday (June 20):

Pre -trading focus:

Grabholdings is expected to announce the largest layoffs since the epidemic this week. (File photo)

Damimi Airlines will be held "Investor Day" on June 27, and market investors hope that it will release some favorable news. (Agence France -Presse)

Delta Air Lines (New York Stock Exchange code: DAL)

After 15 consecutive days of the U.S. Aviation's stock price incredible, it finally retreated by 0.21 % slightly last Friday, ending this record of the record. However, Damimi Airlines is about to hold "Investor Day" on June 27. Therefore, many people in the industry believe that the trend of the stocks may be rolled back.

Since May 25 this year, Damei Airlines has risen by 23 %. This time is also exactly the long weekend of the United States 's commemorative day to June and June long weekend, which is the so -called tourism harvest period in the United States. The optimism of tourism throughout the summer is around many tourism -related stocks.

The US Transport Safety Administration said last Friday that more than 2.7 million people on Thursday (15th) alone passed the US Airport checkpoint to surpass the level before the 2019 epidemic. It is also expected that at least 10 million people will pass the US Airport checkpoint during the next holiday weekend.

The data of the bureau also shows that the airport traffic in the June section of June is expected to surpass the long weekend of the Memorial Day. About 9.8 million people traveled from Friday to Monday (May 26th to 29th).

On the other hand, Daimei Airlines also announced a dividend again five days ago. This is also the first time that the airline has resumed dividends since the cancellation of dividends in March 2020. Damei Airlines will distribute a dividend of $ 0.10 per share. The deadline for stock registration is July 17, and the dividend will be distributed on August 7.

Daimei Airlines restores dividends is an important milestone in its business. The company said it reflects that its three -year financial plan has made good progress, and it has repaid the fact that it has repaid more than $ 10 billion in debt over the past two years.

The rise at the end of last Friday was Damimei stocks. United Airlines and American Airlines also ended their eight -day winning streak on the same day.

At present, investors seem to be waiting for more data to support travel needs that will continue to be strong. For example, the flow data of the long weekend of June, or any favorable news that may be released next week. Wolferesearch analyst, Scott Group, predicts that Databa Airlines may publish optimistic comments at that time, and even increase the annual profit forecast.

So far, all 11 analysts in Tipranks have given Da Meimei stocks to "buy" rating. The average target price of one -year period is $ 52.45. The calculation of the 42.79 closing price of the above Friday, they believe that the stock has an average of 22.58 % of the rise.

Russia refers to Ukraine's plan to attack Crimea controlled by Russia with long -range missiles in the United States and Britain.

Minister of Defense Sho Gulu said that if Crimea was attacked, Russia would fight back.

Reuters reported that at a military official meeting on Tuesday (June 20) that Moscow's intelligence showed that Ukraine plans to use the US -provided high -engine multi -tube rocket system (Himars, also known as Hemamas) and Britain The "StormShadow" cruise missile attacked Crimea.

"The use of these missiles outside our special military operation area means that the United States and the United Kingdom will be completely involved in this conflict, and Ukraine's decision -making center will be immediately attacked."

Moscow invaded eastern and southern Ukraine in February last year, but called it "special military operations." Moscow believes that Crimea, which it annexed in 2014, does not belong to the war area where special military operations.

Russia annexed Crimea in 2014, while Ukraine vowed to retrieve all territories occupied by Russia, including the Crimean Peninsula.

Sho Gulu said that since June 4, the Ukrainian army has launched 263 attacks on the Russian army's position. "Due to the smart and selfless actions of our troops, all these (attack) were repelled, and the enemy did not complete the goal."

Ukraine claims that in the early stages of counterattacks, it has been to regain eight villages Essence A national defense official said that despite the stubborn resistance of the Russian army, Kiev's "biggest blow" was still behind.

ASEAN September Joint Military Show was changed to Nanda Tona Sea

Description: (Agence France -Presse Jakarta, 20th) The Indonesian military said today that the Southeast Asian National Association (ASEAN )'s first joint military exercise has been replaced to avoid seas with sovereign disputes with China.

The ASEAN Army was originally scheduled to be held in North Natunasea. Indonesia has drawn this sea area as an exclusive economic zone, but Chinese ships occasionally go to patrol. When against the Jakarta government, China moved out of the so -called "nine -stage line", claiming that it had historic rights to the local area.

China claims to have the sovereignty in most of the South China Sea, regardless of protests from Southeast Asian countries such as Indonesia, Vietnam, the Philippines, and Malaysia.

The Indonesian military issued a statement today saying that the ASEAN Army's ASEAC is currently scheduled to be held in the South Natuna Sea to avoid controversial sea areas.

ASEAN member states have held naval exercises with the United States and China, but have not held military exercises with the entire group of ASEAN.

The Indonesian military stated that after the ASEAN rotating chairman, Indonesia made the above -mentioned decisions after the preparatory meeting of several Dongxie partners, but did not announce which countries participated or abstained.

ASEAN's number one Alliance Cambodia refused to confirm that he would participate in the exercise. The Indonesian military stated in today's statement that military leaders in 10 ASEAN countries will participate in exercises.

Yudo Margono, chief of the Indonesian National Army, told reporters earlier this month that the exercise focuses on maritime security and rescue without combat operations.

Before the establishment of Action Avital in 2004, the wealthy British businessman had worked in Bangalore, India for 5 years as the general manager of a logistics company.

Although Forbes Magazine did not include Harding in the "Billionaire Club", Harding obviously still has enough financial resources to support its expensive adventure hobbies.

A year ago, he became the first British to participate in Blue Origin, a subsidiary of Jeff Bezos, a 5th manned space mission of Blue Origin, to travel.

Just as Harding wrote on his Instagram, "I will seize all opportunities to travel, break the world records and driving jet machines." Harbin, who loves adventure, is the holding of 3 GUINNESSWORLD ReCords. In July 2019, he completed a schedule of more than 40,000 kilometers from the north and south poles of the earth with 46 hours, 39 minutes and 38 seconds, setting the fastest record surround the Earth pole.

In March 2021, he and another explorer Victor Vescovo arrived in the deepest part of the "ChallengerDeep" in the deepest part of Marianatrench (about 19773 meters from the ground), and he was). The 12 -hour underwater mission finally set two world records, including the longest period of stay (4 hours and 15 minutes) at the depth of the ocean, and the longest distance (about 4.5 kilometers) of driving at this depth.

Last weekend, Hardor posted in Instagram, saying that he "finally can proudly announced" that he would board the submersible for exploring the wreckage of Titani.

In April 1912, at the time, Titani, who claimed to be a giant, sailed from a virgin virgin flight from Southampton, Britain, and sank in the North Atlantic. More than 1,500 of more than 1,200 passengers and crew members were killed.
